Senator Walsh Hits Out At Draft Now

INDIANAPOLIS (CNC)—A rising appeal to Congress to serve our national heritage, which he said can be done only by returning to the fundamentals of the philosophy of the founding fathers, to the truths and beliefs of Christianity was made by Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, in his address to the States Dinner of the fifty-eighth supreme convention of the Knights of Columbus here Tuesday night.

Senator Walsh was held in Washington because of the debate on the Conspicuous Bill and delivered his address by telephone from the Nation's Capital.

The Senator said the United States has an obligation to "avoid involvement in a war originating in Europe and Africa" and urged that we should not become victims of war hysteria or be diverted into precipitate action, and strongly contended that "before launching upon a program of permanent selective compulsory military service in peacetime, as contrasted with a selective service law designed to meet an emergency we should seek by every means within our power to encourage the recruiting of an army navy and air force upon a voluntary basis."

The strict rigid physical requirements for voluntary service should be reduced, the Senator declared, "the pay of the men who volunteer to protect our lives and property should be increased, and methods adopted in schools and colleges and among youths in every walk of life for universal physical training in distinction from permanent military conscription."

"Our people rightly possess a deeply-rooted mistrust of huge military forces. Such organizations in time of peace are associated with dictatorship and not democracy."

Bishop Ryan Favors Principle Of Draft

WASHINGTON.—Among messages from a number of church personalities of various denominations made public here by the National Emergency Committee of the Military Training Camps Association is one from the Most Rev. James H. Ryan, Bishop of Omaha, favoring compulsory military training and service.

"As a citizen," says Bishop Ryan, "I favor the principle of a selective military draft because I consider it the only fair, democratic and, above all, realistic method of preparing to meet the probability of attack on our liberties and institutions."

"That the U. S. is faced by total warfare in the near future cannot be questioned. There is only one way to meet total warfare and that is by total defense. Preparation for total defense cannot be fairly interpreted as an acceptance of the totalitarian philosophy, nor does it necessarily lead to totalitarianism. It goes without saying that I, in common with practically all Americans, do not approve of compulsory military service beyond the present emergency."

Pontifical Labor Day Mass Listed Monday

In a fitting spiritual observance of Labor Day, His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Keane, D. D., Bishop of Rochester, will celebrate a Solemn Pontifical Mass on Monday morning at 9 o'clock in Sacred Heart Cathedral.

The Mass, the votive Mass of Saint Joseph, the Carpenter of Nazareth, will be offered "to sanctify this national holiday dedicated to the working-man."

Begun by His Excellency, Bishop Keane, two years ago, this custom of having a special religious observance has stirred increasing interest. An ever larger congregation of industrial leaders, businessmen, labor organization leaders and laboring men and women is expected at this year's services.

A sermon appropriate to the occasion will be preached by Bishop Keane.

With labor to play an important part in national defense the significance of this year's Labor Day Mass is obvious. Priests of the diocese will assist His Excellency in the pontifical ceremony.
