Catholic High Schools Here Graduate 485

Bishop Lauds Fine Work Of Teachers

Lauded for their success in achieving a prescribed secular education based on a firm religious foundation, 485 boy and girl graduates of three city Catholic high schools received diplomas and awards from His Excellency, Bishop Kearney over the week-end.

(Individual honors awarded appear in the next column.)

The graduation exercises were held as follows: Our Lady of Mercy High School, Friday night, at Columbus Civic Centre; Aquinas Institute, Sunday night, and Nazareth Academy on Monday night. Exercises are also scheduled this week at Holy Family High School, Auburn, on Wednesday; De Sales High School, Geneva, Thursday, and Elmira Catholic High School, Friday.

Highlights of the Commencements in Rochester follow:

Our Lady of Mercy High School

In the ninth annual commencement exercises which filled Columbus Auditorium, 71 girl graduates received their diplomas and awards from His Excellency, Bishop Kearney.

He exhorted the graduates against "bartering your souls for temporary pleasures."

Warning of perils ahead, the Bishop impressed upon the graduates the value of "your four years of Christian training."

In answer to the question of June graduates, "Where do we go from here?" His Excellency told the class to follow the "paths of righteousness" shown to them by the Sisters "and you will conquer the evils of a world that awaits you and emerge triumphantly in heaven."

Brief talks were given by class leaders: Virginia Sullivan, Julia Singer and Florence Dietrich, and the class was then presented to the Bishop by his secretary, the Rev. Lawrence B. Casey. Graduates wore caps and gowns over dresses of pastel shades.

Nazareth Academy

Tribute to Sister M. Marcella principal of Nazareth Academy and graduates of the academy was brought by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, in a letter from State Commissioner of Education, Frank P. Graves at the commencement exercises held Monday evening at the Academy.

A class of 183 girls received diplomas and special awards from the Bishop. Presentation of the class was made by the Rev. Joseph J. O'Connell, Chaplain at the Academy.

While stressing the value of Christian morality and advising the graduates to let their religious training guide them through life His Excellency read the tribute from Commissioner Graves who wrote:

"In all my years as Commissioner of Education in New York State, I have never come in contact with a greater educator than Sister M. Marcella of Nazareth Academy of Rochester."

The Commissioner declared that the scholarship maintained at Nazareth Academy in New York State regents was always the highest. He particularly stressed that graduates of Nazareth never failed to show their appreciation in acknowledging the State scholarships won by them.

Sister Marcella was presented with a huge bouquet of roses.

In the Salutatory address, Irene Paolone discussed: "Catholic Youth Accepts Its Challenge" and the Valedictory on "The Modern Catholic Girl" was ably treated by Doris K. Bray.

The Rev. Benedict Ehmann was guest conductor of the beautifully sung musical numbers by the class.

Aquinas Institute

Spiritual success as the first goal rather than worldly achievement was urged upon the 231 graduates at Aquinas Institute by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney in conferring diplomas and awards, Sunday night.

"Spiritual successes will be the only worthwhile victories you will achieve in the battle of life," the Bishop declared. "No better standard by which you may judge your success, can you have than that inspired by the motto of your school: 'Credo quidquid dixit Dei filius—I believe whatever the Son of God has said.'—Other standards of moral greatness will be offered you, but the one penned centuries ago by the great St. Thomas Aquinas, the patron of your school, will continue to be the only worthwhile norm of your lives—'I believe whatever the Son of God has said.'"

The class attired in tuxedos was presented by the Rev. John H. O'Loane, C.S.B., principal of Aquinas Institute.

A stirring valedictory was delivered by John J. Roberts of the class of 1940.

The Aquinas Little Symphony Orchestra, directed by Mr. Raymond J. Hasenauer, was heard in four numbers, and John Manfre in a violin solo.

Fr. Ehmann To Give Summer Course in N.Y.

The Rev. Benedict Ehmann, professor of Church Music at St. Bernard's Seminary, will conduct a summer course in "Liturgy and Catholic Action" at the Pius X. School of Liturgical Music, Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart, in New York.

The course will begin on July 1 and continue to August 10.

