Mrs. Chris Dengel is general chairman with Mrs. William Monroe assisting. The general committee is composed of band leaders and members.

Irish Societies Honor St. Patrick

Adding Thomas Moore to the name that the Irish hearts. His Excellency the Most Rev. James E. Kearney recalled this poet's lasting contribution to the land of Erin at the banquet of Equity banquet honoring St. Patrick.

This banquet held at Powers Hotel attracted over 450 knights and their ladies who at Hotel screens the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Auxiliary raised 700 as the traditional observance of St. Patrick's feast day took place.

Bishop Kearney brought to the Knights of Equity banquet a scholarly discourse on the life of Thomas Moore and read for his hearers several of the outstanding poetic compositions of Moore as well as reading the lyrics of "The Harp of Ireland," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "The Last Rose of Summer."

The Banquet was presided by James P. Duffy, K.S.G., K.M., who was toastmaster. Mr. Duffy in presenting his Excellency read the welcome message printed in the CATHOLIC COURIER installation edition when Bishop Kearney came to resign over this See. Mr. Duffy also read the preamble to the Constitution of the Irish Free State pointing out the fundamental principle of that document is reverence for religion and acknowledgment of the power of the Most Holy Trinity.

Walter T. Simpson, worthy knight, expressed his appreciation for the banquet and the making of the banquet a success.

Seated also at the speakers table were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G. the Rev. Roy Murphy, national chaplain of the Knights of Equity, Joseph P. Flynn, grand knight of the Knights of Columbus, Patrick Casey, general chairman of the banquet, George C. Monaghan, commander, County American Legion, Charles J. Hallauer and Al. Sigel, noted newscaster.

Leading the proper musical atmosphere were Miss Eileen Malone in selections on the harp, Edgar Riley, tenor and Paul A. Frend, who led group singing of Irish airs.

At the Hibernians' feat the dances of their native land were presented by young and old to the well-known tunes which stir Irish hearts. Michael Culhane was master of ceremonies at the banquet, festive assisted by Sheila M. Hugh.

An exhibit of blackthorn candles drew wide interest at the Hibernians party.

Priest's Book Sale Passes 320,000

NEW YORK—The sale of books written by the Rev. Fr. Joseph J. Donnelly, S.J., Professor of English at Fordham College, has just passed the 320,000 mark according to publishers' estimates released today in connection with the annual sale of new works by Fr. Donnelly.

"The Heart of the Mass" will be released this month and the other "The Heart of the Rosary" in the near future.

The largest sale reported is for Model English I (Imitation and Analysis) with 75,000 followed by English II written some years later, with 50,000.

Senator Louis Stewart of Washington, The Statement of the Archbishop and Bishops of the Administrative Board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference on "The Church and Social Order" has received the commendation of United States Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas who said he found the document "exceedingly interesting and instructive."

COLLEGE LEADER

JOHN SULLIVAN
Directs St. Bona's Evidence Guild

ST. BONAVENTURE N. Y. John Sullivan, of 79 Kron Street, a junior at St. Bonaventure College, St. Bonaventure, N. Y., has been elected president of the Catholic Evidence Guild of that college. It is the fourth student office he holds being also secretary of the Student Senate, president of the St. Bonaventure Mission Society and president of the Flower City Club, an organization of Rochester students at the college. He is also student director of the N. Y. A.

Sullivan has represented his school in two important recent gatherings in the educational world: the National Theological Congress held last fall in Cincinnati and the Regional Conference of the New York State Association of Colleges and Universities, held in Syracuse.

ST. BONA STUDENTS ACTIVE IN FIRST YEAR, RETURN

Among the local students returning from St. Bonaventure College for the Easter holidays are three members of the Freshman Class.

Leo A. Brownward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brownward of 412 Rockwood Street, is taking a course in Business Administration. He is a member of Beta Beta Beta fraternity and is the assistant editor in the Department of Publicity. He has done considerable writing for the "St. Bonaventure" college weekly newspaper, and has been some radio announcing at the college. Brownward is also a member of the Forensic Society and the Third Order of St. Francis and the Flower City Club. He was graduated from Jefferson High School last year.

William Clancy is taking a Bachelor of Arts course and is a member of Iota Delta Alpha fraternity. He is the student director of the college band and is an active member of the campus team. He also belongs to the Flower City Club. Clancy was graduated from Lavonia High School last year.

Albin Geyer son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geyer of 1086 Portland Ave., is studying Business Administration. He has been accepted by the St. Bonaventure Club and is a member of the Beta Beta Beta fraternity. Geyer was graduated from Aquinas Institute last June.

The Flower City Club will hold an informal gathering at Old Heidelberg Inn on March 21. All members and alumni are invited to attend.

The every day routine is no hindrance to a free intimacy with God.

Thousands—Mary
San Juan, P. R.—Closing an elaborate program of religious activities in connection with the silver jubilee of the sodalities of Our Lady of Lourdes in Puerto Rico, a colorful night procession marched through the streets here as thousands of spectators watched from sidewalks, roofs and balconies.

Courtesy is love in little things.
