HIBERNIANS IN TRIBUTE

Resolutions in the death of Michael O'Brien of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral parish were adopted at the last meeting of Division No. 2, Ancient Order of Hibernians, were sent to the family and inscribed on the records of the organization.

The resolutions follow:

"Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his Infinite Wisdom to remove from this life Brother Michael O'Brien of Division No 2 of the A. O. H., Rochester, N. Y., and

"Whereas, the intimate relations held with him as a member of our ancient order makes it eminently befitting that we extend to you our sympathy in this, the great loss sustained by you

"Be it resolved, that the removal of such a life from this world leaves a vacancy and a shadow that is fully realized by all, that we heartily sympathize with the family and relatives of our late deceased friend and that we respectfully recommend them for consolation to the Divine Power which doeth all things for the best.

"Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days."

Recording Secretary

MEN'S COMMUNION SUNDAY

Members of the Holy Name Society met in the school hall last Wednesday evening. It was a business meeting with several matters of importance being discussed.

All members of the Society will receive Holy Communion at the 8:15 o'clock Mass on Sunday, Aug 11. Men of the parish who do not belong to the Society are cordially invited to receive Holy Communion with the Society on Sunday. It is hoped that the warm weather will not prevent the men from having a large turnout.

College Jubilee Set

Webster Groves, Mo. Dates for the formal observance of Webster College's twenty-fifth anniversary as the first senior college for girls under Catholic auspices west of the Mississippi, have been set for October 31 through November 4.

SCOUTING FOR CATHOLICS

Contributed by
BERNARD MEYERING
FRED HEFFER

Troops wishing representation in this Scout Column, are asked to send their news into either Bernard Meyering, 245 Norton Street, Fred Heffer, 31 Bartlett Street, or John Predmore, 129 Furlong Street. Girl Scout Units are invited to send in their news too.

Thirty Scouts, under the leadership of John Predmore, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 70, of St. Andrew's Parish, will move into Seneca Village at Camp Warren Cutler tomorrow, for a two-weeks' stay. Predmore will be assisted by Thomas Hastings, William Dixon and Robert Young.

Camp Stella Maris, the Rochester Diocesan Catholic Boys' Camp, located on Conesus Lake, was the site of the Third Annual Field Day of Boy Scout Troop 82, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, last Wednesday. Featured on the program was a rally between the Camp and the Troop, which consisted of baseball, water events, ping pong and volley ball. In the evening a camp fire was held on the shores of the lake.

Under the leadership of Milton Schaefer, five Senior Scouts of Troop 200, of St. Boniface Parish, will hold a canoe hike the week of August 18, in the Canadian Lake Country, 160 miles north of Toronto, on Reininger, James Vernon, Richard Vernon, Paul Meteyer and Henry Fischer will attend.

This Saturday afternoon, Boy Scout Troop 215, of St. Francis Xavier Parish, will move into Cayuga Village at Camp Warren Cutler, for a one-weeks stay. According to the Troop Leaders, every Scout is expected to obtain some sort of advancement.

Troop 240, of the Merrimac Center will begin a two-weeks' encampment this Saturday afternoon, at Camp Warren Cutler, it was announced by Scoutmaster Francis Minella.

Every Wednesday evening at 7:30 P. M. at Camp Warren Cutler, the entire camp body gathers at the site of the flag pole for special Flag Lowering Ceremonies. Parents and friends are invited to witness these ceremonies.

Heroine Honored

The Order of the British Empire was awarded to Mrs. Norman Cardwell, a Catholic of northeast England, because, unaided, she walked up to a German airman who had parachuted near her home, demanded the surrender of his pistol and marched him off to captivity. (N.C.W.C.)

A lot of people prefer to appear dumb as a protective device.—Evansville "Courier."

M. J. RICKARD RITES HELD

A former President of the Rochester Laymen's Retreat League and long active in that organization and the Holy Name Society, Martin J. Rickard, general superintendent and a director of the E. P. Reed & Co., Inc., shoe manufacturers, was buried Friday, Aug. 2.

