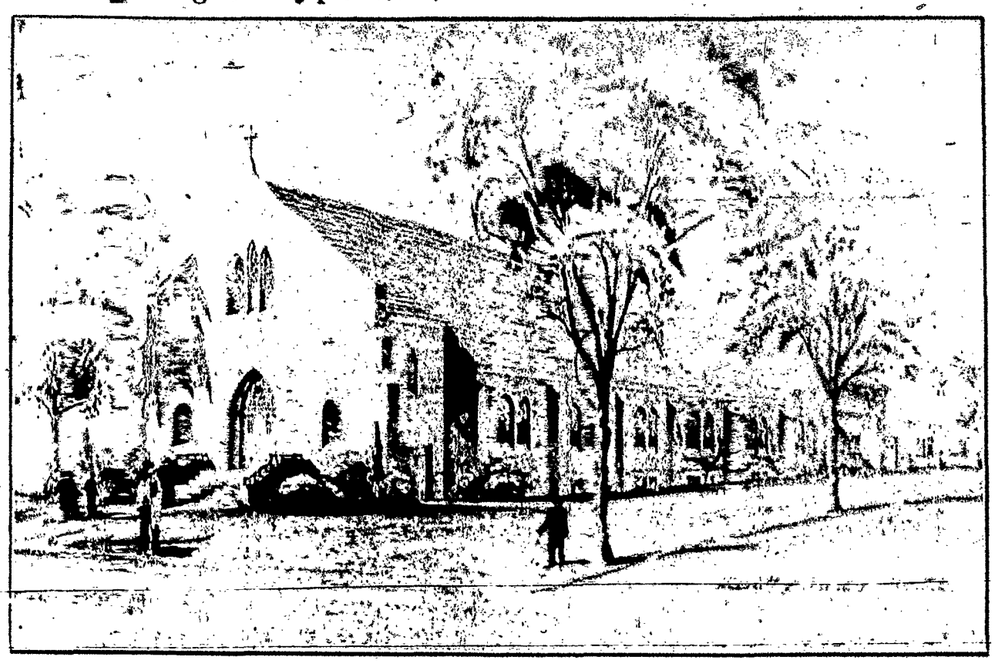
Early English Type Church To Serve New Elmira Parish



THE NEW WEST ELMIRA parish of Our Lady of Lourdes will have this beautiful church of English style of architecture according to plans of Haskell and Considine, architects. The church of which the Rev. Leo C. Schwab is pastor, will seat 600 persons. There will be an assembly hall in the basement accommodating about 800. Located at Church St. and Demarest Parkway, the church will have an overall width of 47 feet and the length will be 140 feet. The main entrance will be on Church St and there will be two side entrances near the sanctuary. The architects have prepared working drawings and the asking of bids for construction is underway.

Catholic Labor College Opens Here October 14

New fields in subjects taught at Rochester's Catholic Labor College will be explored by the faculty when the College opens for the fall term, Monday evening, Oct. 14 at St. Andrew's Seminary.

The Catholic Labor College is under the direction of the Rev. George C. Vogt, diocesan director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

On the faculty and subjects which they will handle are the Rev. Francis B. Burns of St. Bernard's Seminary "Problems of Distribution". Dr. Aaron I. Abell of Nazareth College "The American Labor Movement". Edward R. Murphy of Niagara University at Rochester - Parliamentary Law," with emphasis on practice of speaking from the floor.

Three Class Periods

The first class will begin at 7:30 P. M. with the others at 8:15 and 9 P. M. Classes will be held every Monday evening extending over eight weeks in the fall and then there will be eight Mondays of classes in the spring, Father Vogt announces.

Guest speakers will be heard from time to time at the college. Mimeographed copies of topics treated will be distributed to enable newcomers to take up where those who have attended the courses left off.

Impetus to the college has been given by the recent Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems. Father Vogt states. He had many inquiries regarding the college's resumption of classes following the Conference.