Father Ehmann who writes the Library Signpost column for the CATHOLIC COURIER for the editorial page, each week, will resume the column early in September.

NAPLES.—The annual Lawn Social which is conducted each year for the benefit of St. Januarius Church in Naples, N. Y., will be held on Thursday, July 4, all day, on the parish grounds, as announced by the Rev. Herbert L. Sturmer, Pastor.

Among the many attractions is the chicken dinner which will be served from 12:00 noon to 2:00 P. Various committees have been formed to receive the visitors and make their stay interesting and pleasant.

Bishop Named Chaplain of State K. of C.

NEW YORK.—The Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, has honored the New York State Council of the Knights of Columbus by accepting the invitation extended by the new officers to act as the new state Chaplain.

Hugh A. Doyle, of New Rochelle, who was recently elected New York State Deputy, has announced the acceptance of the invitation by Bishop Kearney to be State Chaplain. His Excellency will be the first Bishop to act in that capacity in New York State. The former Bronx pastor, who is now Bishop of Rochester, one of the dioceses included in the area covered by the New York State Council. Mr. Doyle will make the announcement shortly after he takes office as State Deputy on July 1.

Bishop Kearney who is a member of the Rochester Council No. 178 of the Knights of Columbus is active in the Knights of Columbus circles during the twenty-five years that he was an associated priest and pastor in this archdiocese. During that time he served as Friar of the Degree team having been appointed by the 4th Degree Master in September, 1930.

Fr. Maney Sings First Solemn Mass at Geneva

GENEVA.—Safely returned from Rome, Italy, where he continued his studies following his ordination last Summer, the Rev. John E. Maney, former Genevan, celebrated his First Solemn Mass in St. Stephen's Church, Sunday.

"He was taken from amongst you and ordained to the Holy Priesthood and now he is given back to you again," said the Rev. Edward M. Lyons, rector of St. Andrew's Seminary in the sermon for the occasion.

Assisting Father Maney were: Assistant Priest, the Rev. William H. McPadden, pastor of St. Stephen's Church; Deacon, the Rev. Richard K. Burns of Holy Rosary Church, Rochester; Sub-deacon, the Rev. Emmett Murphy of St. Francis of Assisi Church, Auburn. A special musical program was furnished by St. Stephen's Choir of which Father Maney had been a member for several years.

Present to assist at her son's First Solemn Mass was Mrs. Elizabeth Maney of Albany.

Father McPadden announced the celebration of the First Solemn Mass by Father Maney as "indeed a happy occasion."

"One year ago," Father McPadden recalled, "he was elevated to the rank of priesthood. Today, he is with us to celebrate his First Solemn Mass. In behalf of priests and parishioners I wish to extend to him and his mother and relatives our hearty congratulations."

In his sermon, Father Lyons reviewed the early days of the Apostles, particularly St. Andrew and of their realized dream in attaining the priesthood.

"You have one here in your own parish who dreamt the same dream. He had been taught the same lessons as Andrew, James and John in those far off days. He had a kind mother and a good father and his teachers also had a part in leading this young man to Jesus.

"The call came and he answered eagerly. He came to the Seminaries in Rochester, and there very soon he impressed upon all his excellent qualities. He was chosen by his superiors and sent to the Eternal City for other advantages. There, too, his earnestness and ability showed absolutely the work he was about, and later he was ordained. Today he comes back to you after several years.

"He will go forth shortly to do the work for which he was prepared. Holy Mother Church did not prepare him for her own glory but for the saving of souls for Christ. Today more than ever before men turn toward their priesthood for aid and help in a confused world. God and His Church have tse only remedies for peace in this world."

At the close of his address, Father Lyons extended congratulations and felicitations to the young priest and to his mother and relatives.

A reception was held Sunday afternoon at St. Stephen's parish house in honor of Father Maney. The event was arranged by the class of 1932 of which the young priest was a member. All members of the parish were invited to attend. Charles Hickey, class president, and Maurice Buckley were in charge of arrangements.

