CROWD ENJOYS PARTY

One of the most delightful evenings for parishioners was held last Friday evening in the school hall. The much heralded color pictures of "Parish Activities" received enthusiastic applause as familiar faces were recognized. Pictures included several picnics, graduations and processions.

The party, which was held afterwards was a fine success. Valuable prizes met with hearty approval as the winners were announced.

The crowd was very large and temporary arrangements had to be made. In behalf of the Holy Name Society, under whose sponsorship the affair was held, Father Fox thanks all who attended to make the event such a fine success.

Schedule of Masses changes this Sunday, Sept. 29. Masses will be said at 6, 7:15, 8:15, 9:30 and 10:45. High Mass will be sung at the 10:45 Mass.

Sacred Heart Parish

JUNIOR AUXILEARY PICNIC

The Junior Auxiliary, Knights of St. John No. 13, will hold a sausage roast on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28, at Ontario Beach Park. Those who are planning to attend will meet in the school hall at 1:30.

Miss Marie Lawson is chairman and Miss Eleanor Harrison is co-chairman. Sports are in charge of Rita Prendergast, Helen Klein, Dorothy Palmer and Virginia Bolowski.

Prizes are being arranged by Miss Barbara Porter.

Tables are in charge of Barbara Houck, Dorothy Fisher, Joan Brenan Sheila Manion and Shirley Murray.

Refreshments will be taken care of by Jean Lawson, Shirley Buckley, Anner Maher and Irene Cancelli.

Final plans have been completed and everything is in readiness for the Fall Card Party which will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 1, in the school hall under the auspices of the Rosary Society.

The advance sale of tickets indicates a large turnout for this popular affair. Mrs. Arthur Reeves is serving as chairman with Mrs. K. A. Reynell as co-chairman.

They are being assisted by a large number of committees.

Auto Show Set To Open Oct. 12

Rochester's 33rd annual Auto Show is scheduled for October 12 through October 19, at the Civic Exhibit Building (formerly the Duffy-Powers Building), Edward C. Schoen, Show Manager and Secretary of the Rochester Automobile Dealers Association, announces.

The Auto Show will occupy the entire ground floor and second floor of the Civic Exhibit Building. Outside ramps will be erected to facilitate access to the second floor. Considerable enlargement of both exhibition floors will be achieved with the result that the total display area will closely approximate that formerly afforded by the Edgerton Park buildings, according to show officials.

The Civic Exhibit Building is far more conveniently located than the Edgerton Park Buildings where the Auto Show has been staged heretofore. Scores of parking lots in the blocks immediately adjacent will afford adequate parking facilities for all visitors.

The 33rd annual Auto Show sponsored, as usual, by the Rochester Automobile Dealers' Association will comprise some 150-odd brand new 1941 passenger car models. Each of America's seventeen foremost manufacturers will send the newest models to the Rochester Show.

The Show hours will be 11 A. M. to 10:30 P. M. daily. October 12 through October 19, with the exception of Sunday, October 13, when the Auto Show will be closed for the day only. Admission will be 35 cents.

Hafner Laundry New Service

Hafner Home Laundry, of No. 591 Clinton Ave. North, has just announced a new service for men. A new method has just been perfected so that a new collar can be attached to an otherwise good shirt. It will no longer be necessary to discard a white shirt simply because the collar is worn out. Hafner's new method makes your old shirt fit better, look better and wear better.

Tests have been going on for a long period of time and the results indicate that the new collar more than justifies the claims made for it. The entire cost for removing the old collar and attaching the new one is only 35 cents.

The method of removing the original collar and attaching the new collar has been developed on a sure scientific basis. The finished job is so smooth, neat and workmanlike that you, yourself, won't be able to tell the old shirts from new ones except for the fact that the replacement collars are far better looking, more comfortable and longer wearing than the old collars.

Send in the old shirts with the next bundle. Pin a note to them asking for replacement collars. Service offered on White Collars only. The shirts will be returned with the rest of the laundry. For service, call Main 2978.

Organist 68 Years

Chicago.—A banquet is being planned by Annunciation church parishioners to honor Miss Mary Sullivan, for 68 years organist at the church. She started when 11 years old and has played daily since 1872. She has had no recess except for one month when she was ill.

Upholds Religion

Jacques Maritain, Professor of Philosophy at the Catholic Institute of Paris, pictured as he spoke on "Religion and the Modern World," at the Bicentennial Conference of the University of Pennsylvania. "The best way that Christians can serve religion is not to entrust its fate to political or semi-political means," declared the noted savant.

