HOMELESS CHILDREN — BOYS AT CAMP
'ANCIENT LANDMARKS' — OBITUARY

Knights Chapter Urged To Combat Irreligion

AUBURN—Oppose the forces of "No God No Christ" with strong, unified effort and 'rededicate yourselves in heart and spirit to those splendid ideals' embodied in the motto "Pro Deo et Patria."

This message was given to nearly 100 Knights of Columbus, delegates to the Central New York Chapter, here Sunday by the Hon. Michael F Larkin of Rome in a stirring appeal to their patriotism at the Auburn Council Clubhouse on Genesee Street

The Chapter voted to hold the October meeting in Ithaca at which time a plaque in memory of the late Thomas J. McInerney, past chapter chairman, will be presented to Ithaca Council.

Greatest Landmark

"Ancient Landmarks and Our Duty To Preserve Them," furnished the topic for Judge Larkin's address. The greatest external monument or landmark, he said, is represented by the Cross of Calvary

Reviewing the repeated attempts down through history to destroy the ancient Church, he pointed to the latest attempts by advocates of totalitarianism and said 'the dagger hand of No God, No Christ, is striking at the very vitals of the Church."

"Let's not be emotional about the subject,' Judge Larkin said "It is here, however It must be met It remains for Catholic, Protestant and Jew to unite on a common ground of loyalty to God and country to combat the debasing influences and propaganda in our midst".

Engelhardt Named

Herman J Engelhardt of Syracuse was elected Chapter Chairman, succeeding Dr. Walter B O'Neill of Rochester

Elected to serve with Chairman Engelhardt were Vice Chairman, William F Hanoven, Canandaigua Warden Howard L Franklin, Newark, Treasurer, William D. Collins, Cazenovia. Inside Guard, Frank E Murphy, Geneva, and Outside Guard, Francis J Swift of Rochester.

Priest's Plea Heard

An appeal to the knights to work together in the common cause referred to by Judge Larkin and to emulate the early Christians in dealing with each other was made by the Rev James K. Bennett of Holland Patent, N Y

Dr. O'Neill presided at the Chapter meeting and following the election turned the gavel over to Chairman Engelhardt who will preside for the coming year. Chapter officers hold office for one year only

The knights representing twenty councils in Central New York were welcomed by Grand Knight Frederick Woods of Auburn Council. John J. Leo, of Auburn, past district deputy, also extended a word of welcome.

Following the business session they were entertained in the Auburn Council Clubhouse and had dinner at the Osborne Hotel.

New Sunday Mass Schedule Given

To accommodate campers and tourists, as well as parishioners, a new schedule of Sunday Masses is announced today by the Rev. Raymond Lynd, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Henrietta, and St Joseph's Church, Rush.

Beginning Sunday and until further notice, Sunday Masses at the Henrietta Church will be at 8 A. M. and 9:30 A. M. and at the Rush Church at 8 A. M. and 9:30 A M., both on Daylight Saving Time.

Columbian Knights Map Stag Outing

Members of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, have set Saturday, August 10, for their annual stage picnic, this year, to be held at Corbett's Glen.

With Lecturer John Ward, Jr., as chairman, the committees are planning a program for the afternoon and evening. Highlighting a sports' program will be a ball game between "old-timers" and "young squigers."

A buffet lunch will be served throughout the afternoon and evening.

Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn will hold a reception for officers and members and prospective members at 8 P. M.

St. Bernard Alumnus Dies In Binghamton

BINGHAMTON.—The Rev. William F Sheehan, Pastor of St. Patrick's Church here and an alumnus of North American College in Rome and St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, died here at the age of 60.

Born in Truxton, N. Y., Father Sheehan before entering the North American College in 1901 studied at St. Michael's College, Toronto. Due to ill health he was forced to return to America from Rome after his Third Theology. He entered St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, where he was ordained. After serving in Oneida, Syracuse, Sherrill and Fulton, N. Y., he was named Pastor of St. Patrick's here in 1937.

New York Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Foster of Eastman Kodak Co., and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keough of Auburn were among the recent visitors to the World's Fair.

While in New York they stayed at the Thomas Tourist House, 147-20-35th Avenue, Flushing, Long Island.

Taken the easiest way to do little things is the beginning of evil ways.

Ladies of Charities Begin Registry, Foster Home Work

ELMIRA—Bringing an inspiriting message on the work of the Ladies of Charity and Big Sister Council, Mrs. Antonio Gonzales, a member of the State Commission of Correction and the State Probation Department, was the guest of honor during the past week at a tea given at the Country Club by the Elmira Ladies of Charity.