FR. DORAN HONORED ON 25th ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. William A. Doran, pastor of St. Ann's Church, Palmyra, was fittingly honored on his silver sacredotal jubilee, Sunday, June 16. Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Priest-jubilarian at 10 o'clock. The sermon, recalling the devoted and zealous service of Father Doran, was preached by the Rev. James Sheridan of Newark, New Jersey.

Priests who were present for this occasion included Rev. Thomas F. Connors, Rev. George W. Eck, Father Sheridan, Rev. George Dowd, and the Rev. Dr. William Lynch, C. M. of Niagara University.

Following the Mass, dinner was served at the rectory for the visiting priests and relatives of Father Doran. Reception was held during the afternoon and evening at which time his parishioners and many friends from Rochester, Seneca Falls and vicinity congratulated him.

Father Doran was presented with a purse which gave testimony of the high esteem in which he is held by the members of his congregation.

Educated at St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries, Father Doran was ordained to the priesthood on June 12, 1915. He spent seven years in Elmira, was chaplain for seven years at St. Mary's Hospital, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Church, Rochester, for ten years, and was appointed pastor of St. Ann's Church, Palmyra in June, 1939.

Throng At Final Rites For George A. Hetzler

A pioneer and dean of the foundry industry and a highly esteemed Catholic layman, George A. Hetzler, 81, who died Friday, June 21, was paid a fitting and sincere tribute at funeral services held Monday morning, June 24 in Holy Rosary Church.

He was the father of Herman G. Hetzler, widely known for his work in marking Catholic historical places and keeping alive the memory of early Catholic missionaries in this area.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor of Holy Rosary Church assisted by the Rev. Michael Jacobs, S. J., of St. Regis Indian Reservation, Canada, and the Rev. Dr. Edward J. Byrne of St. Bernard's Seminary.

Active bearers were Daniel F. Fitzgerald, Frank Miller, John Bartholomay, Fred Springer, Herman Springer and John Harvard.

Nearly 20 honorary bearers, prominent in Rochester and other cities acted as escort. The church was filled to capacity with friends, business associates and employes of the dean of Rochester founders.

Mr. Hetzler was born here on the site of SS. Peter and Paul's Church. He was for many years a member of Holy Rosary Church and the Holy Name Society.

For 65 years he was physically active in foundry work and at his death was president and treasurer of Hetzler Foundries, Inc., of which his son, Herman G. Hetzler is secretary and general manager. In his own field the foundry pioneer had a long record in technical developments in airplane and motor parts castings.

He is greatly mourned among the cottagers of Conesus Lake where he was a pioneer also, owning a cottage there for some 30 years.

leaves his wife, Clara; a daughter,

Besides his son, Mr. Hetzler Mrs. Francis J. Kohlmeier, eleven grand children and one great-grandchild; two brothers, Chares and Henry Hetzler, both of Rochester.

Shaw Signs with Burns and Allen

Artie Shaw, the bandleader who disbanded his orchestra last spring and quit radio in a huff, has been signed by George Burns and Gracie Allen to handle the orchestral assignment on their new series of broadcasts starting Monday, July 1, at 7:30 P. M. over WHAM.

Shaw's new 22-piece band to be featured on George and Gracie's program will not be the old "hot-cha" type aggregation. It will be a sort of symphonic swing crew.

Talent Changes for Summer

"Washington Merry Go Round" with Pearson and Allen will replace "True or False" starting July 2.

Bob Hope's half-hour show heard every Tuesday night from 10:00 to 10:30 will be replaced by Tommy Dorsey's Orchestra.

Vallee Preview Laughs Set Pace for Program

Many successful comedy lines written for the Rudy Vallee air program never reach the air because the show is previewed in a 45-minute length and then pared to 30 minutes for the weekly broadcasts.

The most successful lines, at the preview, however, are always retained in the final script, according to Vick Knight, the show's producer.

"We do not use so-called jokes on the Vallee Show," Knight explains. "All laugh lines are pertinent to the story being presented. If we have an exceptional script with more laughs than we can use in the air time allotted, the left-over lines probably will never be used. Generally speaking, the better the lines we throw away the better our show."

