C. Y. O. Grammar Loop Opening Set May 10

The C. Y. O. Grammar Baseball League will open its season on Friday, May 10, with all the pomp and ceremony of an opening day.

All the twenty-two teams are keyed up with highest enthusiasm to make the 1940 baseball season one of the best in the history of the traditional C. Y. O. Grammar League.

Ever being focused on the three new entries of the League, St. Joseph's will make its debut in the League by visiting Old St. Mary's at Westover Parkground.

Rev. John S. Randall DIRECTOR

May, the most beautiful month on the calendar, is upon us. Spring, with all its grandeur and scenic beauty, contributes notably to the sublimity of this choicest month of the year.

May I suggest that due reverence show our blessed Mother should win from us some deserving tribute of our love and affection.

With that the boys and girls of our Mother of Sorrows Church are adopting two pagan babies.

There is a letter that gladdens every heart because it comes from a crowd of boys and girls who are mission minded to the core.

NEWSWEEK

We were unable to publish in full the report of last week. The paper went to press a day early, and we have a little catching up on the week previous to do.

Now, let's get in to things and see exactly what there is to report, and as I say, I can assure you beyond doubt that there is a good many surprises in store for you.

Another very interesting little note from the Eastern end of the diocese.