Mr. Rickard died July 30 at the age of 73.

Funeral services were held at the home, 238 Dorchester Road, and at St. John the Evangelist Church.

Employees of the shoe manufacturing plant attended the services in a body, the factory having been shut down for the day. Bearers were Lester Reed, Edgar Reed, J. Allan Farley, James K. Cuff, James P. B. Duffy and William B. Wynn.

Surviving are his wife, Alice Cormick Rickard; five sons, Walter G., Donald J., Jerrold B., Kenneth C. and Norman E. Rickard; a daughter, Miss Alice M. Rickard; 9 grandchildren, and a brother, Edward M. Rickard.

Have You Heard of Pius Epie?

Few of us in America have ever heard of Pius Epie. Yet this dark-skinned son of Africa may rightly enjoy the title of "apostle of the Cameroons." For seven years he kept alive the spark of faith among his fellow countrymen, when, because of the exigencies and consequences of the last World War the entire district of the Cameroons was left without missionaries.

Pius Epie was in the catechetical school under the German Fathers in 1914 when war was declared.

Within a short time these missioners were compelled to leave their posts and it was not until 1922 that the Mill Hill Fathers were sent to Africa to resume missionary activity. It was upon their entrance into the Cameroons that they found the splendid work performed by Pius Epie, and today he continues the apostolate which he began single handed some 25 years ago.

Belgian Missioners Plead For Help

The following letter was received this past week:

"Belgium invaded and occupied! With it our main source of donations and Mass stipends swallowed up! Nearly all the missionaries at work in the diocese of Ranchi, India, hail from Belgium or Holland. Now the diocese of Ranchi is one of the largest in India counting as it does 30,400 converts, — all new converts of the period 1865-1940. It is also one of the poorest as it caters exclusively for poor, very poor agriculturists belonging to the aboriginal hill tribes. These poor converts do help us and give their mite, but more than this mite of theirs we cannot exact lest we bless them white.

"Now with Belgium and Holland and Luxemburg closed we cannot possibly maintain our numerous works: Seminaries (2); over 800 schools; catechumenates, hospitals, etc., or the numerous staff of Missionaries, catechists, teachers, Sisters; nor keep up our buildings in the 36 centres of the Mission. Shall we have to close our schools, dismiss our catechists, starve the nuns and the secular clergy, stop pioneering work? These are anxious questions. If every one of the 120 priests at work in the Mission could reckon on 20 Mass stipends a month, we would be able to carry on. Now the only source remaining from which Mass stipends can come to us are the U. S. A. Other donations will be gratefully accepted. Please do help us in this our distress."

Bishop O. Severin, S. J.
Ranchi, India

Ten Points In Favor

A group of Chinese were asked why they regarded the Catholic Church with favor. They answered with this list of ten features which appealed to them most:

1. The hard life and sacrifices of missionary priests and sisters.
2. The high standards of Catholic ethics and morals.
3. The unity of the Catholic Church.
4. Works of charity of the Catholic Church.
5. Efforts of the Catholic Church to educate the young.
6. The unity and certainty of doctrines and ideas in the Church.
7. The liturgy of the Catholic Church.
8. Respect for the dead in the Catholic Church.
9. The strict discipline of the Catholic Church.
10. The hierarchal government of the Catholic Church, in which capability and virtue were the only reasons for advancement.

Power of Duty

W. E. Gladstone reminds us that "duty is a power which rises with us in the morning and goes to rest with us at night. It is coextensive with the action of our intelligence: it is the shadow which cleaves to us, go where we will, and which leaves us only when we leave the light of life."

It might be well to remember that mission aid is a duty incumbent upon every member of the Catholic Church. Whether the duty takes the form of active service, monetary aid or prayerful remembrance there must be no neglect, for an accounting will have to be rendered at the hour of judgment.

