Jews and Communists

ALONG THE WAY By Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J. Writes Moris Stone, Commander of the Jewish War Veterans, St. Louis.

LET'S BE CAREFUL

WHY?

Why Are You Catholics Not Allowed to Read the Bible? One of the strangest charges against the Church and one which is commonly believed by other intelligent non-Catholics is the accusation that the Church does not allow her children to read the Bible.

Diocesan Recordings

Rallying behind Bishop Kearney, 2,300 laymen and laywomen of this diocese demonstrated what can be done, working with their good pastors, in doing a job for God and their country. The $2,487 gathered by two weeks' hard work and the will to carry out an appeal of the Holy Father is conclusive proof that this diocese is organized on a sound basis.

MEMBER CATHOLIC PRESS ASSOCIATION OF UNITED STATES... BY REV. MRS. WILLIAM H. HART

With the Approbation of the Most Reverend James Edward Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester.

A Glorious Accomplishment All praise and congratulations to the workers who sponsored the wonderful Public Campaign for the Catholic University of the Diocese of Rochester.

Another evidence of the intense living force there is the Catholic Church. The Church is not just a society, a living society. Jesus Christ, the Great High Priest, dwells in the Pope and Bishop and Priest share in the Priesthood.

Archbishop Spellman Receives The Pallium With solemn ceremony on next Tuesday in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, Archbishop Spellman will receive the Sacred Pallium, sent to him by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII.

Perfumes Perfumes are a little out of my line, needless to say. I know more about the odor of incense in the sanctuary than I do of the right scent for the bathroom.

Humpty Dumpty Man With test tubes and reagents Chemist says they can determine the amounts and kinds of chemicals in man.

Use Jesuita Again A pleasant correspondent, Miss Chamberlain of Yorkers, sends me this little episode.

Nice Example Excerpt from a letter: This morning I got on the street, still asleep. In the rear was a crowd of girls from the nearby Catholic high school.

Speaking of Jim Farley There's a story current in the South that I feel must be authentic. I've heard it so often.

Three Kinds of Givers Some witty person once said: "There are three kinds of givers: the flint, the sponge and the honeycomb."

Five Years Ago-- From Mar. 7, 1935, Edition St. Ambrose Holy Name men were out in front in the Catholic Press Mouth Campaign of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union.

The Holy Family There was many a family in Palestine, these countries ago, many a family, perhaps, with wealth, and power, and learning.

Snickers A young theologian name Fiddle, Refused to accept his degree. "For," said he, "tis enough to be Fiddle."

Lazy Workman (to the foreman): "Rome wasn't built in a day." Foreman: "No, but it was fixed in a day, and so are you."

Library Signpost More Cues and Clues

The Rev. Mr. David Rhys Williams protested in his last Sunday sermon against making a greater fuss over the profanity and obscenity in "Grapes of Wrath" than over the brutal injustice which it exposes.

Grapes of Wrath, The This film, rated as A-2 is a departure from the usual type of picture treatment current in motion pictures. Largely in the style of the documentary film it presents a social and economic depiction of suffering people and distressing conditions.

NEW YORK SCHOOL SECURES A PRIZE By REV. JAMES M. GILLER, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

On February 26 it was announced that the Board of Higher Education of the City of New York had appointed Bertrand Russell as professor of philosophy at City College.

With the victory of Christianity and the barbarians, the relations of men and women sank to a pitch of brutality which had been unknown in the ancient world for many centuries.

What do you think about when you are alone? Submission to God's appointments is better than sacrifice—Mother Mary Alkenhead

We must keep mindful of our own weakness and that we need the help of God. If someone has made a mistake, don't rub it in; on the contrary, make light of it.

When compositors do not get on well I go to my chamber and, rosary in hand, say a few Aveas, and then the ideas return.—Joseph Hayden.

God is supreme strength, fortifying those who place their trust and confidence in Him.—St. Catherine of Siena.

Look upon the example of the Saints, who were set forth as our pattern, to encourage us to well-doing.—The Imitation.

The pilgrimage that matters most is the pilgrimage to Mass—the pilgrimage of the fifty-two Sundays—not to mention holy days of obligation.
