

Smart Little Beggar Help Us Spread His Light!

'ALONG THE WAY' By Rev. Donald A. Lord, S.J.

With years gone grown to edify the ingenuity of beggars...

"Father," said he in a brogue I cannot reproduce...

Sursum Corda KRIVITSKY, GETLOW, HOLMES—NEXT!

By REV. JAMES M. GILLES, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

I must beg the indulgence of regular readers of this column for reverting today to the subject treated last week...

"If liberals were right on certain sinners aspects of the Russian Revolution, we were wrong, gracefully wrong, on the question as a whole..."

suppose mother won't let me have a baby sister? Poor kid! Poor mother! Congratulations, Mrs. Sanger!

publicity it received from the press throughout the country! A fine comedy! Just one omission, the music!

The Brotherhood Dinner The week of February 18 to February 25 is Brotherhood Week throughout the United States...

Bishop Corrigan The COURIER extends its congratulations to the Most Rev. Joseph M. Corrigan on his elevation to the episcopate...

'Grapes of Wrath'

'LIBRARY SIGNPOST'

John Steinbeck has a swell title and an "honest-to-God" dramatic situation in his new novel...

That seems to be the general reaction of the critics whom I look to in the devious paths of book evaluation...

Some people will be quite sure to say that you must read a book like this and take the foul punches in stride...

And there you have the pity of it. We about ten thousands of families in the same desperate plight as the Joads of the Steinbeck novel...

There is appalling tragedy in their lives. But you cannot sense that tragedy by reading about it or ignorant about human destiny...

The pity of a book like "Grapes of Wrath" (apart from its small) is that it doesn't go to the roots of its tragedy...

Steinbeck's picture is brutal and untrue to life despite the verity of its facts...

Went with Margaret to the Welfare Department. The waiting room was small and crowded by nine-thirty in the morning...

LIBRALS condoned the dissolution of the Constituent Assembly by Lenin, the act of tyranny of the worst description...

From Feb. 14, 1935, Edition If you Catholics had the same zeal as the Communists for social justice, the world would soon be changed...

'If So—Then Why Not'

LIBRARY SIGNPOST

If the Catholic Press is the only way whereby the true word of God can enter the homes of the irreligious...

If the Catholic Press is the only method by which Catholics can be properly posted as to the merit of modern movements...

If the Catholic Press cannot be supplanted by any agency that will impart the necessary knowledge without which the valuable efforts and sacrifices expended in Catholic education will be lost to a discouraging degree...

If without the help of the Catholic Press, the pronouncements of the Holy Father are practically futile and the directions of our spiritual leaders considerably ineffective...

If the Catholic Press is the only means whereby the soul of Catholic Action can be continuously stimulated and energized...

If the Catholic Press is the only effective weapon with which we can meet the attacks made on the Church, the only way of procedure to correct the principles disseminated by atheistic writers and to halt the inroads of false and dangerous propaganda...

If the Catholic Press is the only reliable source through which true conditions abroad can be conveyed to the public and damaging lies against God's cause refuted...

In one word: If the Catholic Press is the only available means that can, in many ways, be relied upon to prevent the awful sacrifice of Our Lord on the CROSS from being in vain...

Why then should not every Catholic, if he is sincere in the least, do his utmost in helping the spread of Catholic literature?

Antiphon "SWM—OR SINA" By the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Peter M. H. Wynne, Editor of CATHOLIC ACTION OF THE SOUTH, New Orleans, and Vice-President of the Catholic Press Association of the United States

WHY?

Do Priests Go To Confession?

Their certainty do. The Church does not have one set of laws for the laity and another for the clergy...

Extension of the Pulpit

The work of the Catholic papers has been most praiseworthy in extending the pulpit to the very roots of the tragedy of the poor...

Five Years Ago-- the Republic of Mexico, the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society...

Feast Days

- Sunday, Feb. 12—ST. SIMON, BISHOP, MARTYR. Monday, Feb. 13—ST. BARBARA, BISHOP. Tuesday, Feb. 14—ST. EUCHARISTUS, BISHOP. Wednesday, Feb. 15—ST. SEVERIANUS, MARTYR, BISHOP. Thursday, Feb. 16—ST. PETER'S CHAIR AT ANTIOCH. Friday, Feb. 17—ST. PETER DAMIAN. Saturday, Feb. 18—ST. MARTIN, APOSTLE.

Diocesan Recordings

TRAINING and encouraging Catholic Press Crusaders today assures trained and inspired Catholic actionists and parish workers of tomorrow...

This nation is as sound as ever when the Supreme Court will uphold the rights of Negroes as provided in the Constitution...

He refuses to join an internationally accredited Catholic lay organization when invited. He is willing to participate in advantages provided by the work of that organization...

Thinking along the same lines? In his copyrighted column With Malice Toward None, Sarazul B. Pettengill, The Gentleman from Indiana, declares...

Men of vision have worked out the long-range program of the Catholic University of America, The civic education program of the Commission of American Citizenship will reach into every section of these United States...

Catholic Courier has my most enthusiastic approval. A prominent newspaper has become an essential part of the program of Catholic action...

The Bishops' Joint Pastoral

Significant changes have been wrought in our industrial relations in the past forty years, that one is naturally tempted to search the reason for them...

These two great teachers are now reflected in the legislation passed by the United States and by the governments of the progressive nations...

Where pagan motives rule much of the world and fight for influence even here, it is most opportune that the Bishops of the United States should express themselves in a forceful and uncompromising manner...

The Joint Pastoral Letter of the American Hierarchy is a document that will take its place beside the great encyclicals as a guiding influence to capital and labor...

The "Church and Social Order" seems to be the answer of the Bishops to the challenge expressed in the Encyclical of Pope Pius XII, "On the Church in the United States..."

Call Out The Marines! Such a combination of bombast and nonsense, of play-acting and strutting, has occupied the stage at the Washington meetings of the American Youth Congress during the past week...