Mrs Gonzales, a former District Attorney in New York City and an active member of the Big Sisters in the metropolis, met also in round table discussions with the Executive Committee of the Ladies of Charity and the Big Sister Council.

Reciting interesting experiences in her work as a Big Sister in the New York City Children's Court, she expressed the belief that there was a great need for such service in Elmira.

Units Everywhere

Speaking of the Ladies of Charity," she said that she had found branches of the organization in many countries. The tiny silver Crucifix bearing the imprint of Ladies of Charity is often seen, she said, in the South American countries where Mrs. Gonzales spent several years, during the period when her husband was Foreign Minister in turn to Panama City, Ecuador and Venezuela.

Forgoing the suspension of activities in the summer, the Ladies of Charity in Elmira are busily inaugurating a full program of Catholic Action, which includes the entire gamut of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

The entire membership of over 150 of Elmira's leading Catholic women has been divided into fifteen sub-committees under the leadership of Miss Frances O'Connor, President; Mrs. Helen Weigand, Vice-President, Miss Mary Lennon, Secretary, and Mrs. Joseph Dailey Treasurer Working in co-operation with the Elmira Catholic Charities, sponsoring agency, this group is rapidly gaining an important place in the social work program of the community.

One of the major projects, which is a part of the Ladies of Charity program in every community where a unit is established, is the Catholic Room Registry In Elmira, the Chairman of this committee is Mrs. Fred W. Causer and Miss Florence Zielinski is Assistant Chairman. Other members of the committee are Misses Eileen Collins, Marion Kelly, Margaret McConnell and Sara Collins, Mesdames Gertrude Keegan and William Murtagh.

Aid Inmates Visitors

Reports at recent meetings indicate that the service of Catholic Room Registry will soon be available to anyone, who is interested in approved, inexpensive accommodations for board and room for transient or permanent residence. Display cards will be posted in all railroad stations and bus terminals and twenty-four hour service will be given by this committee They will offer invaluable aid, especially to the young boy or girl, who is without friends in a strange city or to the aged mother or young wife, who has come to Elmira to visit a son or husband, who is an inmate of the Elmira Reformatory

Applications for rooms or for the listing of rooms for rental may be made to any member of the committee or to the Catholic Charities Office.

Recognizing a serious need in the community, the Committee on Foster and Farm Homes under the Co-Chairmen, Mrs. Joseph Dailey and Miss Veda Spohn, are making a concentrated effort to locate suitable Catholic homes for children in need of Foster care. Other members of their committee are Mesdames James E. Corr, Paul Hoffman, Merle Hadlock, Charles O'Hara, Misses Theresa Cameron and Jane Wifler.

Plan Education Program

"Conscious of the criticism, that is so often directed toward us, because of our lack of interest in the needs of the children from broken homes or under-privileged homes, this committee is attempting an educational program," the Ladies of Charity declared in a statement, this week.

"During the winter months, an explanation of the need will be directly presented to every Catholic organization in Elmira and vicinity.

"Sympathy today is directed toward the refugee children from foreign lands. As ever, the dramatic appeal of this dire need is not lost on us, but Catholic men and women, especially childless couples, can not recognize that sad plight of the Catholic boy or girl, who is separated from his own parents and may never have known the happiness and security of a normal home life.

"Here in our midst are American refugees, boys and girls, who but for the Grace of God, might be our own sons and daughters. Under the care of authorized agencies, they look to our Catholic organizations for assistance in locating the Catholic parents who can recognize this need, as our non-Catholic neighbors have so readily answered similar appeals.

Needs of Children Cited

"Among these children are John and James, aged 9 and 6 respectively. They are bright, interesting little fellows, in need of love, care and discipline. Their own mother has deserted them and a distracted father knows that they would be much safer in a foster home, than if they were left to the care of a paid housekeeper.

"Then, there is Catherine, aged 15 months, a blonde, blue-eyed darling, who is ready for an adoption home She must be placed in a paid foster home until a Mother and Father can be found for her. She can never be returned to her own parents

"Catholic foster homes and parents must meet the requirements of the State law More important, however is the grim necessity of awakening our Catholic men and women to answering this call to Catholic Action and heeding the plea of Christ's little ones, who are looking for parent substitutes to fill the places of fathers and mothers, who have been taken from them by death or circumstances."

St. George's Lists Lawn Fete

The Parish Committee of St. George's Church, directed by the Rev. John M Baksys, pastor, is working feverishly to guarantee a success of the annual lawn festival which will be held on the parish grounds at 555 Hudson Avenue Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 25, 26 and 27.

