'Diplomacy' To Wind Up Blackfriar Season

Drama of Intrigue
To Open on April 26
750th Time

'Diplomacy' a thrilling drama of spy espionage and international intrigue has been selected as the season's final play by the Rochester Chapter of the Blackfriars Guild.

Appearing in the Catholic University of America's production of "Diplomacy" in the Cathedral, Robert W. Speight noted English actor portrays for the 750th time the part of Thomas Becket.

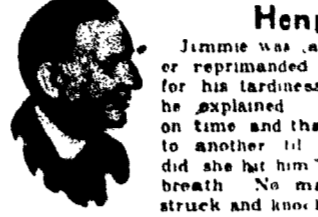

The COURIER'S COMMENTS on the CURRENT CINEMA

By JOHN SPRINGER

The South Seas is a nice place to be. There the moonlight shines more brightly on the water and people don't waste their time on anything more fatiguing than singing and dancing and romance. The South Seas are entirely populated by beautiful natives, dancers and comedians and Dorothy Lamour and therefore you can't blame Bing that he spends so much time there.

WILD WISDOM

by the Right Rev. Msgr. Peter M.H. Wynhoven
Editor-in-Chief, Catholic Action of the South

Our Home's sign "Happiness domestic bliss" Every body admires, and often secretly envies it. "Would that things were as serene and peaceful in my home."

HENPECKED HUSBANDS

YOU'VE FORGOTTEN SLOGAN

"Give and forgive" should be the slogan with which a young couple enters the state of prospective matrimony. Most of these fervent prayerful wishers continue to do the very things little things most of the time that gradually wear down and destroy the equanimity of their own households.

Germany Has 310,000 Polish Prisoners

BERLIN—There are at least 310,000 Polish prisoners in Germany, 30,000 of whom are in the vicinity of Berlin. In addition to the prisoners, more than 100,000 Polish laborers are being used in Germany, the majority of them on farms.

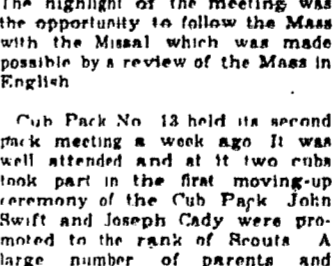

Gather Books For Puerto Rico School

ATCHISON, Kans.—The St. Benedict's College Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society has undertaken a project to send old and unused books of the students to a school in Lapa, Puerto Rico.

No Running Water?

Fantastic as it sounds, there are places in this world without such modern conveniences as we normally expect in every home. If you would like to experience the thrill of living in the most ideal conditions, make your residence 50 Chestnut Street... the "Centre" of Rochester.
