Cause Wrongs Says Educator

By F. O. SCHOFFEL, Principal Washington School, South Bend, Ind. (In the Academy for May) During the past decade, juvenile delinquency appeared on the increase in spite of improved educational opportunities and social standards. No one factor is wholly responsible for this condition but several factors working harmoniously together are responsible.

A Bishop Offers Antidote For Pagan Printed Poison

Much has been written about the Catholic press, its necessity and desirability. For the most part, however, the majority of expressions on the subject deal with the need of supporting the press, for "without your help it will fail." The other side of the medal, that Catholics need a Catholic press even more than the press needs them, is perhaps less mentioned.

Excerpts From Catechism On Lawd Literature

Here are a few of the questions answered in "A Catechism On Lawd Literature" prepared by His Excellency, Bishop Noll, Director of the National Organization for Deaf Literature in which he explains the objectionable magazines, contains from New York State, although more than 500 of them either exist or fall in the actual place of origin.

ENNA JETTICK PARK

Enna Jettick Park... The Catholic press needs our support, moral and financial, he comments. Let us obtain from unkind and ill-considered criticism, but let us rather give tribute to the men and women who, at great personal sacrifice and with meager means, struggle to keep the Catholic press in the service of the Catholic faith.

'Renovate' Bible BERLIN.—The first report of the Institute for the Research into Jewish Influences in the Life of the German Church was made in the Luther Chamber at Wittemberg. Luther would never recognize the New Testament inspired by the Institute. It began its work with the elimination of the whole Gospel of St. John.
