Religion Ignored Says 'Catholic Hour' Speaker

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Religion is an essential for national well-being and the very continuation of the nation as a democracy is jeopardized by responsible leaders, "let in our educational set-up religion is generally ignored," declared the Rev. John J. Wacziarg, Sunday night in his address over the "Catholic Hour."

Pray for Universal Peace

Sunday, September 5, has been set aside by President Roosevelt as a day of prayer for peace. In this photo from Tatum, Shamus, a Chinese boy at the mission of the Sacred Heart, in response to the Holy Father's appeal, prays for universal peace. The statue of Our Lady was carved by a Chinese sculptor in Inner Mongolia. (N.C.W.O.-Fides photo.)
