JUNIOR HOLY NAME MEETS

The Junior Holy Name Society of St. Andrew's Church held a large meeting last Monday evening, with more than forty members in attendance.

The Eucharistic Committee made plans to have an Hour of Adoration on Holy Thursday, from 6:30 to 7.30, and to receive Holy Communion for their fathers on the third Sunday of March.

Mr. S. Clifford announced a pamphlet-lending system of which many of the members availed themselves after the meeting. A report was also given on the basketball team which has won 2 games and lost 3 in the C. Y. O. League. The much-looked-forward-to hayride was postponed until April.

An invitation was extended to the Society by the officers of the Sodality to attend the Symposium which is to be held on Sunday, March 10.

Pictures which were taken after the last dance were presented to the members of the dance committee.

After the business meeting, Gerard Thomann showed several news reels which were keenly enjoyed by the entire group. In appreciation of his generosity, Mr Thomann was presented with a gift by the Society.

RETREAT SCHEDULED

The Rev Henry A. Druffel, C.PP.S., will conduct the Retreat during Holy Week. An experienced missioner and one already well known in Rochester, Father Druffel will give the people an inspiring preparation for Easter Sunday

Retreat sermons will begin Monday evening and continue each evening until Easter Sunday. The parishioners are invited to patricipate in this splendid spiritual exercise and to properly prepare themselves for the great feast of Easter

Under the guidance of Dom Bruno, the Holy Redeemer Youth Association began its new program of activities on March 1. The schedule includes intramural basketball, badminton, dancing, first aid classes, ping-pong and pool tournaments. Activities are held on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The new nickelodian and player piano supply the melody while some hundred members try to make up their minds as to just which entertainment they prefer.

The club's dramatic group, after several sessions into the far hours of the night, has emerged with a minstrel show and a cast that shows great promise.

Rearrangement of the club rooms has begun and the search for furnishings is on Already money donations from the parishioners have helped to put the new organization on its feet and the members thus encouraged are seeking to pick up furniture "for free" Player-piano music, old furniture, floor lamps, tables and chairs all will be gladly accepted and used

Jewish Agency Acquires Second Century Coins

JERUSALEM.—The Jewish Executive Agency has acquired from the Dormition Abbey of the Benedictine Fathers on Mount Zion, Jerusalem, an important collection of some 80 iron and copper coins and implements found near the Arab village of Bittir some 25 years ago and believed to date back to the period of Bar Kochba's revolt in the years 132-135 A. M.

Bittir was the last fortress held by the leader of the Jewish insurrection against the Roman rule in Palestine.

C. Y. O. Names Director

Dr. Curran Hits Protests Of Taylor Appointment

(Text of sermon given by the Rev. Edward Lodge Curran, Ph. D. of Brooklyn at Holy Rosary Church Forty Hours, March 6).

Christ is the Eucharistic King. There is only one Church in the world which contains His Eucharistic throne. That is the Holy Roman Catholic Church to which we have the honor to belong. The Catholic Church, and no other, is the Eucharistic church in our modthe Eucharistic Church in our mod-

As followers of our Eucharistic King we believe in the brotherhood of man. But we also believe in the Fatherhood of God There can be no brotherhood of man unless it be predicated upon worship of God our Father. We cannot love our neighbor really and truly and sincerely unless we behold in him the handiwork of God even as we wish him to behold in us the image of God in which we were all created. We Catholics believe in the rights of humanity. But we Catholics also believe in the rights of God.

It was Christ, our Eucharistic King, who pronounced that the rights of God are superior to the rights of Caesar. It was the Catholic Church, founded by our Eucharistic King, that has always fought for the rights of the people against the depredations of ancient and modern tyrants. No Catholic philosopher or theology ever taught that the king or the ruler could do no wrong.

The Catholic Church never taught that the ruler of a country owed his power solely to God and that he could therefore ignore the rights of the people in the exercise of his power. The doctrine of the divine right of kings was never espoused by the Church to which we have the honor to belong.

It was Martin Luther who believed in the absorption of the church by the state. It was John Calvin who believed in the absorption of the state by the church. It was the religious rebels of four hundred years ago who sided with kings against the people and who revived the totalitarianism of the pagan Roman Empire

The Blessed Eucharistic is democratic in its substance and democratic in its distribution This alone is proof of the fact that the Eucharistic Church is the mother of democracy. There can be no democracy in this world unless we believe in two things. There can be no democracy unless we believe that all men born into this world, irrespective of race or color or religion, possess certain God-given inalienable rights which every State must guarantee to them and which no State must ever take away from them. There can be no democracy unless we also believe that just governments derive their just powers from the sake of the governed

I am quoting these truths. It is true from the preamble to our American Declaration of Independence But I am also quoting them from the writings on government of the great Dominican Saint Thomas Aquinas of the thirteenth century and from the writings on government of the great Jesuits, Persons and Suarez and Bellarmine of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries

Down on the shelves of the Congressional Library in Washington there is a very old, a very sacred and a very much used book It is the book used by Thomas Jefferson before he wrote the Declaration of Independence. It is the book which contains the writings on democracy of the great Jesuit who became a great Cardinal, who became a great Saint — canonized by His recent Holiness Pope Pius XI —the great Saint Robert Cardinal Bellarmine, S. J

The Catholic Church has always been opposed to totalitarian government. She was opposed to the totalitarian government of the pagan Roman Empire. She was opposed to the totalitarian governments of the Tudor and the Stuart kings of England, one of whom had the books of Suarez publicly burned because he objected to the Jesuit's teachings on democracy And she is opposed today to the totalitarian government that would rob the citizen of everyone of his God-given rights.

The Catholic Church teaches that the State was made for the citizen and not the citizen for the State The Catholic Church teaches that God is the author of all power including civil power which is the right to rule. The Catholic Church teaches that God bequeathed the civil power to the people collectively and that the people delegate this power to all their appointed and elected officials. This is the doctrine of popular sovereignty. This is the principle of true democracy. And there would have been no democracy in the United States of America or anywhere throughout the world if it had not been for the Eucharistic Church of Jesus Christ to which we have the honor to belong

As Eucharistic followers of our Eucharistic King we demand that various agencies in America stop their slanderous campaigns against the Church. We demand that they practise the principle of brotherly love about which they talk so much and do so little.

We resent the public attitude taken by certain Baptist groups in this country against the appointment of Mr. Myron Taylor, as the personal representative of the President of the United States to Pope Pius XII for the cause of peace.

We are amused at their fears that such an appointment implies some form of union between Church and State. It is evident that they know little about history. For it is their religious antecedents, and not ours, who established the union of State and the Church in England, and Switzerland and Germany and the Scandinavian countries at the very time that our religious antecedents were preaching the doctrine of democracy.

Certainly the attitude taken by these groups protesting the appointment of Mr. Taylor is not productive of the good will which they glorify with their lips and extinguish in their deeds. Brotherly love should be something more than a pious sentiment. It should be an attitude of mind based upon reality.

If the various religious groups in this country wish to practise, as well as preach, the doctrine of brotherly love, they should be faithful to something that is a principle of logic, a principle of love and a principle of law In logic we should never reach conclusions for which prior facts and prior premises do not exist In love of neighbor we should refrain from rash judgments and from calumny In law we should be guided by the principle that all men are innocent until they are proven guilty Not in words alone, but in the daily practice of these principles will all religious and racial groups in America prove that they really believe in brotherly love and Christian democracy
