French Without Tears—A-1

A light but engaging title is "French Without Tears," which details how the presence of a slightly little girl affects a group of young Englishmen who are conscientiously studying French in a private school in London...

The Man Who Talked Too Much—A-2

In its day, "The Mouthpiece" was quite a picture. First of the films about crime, it was a picture that starred Warren Williams and Alize MacMahon and provided gripping entertainment...

There's Still Plenty of Hot Weather Ahead
Yes, indeed! Summer is just coming into its own after all these months of indefinite weather. And this is really good news for youngsters who can enjoy the good old summer time... especially if they are given the opportunity of spending a week at Camp Stella Maris—where boys enjoy camp life the American way.