"The philosophy of the Catholic Labor College," Father Vogt said in announcing the resumption of classes "is founded on the sublime personal dignity of the workingman as a human being, a brother to Jesus Christ, the Carpenter of Nazareth, destined one day to share the inheritance of the sons of God.

"Sons of God, even in this life, have a dignity entirely independent of the false standards of wealth, nobility and social position. Sons of God have rights granted by God Himself, not only to life and liberty and the spiritual development of the individual, but also to the material possessions necessary for a standard of living befitting human dignity."

Registration will take place at St. Andrew's Seminary, 444 Plymouth Ave North, and can be taken before the first class on Monday evening.

Women Pace Workers In CYA Campaign

With the women's division off to a running start for the fourth straight year, campaigners in the ninth annual drive of the Columbus Youth Association gather in the Columbus Civic Centre ballroom tonight for their second report meeting.

Regardless of the report turned in at tonight's meeting the nearly 400 campaigners face a busy weekend to bring the drive to a successful conclusion. The goal is 2,250 memberships.

At the first report meeting Monday evening, the women workers under the direction of Miss Eva M. Schreiner reported 133 memberships against a total of 117 for the men's divisions under the leadership of Joseph J. Mylor.

Special Group Active

The special committee headed by Joseph Dryer turned in 300 memberships to bring the total for the first report meeting to 650 or 24 per cent of the goal. Most of the special committee memberships will be applied to underprivileged boys and girls who otherwise would be deprived of the advantages of a C. Y. A. membership.

The need for intensive work during the closing phases of the campaign was emphasized today by John H. Gould general chairman. He said:

"While we are encouraged with the start made thus far it is absolutely necessary that all workers redouble their efforts over this next week-end if we are to reach our goal of 2,250 memberships.

"I think that everyone will concede the importance of the work being done by the campaigners this year and the necessity of continuing the excellent work which the youth of the community needs. The fine results of the special committee emphasize the value placed on a CYA membership by the business leaders of our community."

Bob 'Robin' Burns Spends Spare Time on 351 Acre Ranch

One of the subjects currently occupying Bob is how to reduce two overweight mules — without reducing himself. Burns has finished his plowing for the next three months, and his two championship Missouri mules, which were given him after his movie, "I'm from Missouri," are gaining weight. He's tried to lend them to Dorothy Lamour, José Iturbi, Lillian Cornell or the Music Maids, but none can think of any use they might have for mules. Burns finally decided to turn the mules loose every afternoon in a 60-acre field and chase them around for exercise, but in a week, Burns lost six pounds. Weight of the mules remained the same. "If worse comes to worse," says Burns, "I'll have to enter 'em in races with those milk wagon horses of Crosby's."

Bernie Versus Bruce

When Ben Bernie met Carol Bruce on the opening of their new Tuesday night show, Ben said: "Miss Bruce, if no one has ever told you that you are a vision of loveliness, allow me to be the first."

"Thank you maestro," the songstress said. "But why so formal? Other people may call me Miss Bruce, but you can call me Carol."

Bernie had a ready answer. "Well other people may call me Mr. Bernie, but you can call me any time."

"Pot of Gold" Grows on Front Porch

When Larry Cotton, voice of romance on the Horace Heidt Pot o'Gold and Treasure Chest programs moved into a furnished house in West Los Angeles, Calif., Larry admired the vine which covered the porch. But not until last week did he discover that it is the Solandra Gutata vine. The literal translation of the botanical name is "Cup of Gold," but more commonly called "The Pot of Gold."

Hero's A Record A Godfather 35 Times

John J. Anthony, director of the Good Will Hour Thursday, 12:00 P. M. is godfather to more than thirty-five children. Eighteen of the children are boys, named after the member of the program.

The reason for the honor given Anthony is traced back over his years as an adjuster of family and social problems. In many cases, Anthony's work resulted in such personal attachments being made that he is considered a member of those families whose problems he has adjusted.
