BIG PARTY FRIDAY

The much awaited party is finally here this Friday Sept 20 in the school hall. All arrangements have been carefully worked out to the final detail by members of the Holy Name Society.

Moving pictures of parish activities will be shown as a highlight of the big party.

Admission has been set at twenty-five cents and will be used to carry on other activities of the Holy Name Society.

eral amusement in his own inimitable style and John Carroll gives a good, if occasionally overdone, portrayal of a would-be gigolo with a conscience. The picture is completely unimportant—but only the unsubtle attempts to be risque keep it from being quite enjoyable.

Other Pictures

Much better than the average run of Grade-B pictures is "Men Against the Sky" (A-1). It has a fairly good story, some thrills and is well acted. Richard Dix is still capable of turning in a good job—and he does it here—even though he has played this role, and similar ones, so many times that he should know it backward. Kent Taylor, the handsomest man in Hollywood, is becoming more sure of himself as an actor. Wendy Barrie is pretty and intelligent and Edmund Lowe, Granville Bates and others round out the cast of "Men Against the Sky."

There is also something called "The Earl of Puddlestone" (A-1) about which I wouldn't bother if I were you.

Refugee Priests Now Returning To Belgium

LYON, France.—In accordance with the request of His Eminence Joseph Cardinal Van Roey, Belgian priests who took refuge in France when their country was invaded are returning to their homes. It has been announced that colleges and universities of Belgium will be reopened this month.

Make Movie of Needy Family

LOS ANGELES.—(NC)—The trials of a typical Catholic family in times of misfortune and the manner in which they are met through the aid of the social agencies of the Church form the theme of "We Meet Human Needs," first color motion picture of Catholic Welfare activities which was previewed here this week.

Featured in the three-reel film are Jeanette MacDonald, who sings Gounod's "Ave Maria," and her husband, Gene Raymond, who narrates the story dealing with the Church in social action.

The production was filmed with the approval and under the supervision of the Most Rev. John J. Cantwell acting through the Rt. Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer of the Catholic Charities Bureau, under whose auspices it will be distributed throughout the United States. Costs of production were donated by an anonymous Catholic layman.

Drama is woven about the simple story of an ordinary Catholic family which has seen the seamy side of life in such a manner as to portray the activities of all the family welfare, child welfare and health agencies of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. The Church in social action is shown meeting the problems of soul and body, from maternity and day homes to institutions where aged men and women are cared for in the twilight of life.

The special fields of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and the Catholic Youth Movement are portrayed and defined in the film as are the functions of hospitals, clinics and health agencies, the activities in behalf of neglected and dependent children and problem boys and girls as well as the work for the poor, the sick, the orphaned and the aged, whether individuals or families.

Priest In Bus Crash Absolves Dying Refugee

LYON, France.—One person was killed when a bus, one of a caravan of 20 carrying Belgian refugees back to their native land, fell 60 feet into a ravine near Bourg-Saint-Andeol. Eleven were seriously injured.

One of the occupants, a military chaplain, gave absolution to his dying comrade.

Archbishop Cantwell To Speak On NBC

LOS ANGELES—The Most Rev. John J. Cantwell, Archbishop of Los Angeles speaking in commemoration of the Centennial of the Hierarchy in California and in connection with the Sixth National Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, will be heard from 12 Noon to 12:15 P. M., Eastern Standard Time over the NBC Red Network Sunday, October 13. Archbishop Cantwell will discuss "The Youth of the Nation."

Priest Gives Invocation Prayer At Postoffice

NEW ORLEANS.—The Rev. H. Joseph Jacobi, Director of Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, gave the invocation at the dedication of the new postoffice and federal building.

The Fourth Generation

In the early 80's many families of Rochester and vicinity purchased their monumental work here for erection in Holy Sepulchre and other Catholic cemeteries. Today we are serving their dekendants to the fourth generation.

Confidence can only be merited by honest values and personal attention to the customers' interest.

New fall designs now on display. Visit our studio. We have no agents.

CHESTERTONS ELECT

By MARGARET MILES

The Chestertonians held their first meeting of the year on Thursday evening, election of officers was held with the following candidates on the ballot: President: Pat Krechel, Ed Sloan and Bob Mooney. Vice President; Arlene Fallon, Mary Agnes Enzle and Jerry Hayes. Secretary; Ruth Hayes, Secretary Ruth Ehmann, Bernice Scheible and Adelaide Fisher. Treasurer: Tom Moran.

Tony Donahue and John Miles; Sergeant-at-Arms; Jim Mile Hall, John Moran and Elmer Wiegand.

Results of the election will be given next week.

The Chestertonian Group has been organized to promote good fellowship among the older boys and girls of our parish, with an ultimate view toward marriage. In these days of so many mixed marriages it is a proven fact that something must be done to foster good Catholic matches.

The Chestertonian Club consists of one of the finest group of young people in the city. They meet twice a month, not only to discuss interesting phases of our religion but, also to enjoy all kinds of social activities.

The Knights of St. John will hold their annual clam bake this Sunday, September 22 at the Knights Cottage on Irondequoit Bay.

The Drill Team of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John will conduct a card party in the meeting room on Thursday evening, September 26. The tickets will be 35c. Friends of this organization are cordially invited to attend.

Holy Father Praises Swiss Mission Union

VATICAN CITY.—His Eminence Luigi Cardinal Maglione, Papal Secretary of State, in the name of the Holy Father, has sent a letter to the Most Rev. Marius Besson, Bishop of Lausanne, Geneva and Freiburg, expressing the sympathy and encouragement of His Holiness for the "Catholic Union," a Swiss association formed to raise funds for seminaries for the native oriental clergy.

The Cardinal wrote that although the activity has not been able to develop in all its efficacy on account of present circumstances, nevertheless these very difficulties have been a fresh stimulus for its activity.

"His Holiness," continued the Cardinal, "does not doubt that this work is such as to render many and precious services to the mission cause and vocations and in general to the Christian Apostolate in all its forms."