First Credit Union Conference Set In N. Y.

Attention of credit union leaders and members here is being called by John J. Ammering, director, Rochester Chapter, New York State Credit Union League, Inc., to the first credit union conference scheduled Sept. 28 and 29 at the Russell Sage Foundation in New York City.

Five hundred representatives, including personnel directors, trade union groups, Settlement House and Church workers and credit union officials are expected to participate.

Opening the conference will be an address by Hon. William Reid, New York City Tax Collector, and president of the Credit Union National Association. His address will be broadcast over the Municipal Broadcasting Station WNYC at 11:15 A. M., Sept. 28.

"There are over 8,800 credit unions operating in the United States with 2,500,000 members and $200,000,000 in assets," William Goldfine President of the New York State Credit Union League, announces. Credit Unions (co-operative savings and lending institutions) are chartered by the Federal Government and State Banking Departments at the rate of 100 a month throughout the country, he stated.

"At present there are five Parish Credit Unions in Rochester," Mr. Ammering of the Rochester Chapter said this week. "They are in Holy Family, St. Andrews, Holy Redeemer, Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishes and the recently organized SS Peter and Paul's parish credit union.

"The present membership in these parishes approximates 1,000 with assets close to $50,000."

Among the governmental officials who will participate in the New York Conference will be Milton Rigb, Assistant Director, Farm Credit Administration and Edward J. Hickey, Chief of Field Review Credit Union Section of Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C. Matthew F. McAvoy Assistant Deputy Superintendent, and Sidney G. Rosenberg, of the New York State Banking Department. Nat C. Helman, Counsel to the National and State credit union organizations and lecturer at the Rochdale Institute, will give a discourse on the history and legislative development of the credit union movement.

Other subject matters to be discussed include "Economic Phases of the Credit Union," "Utilization of Credit Union Facilities" and "Credit Union Accounting."

The Christian Spirit

"It is necessary that all the teaching and the whole organization of the school and its teachers, syllabus and textbooks in every branch be regulated by the Christian spirit, under the direction and maternal supervision of the Church, so that religion may be in very truth the foundation and crown of the youth's entire training, and this in every grade of school, not only the elementary but the intermediate and the higher institutions of learning as well."—Pope Pius XI Encyclical on the Christian Education of Youth.

Bishop Kearney Will Open Novena At Corpus Christi

Purpose of the Novena to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal which His Excellency, Bishop Kearney will open at Corpus Christi Church on Sunday evening, Sept. 29 at 8 P. M. was outlined today by the Bishop.

His Excellency states:

"The introduction of special devotions in honor of Our Lady brings great blessing to any parish. Our Lord has seen fit to grant exceptional graces and blessings to those who honor His Blessed Mother by wearing her Miraculous Medal.

"However, in recent years there has developed a very sensible conviction among our people that wearing a medal should be backed up by sincere devotion and special prayers to our Blessed Lady.

"I consider it a great privilege to officiate at the inauguration of this great devotion at Corpus Christi Church. I know that the faithful of the parish, always devoted to the liturgy of their church, will respond enthusiastically to this call of their elected pastor.

"Our Holy Father, Pius XII, has again and again asked that our prayers for Peace be offered through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin. The Novena will offer a golden opportunity to beg this special help from Our Lady."

The Novena services will be conducted by the Rev. George Frey, C.M., widely known for his preaching of Novenas to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. Booklets and medals will be distributed during the Novena.

Following this Novena, services will be held throughout the year each Monday a. 8 P. M. at Corpus Christi Church, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V.G., pastor, announces.

Monsignor Hart announced today that the collection for St. Bernard's Seminary will be taken up at all the Masses on Sunday.

Club To Fete Campaign Workers

Final report meeting of the workers on the membership drive of the Catholic Women's Club will be held on Monday, Sept. 30, when the drive will come to a close after two weeks of extensive campaigning.

Mrs. Ronald McDonald, membership chairman, will be in charge of a luncheon, which will be held on Saturday, Oct. 6, at the Rochester Club, for the following workers who participated in the drive: Mesdames Carl Allen, George W. Bassett, William F. Butler, Williams R. Carey, Albert W. Cowell, John M. Culhane, John H. Callahan, Joseph P. Flynn, Alexander E. Grate, Leonard E. Golden, John J. Burke, Julius C. Latanzi, Charles F. McAlpine, George L. McKay, Williams A. McFall, Harold B. McElwain, Hobart L. Owens, James D. O'Flynn, William V. Magovern, Joseph A. Dutton, Leo J. Ruby, Charles A. Schrank, Paul A. Shults, Erwin K. Thurston, Louis A. Whalen, George H. Trentman, Williams M. Woodruff, Elmer S. Schubert, Harry F. Pierce, Earl F. Comery, Donald P. Woods.