This committee boasts of the fact that this year no one will be satisfied by attending merely a single night. There will be so much in the line of entertainment, amusement and challenges to one's skill that any individual wishing to obtain the maximum of enjoyment will be compelled to return to be fully satisfied with this year's bazaar.

With this program in mind, the Parish Committee extends a most cordial invitation to all, especially to the people of the Northeast section. As the Parish Committee is co-operating with the pastor, so do they wish to see manifestations of the same spirit among their friends in conjunction with the parishioners.

The Parish Committee will be in charge of some of the booths, the remaining booths will be managed by the young people of the parish.

As has been the custom, this year there will be another inauguration of a new game, this in addition to the popular games of the previous years.

The Parish Committee is composed of these parishioners: John P. Levickas, John Bitten, Peter Gudeli, Joseph Tamoskevicius, Martin Vezelis, Tadas Beleckis, Stanley Keliauskas, Andrew Bellukas, Anthony Brown, George Siletkis, Joseph Saunor, Ignas Urbon, Mary Levickas, Martha Graxinis, Josephine Leonard, Veronica Palshunas, Helen Barkauskas and Malvina D. Jokaas.

'Hot Dog' Roast Sates Georgians

The Georgians of St. George's Parish held their hot-dog roast at Durand-Eastman Park Tuesday evening, July 16. A ball game, during which anything went, had thrills aplenty; the captains of these teams were the Berke brothers, Walter and Albert. Darkness forced the game to be called when the score was evened up at 4 all.

After the roast, everyone drove over to Charlotte to finish up the evening by enjoying a frozen custard. John Pgishunas assisted in making arrangements for the enjoyable roast.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Helen Harmon

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Griffin Harmon, wife of John Harmon, who was well known in Catholic women's circles, were held July 17 at St. Mary's Church.

Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. William Devereaux, Pastor of Holy Angels Church. Nunda, and of the Church of the Holy Name, Groveland, a nephew of Mrs. Harmon's. The Rev. William Griffin of Winona, Wis., her brother, was unable to come for the services.

Besides her husband and brother, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. James Devereaux and Mrs. Elizabeth runhold and another brother, Edward Griffin.

Formerly of Auburn, Mrs. Harmon was known to many of the leading Catholic laywomen in that city.

Labor to conquer yourself. This victory will assure you a brighter crown in heaven than they gain whose disposition is more amiable. —St. Ignatius.

Varied Presents For Radio Friends

For one reason or another, good neighborliness I suppose, people like to send their favorite radio friends gifts of all sorts and descriptions. Candy, cakes, pies, maple sugar, baby chicks, flowers, wearing apparel, complete costume song books, greeting cards and fruit are but a few of the gifts that have come to WHAM for members of the staff or visiting entertainers. Another angle to this situation is the trend to name pets after radio folks. For instance a parrot has been named after Fibber McGee, a cat after Molly, a wolfhound after Mrs. Uppington, a camel after Gildersleeve and a canary after Nick de Pepolus. What next?

Musical Plum Goes to Willson

Hollywood's biggest musical plum fell to Meredith Willson conductor of WHAM's Tuesday night "Musical Revue," this week. He was signed to score and orchestrate the new Charlie Chaplin picture now in its final stages. It is still titled "Production No. 6" and its contents have been kept strictly secret by the Chaplin studios.

Court Musician Now At NBC Studios

There was a day when only the great could hear an outstanding musician. Take for instance the case of Vladimir Brenner, NBC staff pianist. Not too long ago his playing was reserved for the attention of the Czar of Russia.

Today both you and I can enjoy his artistry through the medium of radio.

The Story of NBC's Ted Malone

Ted Malone, the soft voice behind the reading of inspirational poems on the "Between the Book Ends" program, used to be a Fuller Brush man, he recently disclosed in an interview with Nellie Revell, NBC's behind-the-mike reporter.

Malone not only sold Fuller brushes, but earned part of his way through college by doing it, the interview revealed. He broke into radio when he was still in school by announcing from Independence, Mo, in 1924, the first high school football game put on the air.

"When my hands got cold from holding the microphone," he explained, "I used to tell the audience we were signing off for ten minutes and would be back after I got my hands warm."

The man who reads much delicate poetry on the air scarcely looks the part, according to Nellie. He looks like a substantial business man. He told Nellie he got his start reading poetry in 1929 when the manager of a local station asked him to fill in a 15-minute vacant spot and shoved a book of poetry in his hand just before air time.

