The most interesting aspect of this work is evidenced in the number of students of last year who have expressed their desire and purpose to return this year.

Farth Stories For Little Ones

There are many terrible examples related in Holy Scripture of the severe punishments which Almighty God inflicts on those who do not obey His commandments.

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL National Council of Catholic Women

Office: 536 Columbus Civic Centre, 50 Chestnut Street

Plans are in progress for the opening, June 16, of the Fourth Annual Institute on Industry sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Women under the direction of its Committee on Industrial Problems and assisted by the Social Action Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The Institute will be held at the National Catholic School of Social Service, Washington, D. C.

The most interesting aspect of this work is evidenced in the number of students of last year who have expressed their desire and purpose to return this year.

It is expected the enrollment this year will be considerably larger than last year. The curriculum has been changed to meet the expressed demands of the workers.

Special emphasis will be placed upon labor ethics, public speaking and parliamentary law. Two new members will be added to the regular faculty.

We are hoping to have a Rochester representative at the Institute.

Many of our Committeewomen and Promoters have been asked to return for the Sustaining Membership Campaign. Any who have delayed pledges still unaccounted for are urged to send in returns, as the copy is now being prepared for the printed booklet which will contain the names of all contributors.
