

Catholic Courier 1947
With the Approbation of the Most Reverend James Edward Kearney, D. D. Bishop of Rochester.
MEMBER CATHOLIC PRESS ASSOCIATION OF UNITED STATES
MEMBER OF THE CATHOLIC CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Father Gruender
'ALONG THE WAY'
By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

When I first walked into the class of my professor of psychology, I got two shocks. In a delightfully German accent, he said "I talk very fast and it isn't easy to follow me when I do. I have the speed of a jet and no firm purpose of amendment."

WHY?
ISN'T THIS JOB ENOUGH?
YOU'VE GOT ONE WAR TO FIGHT RIGHT HERE!

Galileo Once Again
By Rev. James M. Gillis, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

Reading perhaps a dozen reviews of The Star Gazet... Galileo was due, partly to his own turbulence, but even more to the scientific revolution which was in the air.

Library Signpost

May I say this for the sake of the record: A Catholic must be apostolic. Otherwise he is only a part-time Catholic. The Catholic way of getting along with his Protestant and Jewish neighbor is not to soil-peddle the fortissimo notes of his own religion.

Read: The Comedian, by Henri Ghéon. Catholic Evidence Library.
Because of the interest evinced in last week's column about the Rauschenberg book The Revolution of Nihilism, I would like to pass on a suggestion to our readers...

The CATHOLIC COURIER had my most enthusiastic approval. A newspaper has become an essential part of the program of Catholic education in every diocese.

Rev. Michael Groden
Sorrow has come to the people of St. Vincent's Parish of Corning in the death of their beloved Pastor, Father Groden. His sorrow is shared by the many throughout the diocese who have known him and his work.

The 1940 Census
The government representative will bring your report. He will come with authority from the United States Government to propose to you a series of questions prepared by the Bureau of the Census.

Observing too, that it is in his heart that he says, "There is no God" in his heart, not in his head. Reason would tell him just the reverse. When you chance upon an atheist, then, you may set it down for certain that he has come to this frame of mind either through excess of pride or through lack of faith.

All Of The Religions In The World Cannot Be True. Some Of Them Must Be False. Is It Better To Belong To A False Religion Than To Have No Religion At All?
No religion made by man can take the place of the religion given to man by God. Truth and sincerity are not the same thing.

Clips

It is silly to fret about your hipster's dumbness if you pay $10 a week, you can't expect to get $100 a year brains. -Gleendale (Cal.) News-Peak
God does us great honor when He is pleased that we should tread the same road which was trodden by His only Begotten Son. -St. Paul of the Cross

Spiritual Thoughts

We must strive, in following Christ to be perfect even as our heavenly Father is perfect.
All who wish to know God must be zealous in learning to know themselves. Mother Mary Aikenhead
If God sees in you virtue fit for a martyr's death, He will reward you according to your virtue. St. Cyprian

Example of Sacrifice

I would make any sacrifice even to the pawing of my rinceps pectoral cross and soutane, in order to support a Catholic newspaper. -Plus X
Let us abandon everything to the merciful providence of God. St. Albert the Great.

Five Years Ago--

From Feb. 28, 1942, Edition
Special recommendations that Holy Year Jubilee Vials be made during Lent were contained in the annual Lenten pastoral of Archbishop Mooney.
The Rev. Joseph E. Grady, principal of Aquinas Institute, and Edwin J. McNamara, honor student of Niagara University at Rochester, were nominated for Delta Mu Delta, National Honorary Accounting Fraternity and

Diocesan Recordings

Some of the current Confucius Say sayings cannot square with the Holy Name Society standards.
The large representation of Catholics at the Interfaith Goodwill Dinner in Rochester was indicative of Catholic goodwill in the community.
To the attention of this newspaper has been called the sound letter written by Clinton N. Howard, general superintendent and Editor of International Reform Federation of Washington to the Democrat and Chronicle which appeared in that newspaper on Sunday, August 11, 1946.

A Perpetual Mission

A Catholic newspaper is a perpetual mission in the home. -Leo XIII
You can tell when a science runs out of facts and starts on theory. The words get over three syllables longer. -Cincinnati Times-Star
Always look below the material surface and try to read spiritual lessons in every natural event and in every created object.

Feast Days

Sunday, Mar. 3. -ST. CUNEGUNDE, EMPRESS.
Monday, Mar. 4. -ST. CASIMIR, KING.
Tuesday, Mar. 5. -ST. ADRIAN AND EMBUS, MARTYRS.
Wednesday, Mar. 6. -ST. COLLETTA, VIRGIN.
Thursday, Mar. 7. -ST. THEONAS, AQUINAS.
Friday, Mar. 8. -ST. JOHN OF SAUNDERS.
Saturday, Mar. 9. -ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI.

The Last Will of a Catholic

Why should the last will of a Catholic be different from that of one who is not a Catholic? The question is suggested by the news article in last week's COURIER on the Murray estate, in which a most generous provision is made for St. Patrick's Church of Massillon.
The large amount involved, the extent of the bequest for the church, would naturally set this will off as different from the usual will of a Catholic. But the spirit that prompted the making of this bequest, the thought that was in the mind of Mr. Murray as he made his will, is one that should be found in the mind of any Catholic as he makes his will.

Nice It's Not True

During a visit in the fall to Canada, I heard the repeated charge that the Jewish young man were not offering for the actual war on Hitler. A pleasant letter through Dr. Chapman tells me that the charge is incorrect, and that Jews are enlisting in a higher ratio than one could ask. The Montreal Star for October 25 is quoted as giving Jewish enlistment as double their percentage of the total population. Fine, and I hope they make both the Nazis and the Communists sorry they years. God's word has been preached to the children of the faith.

Radio Influence

I was to talk on the Lillian Hellman-Tullish Bankhead play called "The Little Foxes" but a lady said to me, "I'm going to hear you talk on 'The Three Little Foxes' which I thought showed what radio is doing to scramble our minds. She had blundered 'The Three Little Fishes' and 'Yah, yah, yah said the little fox' and I think she produced a little that improves on the original."

Radio Influence

The elders of the village can look back to the day when they received before its altar the Sacrament of Marriage, the younger members have been baptized at its font. First Communions, Confirmations, the funerals of loved ones—all have united to make the parish church the unit around which have centered the treasured memories of life.
The parish school has built up a generation of well-instructed Catholic youth, proud of their Church and ready to give a reason for the faith that is in them.

Radio Influence

It is a perfect marriage occurs when a man is interested in a woman's clothing style and she is a baseball fan. -Roanoke Times.
I should like to hear the improving song of that musical psychologist who believed in sincerity in his own house and in his own home, and who found himself in the presence of the pure spirit that is God.

Radio Influence

It is still a pretty decent world while you can measure a man's growth by the increasing gentleness of his criticism. -Illinois State Journal.
A perfect marriage occurs when a man is interested in a woman's clothing style and she is a baseball fan. -Roanoke Times.

Radio Influence

The village of Webster is observing its Jubilee, and the good things in first hundred years have been celebrated by the Catholic Parish of the village. Its celebration of its Eightieth Anniversary, which has ministered to the needs of a hundredfold in the years to come. May Holy Trinity Parish continue to be to all its members a treasure house of spiritual blessings bestowed on the household of the faith by the Three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.

Radio Influence

The village of Webster is observing its Jubilee, and the good things in first hundred years have been celebrated by the Catholic Parish of the village. Its celebration of its Eightieth Anniversary, which has ministered to the needs of a hundredfold in the years to come. May Holy Trinity Parish continue to be to all its members a treasure house of spiritual blessings bestowed on the household of the faith by the Three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.