The Misses Hortense Brutche, Mary L. Dunbar, Marie Cullen, Alice F. Kirk, Mary E. O'Connor.

A reception will be held the latter part of October for all new members, details of which will be announced at a future time.

100 Subjects Offered In Adult Evening Classes

Formal instruction began Monday night for those registered for adult evening classes in eight of Rochester High Schools, two grade schools and twenty-five civic centers, according to Verne A. Bird, Adult Education Director for the Board of Education.

Registrations will also be taken all this week, and will continue where classes lack the minimum registration required.

Classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at Charlotte, Benjamin, Franklin, Junior Vocational, Jefferson High and No. 9 Schools. Classes will be conducted five nights a week at Monroe, East High School and School No. 27. Registration may be made on these nights from 7 to 10 P. M.

Nearly 100 subjects in cultural, vocational, commercial and home-making are being offered this year.

Legion of Mary Lists 25 Curias

BROOKLYN.—With the establishment of a Diocesan Curia (Council) of the Legion of Mary here, John Murray, field organizer of the Legion, reports his organization now has such Diocesan Curias in 25 sees of the United States.

Mr. Murray points out, however, that the Legion has units in 75 dioceses of the United States. It has two organizers working in this country and Canada—Mr. Murray and Miss Mary Duffy, both of Dublin. Miss Duffy has been in this country since 1934 and Mr. Murray since 1936. Miss Una O'Byrne, who worked as organizer in the United States from 1934 to 1939, has returned to Ireland.

Although the first Legion of Mary unit was started only in 1921, there are units on all five continents.

477,400 Visit Famous Shrine In Canada

STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE, Que.—There were 477,400 pilgrims to the shrine here during the past season. That is a decrease of 17 per cent. from the 571,500 of a year ago.

While Canada has in no way put any restriction on tourists, it is believed the war is responsible for the decrease, as many in the United States had the notion that a visit to Canada would entail inconvenience.

Of this year's pilgrimage 116,900 came by motor car, 80,000 by train and 5,000 by bus. There were 5,000 who came by foot from various parishes.

There were 4,000 priests who visited the shrine, and 11,000 Masses were said during this season. Communions totalled 361,000.

Reds Arrested

Montreal.—A score of Communists have been arrested here and are now in internment camps. The arrests have been made under the Defense of Canada Regulations which outlawed the Communist Party.

Do a kind deed, be it ever so simple, when you would rather take your ease.

Fingerprints On The Altar Rail

The sunshine that streamed through the windows
And fell across the Veil,
Revealed a row of fingerprints
Upon the Altar Rail.

There were tiny little sticky marks
Left there by baby hands,
As children lisped their earnest pleas
Mid hosts of angel bands.

There were others left by those
Who brought to Him the joys
That filled the youthful, hopeful hearts,
Of happy girls and boys.

And there were those of a mother,
Young and brave and sweet,
Who hurried in to tell her love
While her babe was fast asleep.

There were those still damp from tears
That welled from broken hearts,
As they poured out their grief to Him
Who alone true peace imparts.

Then there were those of His chosen ones,
Who had pledged to Him their all—
'Twas there that they had found the grace
To hearken to His call.

And so they came, throughout the day,
From dawn 'til sunset glow,
And the peace that filled their hearts
The world will never know.

Forever there behind the Veil,
In patient love He waits,
And those who daily watch with Him
Will at the last reach Heaven's gates.

Then the silken Veil will fall,
His smile will meet their own,
And He will gently lead them
Close to His Heavenly Throne.

ELECTION HELD

By MARGARET MILES

As their first social functions of the year, the Chesterfonians are making plans for their annual banquet which will be held in October in the school hall.

New members will be cordially welcomed and the new officers will be installed in their respective positions.

As a result of the elections last week, the following members will hold office for the coming year: President, John Miles; Vice-President, Arlene Fallon; Secretary, Betty Ruby, Treasurer, Pat Krechel and Sergeant-at-Arms, Jake Hall.

Catherine Newman has been named chairman of the banquet committee.

Speakers for the banquet will be Rev. Maynard Connell of St. Bernard's Seminary.

Registering of new members of the high school group will take place at the opening class on Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, at 8 o'clock in the school.

Lay teachers will, this year, replace the priests who instructed the classes in previous years.

Following the registration there will be a social gathering.