Contributes To Broun Memorial

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Rev. Edward Dowling, S.J., associate editor of The Queen's Work, national Sodality monthly published here, is a contributor to "Heywood Broun As He Seemed to Us," which has just been published for the Newspaper Guild of New York, as a memorial to the late president of the American Newspaper Guild. Father Dowling was a metropolitan newspaper man before becoming a priest and was, in great measure, responsible for the conversion of his friend, Broun, to Catholicity.

Other contributors to the book, profits of which will go toward establishment of Heywood Broun Memorial award for newspaper work, include John L. Lewis, Franklin P. Adams, Herbert Bayard Swope, Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York City, Edna Ferber, John Kieran, Quentin Reynolds, Frank Sullivan, Edward G. Robinson and Rollin Kirby.

18 Catholic Universities

Rome — There are 18 Catholic universities in the world directly under the direction of and subject to inspection by the Church. Four are in France, two in Italy, Canada, the United States and China, respectively, and one in each of the following countries: Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Syria, Japan and the Philippine Islands.

Carmelite Head Dies

Baltimore — Mother Seraphim, head of the Carmelite convent here for 27 years, died of a heart attack as she knelt at prayer in the chapel. Known in the world as Josephine Byrnes, she is survived by a brother, the Rev. Francis Byrnes, S.J., of Georgetown University, and Sister Theresa, also a Carmelite.

Verein To Meet In Last U. S. Town Besieged By Indians

New Ulm, Minnesota, where the Catholic Central Verein and the National Catholic Women's Union will hold their twenty-fourth annual convention August 24-28, lays claim to being the last town in the United States to be besieged by Indians.

Founded as a colony by Germans in the Minnesota River Valley, it was the center of the famous New Ulm Massacre in 1862.

The keynote address of the Central Verein convention will be delivered by the Most Rev. Aloisius J. Muench, Bishop of Fargo, at a civic demonstration on Sunday afternoon, August 25, for which an audience of several thousand delegates and visitors from all parts of the country is expected. Bishop Muench's address will be based on the convention motto, taken from the encyclical, "Summi Pontificatus," of Pope Pius XII: "Co-operation in the spread of the Kingdom of God which in every century is effected in different ways, with varying instruments, is a command incumbent on everyone who has been snatched by Divine Grace from the slavery of Satan and called in Baptism to citizenship of the Kingdom of God."

Detailed discussion of youth problems is planned for the Youth Dinner and mass meeting that evening. Four speakers, two laymen and two priests, will address these gatherings. A special youth conference has been scheduled for the following day.

The Verein, one of the pioneer promoters of credit unions, will consider plans for launching an intensified movement to establish additional parish credit unions and offer existing groups organizational and functional assistance.

Members of the National Catholic Women's Union will participate in many convention events with the men, conducting in addition a separate mass meeting, youth conference, maternity guild session, and sponsoring a mission exhibit.

The Most Rev. John G. Murray, Archbishop of St. Paul, and host to the assemblies, will preside at the convention Mass. The Most Rev. Joseph F. Busch, Bishop of St. Cloud, will be the celebrant, while the Most Rev. John H. Peschges, Bishop of Crookston, will preach the sermon.

1,000 PARTICIPATE IN COLORED PILGRIMAGE

PHILADELPHIA.—(NC)— Over 1,000 attended the annual pilgrimage of the colored parishes of New York and Philadelphia to the Shrine of the True Cross, Torresdale, last Sunday.

Dedicated to the honor of the True Cross, the shrine has for many years been the center of deep devotion. Remarkable cures and answers to prayers have been reported by clients who take part in the perpetual novena devotions held on Sundays and Fridays, and also in the many pilgrimages during the summer months.

Arriving by train, bus and auto, hundreds of the pilgrims had come fasting in preparation for Holy Communion, which was distributed by two Benedictines before the open-air Mass. Later, the crowds gathered for the solemn outdoor procession of the Blessed Sacrament followed by Benediction. After Benediction, four priests assisted in blessing the pilgrims with the relics of the True Cross and St. Jude.

Each one of us possesses a store of beautiful memories, which he alone can read, a volume closed to all but himself.