Robinson Returns To "Big Town"

A recent survey held by the sponsors of "Big Town" showed that the type of story heard with Edward G. Robinson as Steve Wilson of the Illustrated Press was more popular than the adaptations of famous plays that were broadcast in the past few weeks.

Therefore, "Big Town" is heard every Friday at 7:30 P. M. over WHAM.

Abbott and Costello Take No Chances

After years of scrambling for three squares daily in vaudeville and burlesque, Abbott and Costello wouldn't take no chances on a stage play that might flop, after establishing themselves in radio.

Knowing that they were to be offered jobs in "Street of Paris," the comedies, who take over Fred Allen's spot for the summer on July 2, clamped out a lot of preposterous demands that they felt couldn't be acceded to. But to their surprise, the producer granted every request. Finally, it came time for Costello to pull his ace in the hole; some property in California that needed looking after.

"We'll sign your contract on one condition," Abbott interrupted, "we duents to 'Hellzapoppin' tonight?"

It was the first time Bud had ever crossed up Lou, both are glad, for "Streets of Paris" turned out to be a big hit.

Abbott and Costello are heard Wednesday nights at 9:30 o'clock on WHAM.

The Lonely Missionary

The lonely missionary is very grateful for the Mass offerings you send for him. Ask this priest to say Mass for your intentions.

THE MISSIONS AND THE WAR

During these days of war and suffering, the missionaries continue their work. It is true, many have been called back by their Governments. Their places are filled by other priests. The work of saving souls must always continue.

A missionary usually has a large territory assigned to him. His people may be few, nevertheless, they must have his constant attention. They must be able to reach him in emergencies.

When the missionary is forced to close his mission even for a few months, a great deal of the good already accomplished is lost. People who are separated from the Church and who are well disposed go away from his influence. They lose interest in what he represents. They forget him and the Catholic Church.

Today many of the missionaries are wondering how much longer they can keep their mission open. The financial help given to them in the past has all but disappeared. The countries of Europe that contributed to this work are now engaged in war. The Catholics of these countries can't help any longer.

What is to be done? This is the problem facing the missionaries. Should they close and let go all the fruits of years of prayer and hard work? They do not wish to do so. The priests will remain at their posts just as long as they can.

We are the United States despite the long depression and all the unemployment are really very fortunate. We have our churches and our schools. So many people have lost theirs.

In gratitude to Almighty God for all his favors, we ought to make at least a little effort for the missions. We should try to keep the Standard of Christ raised in the mission lands. What is lost in Europe can be made up for in other parts of the world.

We seek your readers this week, to pray that new friends may come to our aid. We ask each one to send us something that years of toil and struggle and worry may not have been in vain.

FOR YOUR FAMILY

Ask the missionary to offer a Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart for all the members of your family.

CHAPEL NOT OPEN

Some of our new chapels are not open because they are not furnished. Here is what they need:

An Altar, A Chalice, A Missal, Set of Vestments, Altar Linens, Picture of the Sacred Heart, Picture of Our Lady.

All these can be given for a mission chapel for One Hundred and Five Dollars.

YOUR WILL

Everybody should make a Will. If you die without a Will, the State will divide your property according to its own laws. When you make a Will, put into it the names of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. Our priests will never forget you.

GREGORIAN MASSES

There is a very old custom of offering a Mass every day for thirty days for some one in particular. These Masses are known as the Gregorian Masses. Write for our pamphlet. You will find it interesting.

HELP THE NEEDIEST

We need contributions for our Starvation Clothing Fund. Recently, we have received very few donations. When you send us a gift and tell us to use it as we see fit, your gift is distributed immediately.

PERPETUAL MEMBERSHIP

Why not become a perpetual member and share during the year after death in the three thousand Masses that are offered every year for our members?

The offering for Perpetual Membership is Twenty Dollars.

A NATIVE PRIEST

After high school and two years in college, the student for the Priesthood needs six years in the Major Seminary. Be it then ordained a Priest . . . for you.

Five Hundred Dollars will see him through the Major Seminary. Will you help? One Hundred Dollars will support him for a year—Ten Dollars for one month.

All we ask from our members is One Dollar a year. We need your help. Why not enroll.