When he first began to read poetry, Malone said, he was so afraid of being called a "sissy" that he wouldn't let the manager use his real name, Frank Aiden Russell, over the air but had it changed to Ted Malone. Today he has a different conception of poetry. Malone thinks that the types of poems which bring the biggest response from listeners are verses of loneliness and heartbreak. He says elderly people like memory poems; youngsters in love, romantic ones; mothers with small children, nature poems, and mothers with older children, "Young Man Who Can Succeed" poems.

Ted Malone's recent "Pilgrimage of Poetry," on which he toured the country visiting the homes of great American poets, was a great success, he said. Next year Malone will visit the homes of famous authors like "Between the Bookends" program is heard Mon., Wed., and Fri. at 11:15 P. M., EDST, over WHAM.

Appointed Bishop

Vatican City—The Most Rev. John Michael O'Neill, a priest of the Diocese of Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, has been named Bishop of that See.

Catholic Near East Welfare Association

Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, D.D., President
Rt. Rev. Msgr. James E. O'Reilly, Ph. D., National Secretary
Rev. John J. Corrigan, Assistant Secretary

Your Help Needed

The missionaries are not receiving any help from the Catholics of Europe. All assistance from Europe has stopped. This Association alone is supporting the missions in the Near East. We ask you to help us.

A LETTER FROM PERSIA

In many places in the Near East, we meet the Lazarist Fathers. They are always enthusiastic and happy in their work. Father Cuoudes is the Superior of the Lazarist Fathers in Tauris, Persia. He writes:

"I have put off writing to you because I dislike to make appeals. Perhaps I have waited too long. I hope not.

"It is almost impossible to live in this house much longer. We have a small church, and a house for orphans. We priests live with the orphans.

"I can't tell you everything in this letter. Believe me, I am desperate. The winter was terribly severe. To make matters worse, there was a great deal of sickness among the orphans.

"A part of the roof caved in one night and two days later one room was damaged by water. Our Sanctuary will not unless I make it damp-proof.

"No matter how I scrape, I can't keep going without some help. If I turn these children away they will wander over the roads. They have no place to go. There were times last winter when the priests and the boys were hungry.

"Please send me Four Hundred Dollars. I need this amount to repair the house and the church and to pay our debts. If you do this much for us, we will be able to live through next winter."

Father seems to be worried. We hope somebody will answer this appeal. If you can't send him the Four Hundred Dollars, perhaps you can send us Five Dollars for him.

OUR SCHOOLS

When the missionary makes converts of the adults he can't neglect the children. They, too, must be instructed. They need the gradual training in Catholic living that is given only in a Catholic school. Would you build a school for a missionary? Five Hundred Dollars will build a small school. Perhaps this is too much. Send us what you can afford to keep our schools open.

GREGORIAN MASSES

Have you heard of the Gregorian Masses? Do you know what is meant by a set of Gregorian Masses? Write for our pamphlet, on Gregorian Masses. It is free.

A CHALICE

Ten Dollars will purchase a chalice for a mission chapel.

ST. ANNE

Are you making a Novena in honor of St. Anne? Her feast day is next week—July 26. Remember our work in your prayers. St. Anne was the Mother of Our Lady. She was born and spent all her life in the Near East. Send us a gift in her honor for our missionaries.

STATUE OF OUR LADY

With Fifteen Dollars the missionary can purchase a large Statue of Our Lady for his Mission Chapel.

AN ALTAR

What a difference a proper Altar makes in a mission chapel. It changes everything and helps the devotion of the priest and people. You can give an Altar as a Gift. Fifty Dollars will take care of it.

SUPPORT A MISSIONARY

Five Dollars will support a Near East missionary for a week. Send us Five Dollars before you leave your vacation.

HELPING THE CHURCH

The Holy Mass depends on us. For the missions in the Near East. If you are a member you are helping the Holy Faithful. All we ask is One Dollar a year. There are no extras.

NATIVE PRIEST

It costs Nine Hundred Dollars to put a student through the Native Seminary. Nine years and then ordained. We need help to develop a native clergy in the Near East. Will you help the Church to do this? Take care of one student. Do it for a year—One Hundred Dollars, or a month—Ten Dollars.

REMEMBER THE MISSIONARY

We ask our readers not to forget the missionaries during their days. Ask them remembrance during the Holy Mass for your intentions.

PERPETUAL MEMBERSHIP

Why not become a perpetual member in this Association? Make sure during life and after death in the hands of Missions offered every year for our members.

The offerings for Perpetual Membership is Twenty Dollars. The offering for Perpetual Family Membership is One Hundred Dollars.
