HOLY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION

They are telling their own stories. I am writing to tell you that we have re-named another Indian boy. We are going to name the baby Giovanni, after our Billy in school.

The boys and girls of the Sixth Grade of St. Boniface School are here bright and early this morning with a request that we save Joseph Thomas, a Chinese boy.

The boys and girls of St. Theresa's School have all put their heads together and have decided to name their adopted little one Joseph Andrew Bobala.

A stranger returned. It has been some time since we've heard from St. Stephen's Geneva. It's good to see you're with us again.

The boys of our grade have just run and won a race with the girls in ransoming a Chinese mission baby.

"I guess this will give you some support. We finished the mission baby books in one month. We have named our seventh baby Thomas Aquinas and would like to name a Japanese boy.

"We have ransomed a new baby. We have ransomed three babies. We have enjoyed working in these missions. This is our third baby. The last baby we had was a girl.
