St. Andrew's Parish

COMMUNION DATES

Members of the Junior Holy Name Society and the Sodality of Our Lady will receive Holy Communion at the 9 o'clock Mass on Sunday, Oct. 20, and St. Andrew's Club Members are also expected to participate in this corporate Communion.

There will be a meeting of the Sodality of Our Lady on Monday evening, Oct. 21. Members will gather in the Church at 8 o'clock for special prayers in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, after which they will adjourn to the school hall for an important business meeting.

The Holy Name Communion Breakfast last Sunday was a huge success. Breakfast, which included ham and eggs, rolls and coffee, was served to approximately two hundred and sixty men.

At the short business meeting which followed, it was announced that a smoker would be held on Thursday, Nov. 7, in the school hall. Moving pictures of last year's Silver Jubilee were also shown for the first time.

Auto Show Closes On Saturday Night

Late Saturday night the curtain will ring down on the 33rd annual Auto Show, most beautiful and successful exhibition of its kind ever staged in Rochester.

Ever since last Saturday huge throngs have attended the show each afternoon and evening, and show officials expect that the remaining few days will see bigger crowds than ever turn out to enjoy the sight of some 150-odd new 1941 cars set amid elaborate floral and evergreen decorations in the newly-remodeled Civic Exhibits Building.

College Guild Gives Weekly Broadcasts

ST. BONAVENTURE, N. Y.—A weekly radio broadcast of Catholic news is conducted solely by the Catholic Evidence Guild of St. Bonaventure College here. The weekly quarter-hour program is entitled "Catholicism in the News" and is heard on Tuesdays over Station WHDL, Olean, N. Y.

The broadcast, which reports current happenings and opinion in the Catholic world, began its second season today. The speaker is Marius Risley, St. Bonaventure student and former aide of David Goldstein, who has devoted several years to the explanation of Catholic teaching in the lay street-speaking apostolate.

The broadcast is part of the Guild's public speaking and literature apostolate program to non-Catholics.

Makes Record

Washington—The address of the Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, Archbishop of New York, to the national convention of the American Legion in Boston on September 20 has been printed in the Congressional Record.

MISSION HELPERS OBSERVE JUBILEE

Spreading the Kingdom of the Sacred Heart through the teaching of Christian Doctrine in the home missions of the United States and Puerto Rico, is the special aim of the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart, who will observe their golden jubilee, October 16-18, at the motherhouse, Towson, Md. They now labor in the Archdiocese of Baltimore and Washington and the Dioceses of Brooklyn, Trenton, Pittsburgh, Richmond, Altoona, Harrisburg, San Juan and Ponce. A Mission Helper is shown conducting a class in Christian Doctrine for public school children. (NCWC)

Academy Receives Added Tributes To Late Principal

During the past month, countless letters, telegrams and messages of sympathy have been received by the members of the faculty of Nazareth Academy who are mourning the loss of their principal and superior, Sister Marcella.

Former pupils, business men, religious, educators and friends from all parts of the United States have each in his own way, told of the extent and depth of Sister's influence.

Let these speak for themselves:

"I have long regarded Sister Marcella as a great factor in the educational work a builder of character, and great influence for high principles in the lives of thousands during her more than half century of administration of Nazareth Academy.

"Her generous hospitality was so deeply impressed upon me that it has been a lasting remembrance."

"Her personal standards were high and these, under her leadership became the standards of the school."

"Her wise and courageous understanding in the world of business has always been widely admired and respected."

"Her gentle kindly influence has never passed from my life."

"Sister Marcella exerted a lasting influence in directing the hearts of thousands of girls towards things spiritual and enduring."

"I remembered her unfailing fairness and understanding."

"For to her, that promise made by Him, 'They who instruct others unto justice shall shine as stars through all Eternity,' is truly applicable."

"As a pattern of highest human nobility and practical virtue, we shall always have her to look up to."

"We do not need to read the beautiful testimonials of Sister Marcella to know her worth but we feel we know her better for them."

Alumnae Mass Set For Sr. Marcella

Nazareth Academy Alumnae Association will have a High Mass sung in the school auditorium, Sunday, Oct. 20, at 9 o'clock for the repose of the soul of their late principal and friend, Sister M. Marcella. The Mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Joseph J. O'Connell, academy chaplain, and sung by the Alumnae choir.

Breakfast will be served following the Mass, after which the Semi-annual business meeting of the Alumnae will be held.

Mrs. Clayton J. Gallagher, general chairman of the breakfast, will be assisted by the following committees:

Arrangements, Mrs. Clarence Palmer, Mrs. F. Eugene Mater, Miss Mary Skelly, Mrs. J. Gerald Zugelder, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. Richard O'Connor, Mrs. Francis J. Mahoney; decorations, Miss Grace Keenan; reservations, Mrs. James J. Tighe.

Seminary Rector

Detroit—The Rev. Henry E. Donnelly has been named Rector of Sacred Heart Seminary here by the Most Rev. Edward Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit. Father Donnelly has been a member of the seminary's faculty for 10 years.

'Osservatore' Lauds U. S. Catholic Hour

VATICAN CITY—A long article about the nationwide "Catholic Hour", produced in the United States by the National Council of Catholic Men has been published on the front page of Osservatore Romano here in connection with the broadcast's tenth anniversary.

Entertain Faculty

The Sophomore class of Nazareth Academy will hold its first social function of the year on Saturday, Oct. 19, when it will entertain the faculty at a luncheon.

The Tables and Decorations Committee composed of Marion Piehler, Virginia O'Brien, Adelaide Crandell, Marie May, Bernice Mattes and Marjorie Colebeck will prepare the school cafeteria for the party. Jane Monk and Mary Jane Allen are in charge of procuring and serving the refreshments.

An Entertainment Committee will provide a program of fun for the afternoon. Patricia Ryan, Lorraine Kress, Marion Siminic, Shirley Jackman, Alice Foley and Angeline Alesso plan a series of games, pranks, stunts and dancing in the gymnasium.

In charge of that important issue, finance, are Margaret Owen, Marjorie Covle, Margaret Fleming, Mary Dedie, Cynthia Smith, Dorothy Kupski and Lois Volkmar.

Month's Mind Mass

The entire student body of Nazareth Academy was present at a month's mind Mass of Requiem which was sung in the school auditorium this morning for the repose of the soul of Sister Marcella. Officers of the Mass were: Celebrant, Rev. Joseph J. O'Connell; Deacon, Rev. Maynard Corinell; Sub-deacon, Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke. The Mass was sung by the Perosian Choir.

IN MEMORIAM

(For Sister Marcella)

Upon her honored bier rare tributes lie.
This Valiant Woman who was Nazareth
One humbly great in sight of God and men,
A true Religious unafraid of death.
Whose vision spanned a world of Living Light
In souls redeemed by grace through Jesus Christ
Her greatness lay in her indomitable will.
Which she, long since, had laid in sacrifice
Upon the Altar of the Love-of-God.
There, absorbed in heaven's Holier will,
Immersing self in vowed obedience,
Her life became a Pentecostal Flame
With which she cast God's fire upon the earth
To kindle there a holier womanhood!
Therein lay her certitude of truth,
Therein abode her procreative power
To build so high and deep and grandiose
Her own vast temple of a Soul
Where all might come to learn the Word of God
And this she had attained with modest means . . .
Fidelity to duty . . .
She was faithful
To the end . . . life's whole achievement . . .
This is the final grace of sanctity . . .
She wears it now, her Crown of Perseverance,
Made beautiful within the courts of God!
No weakness marred her fashioning of souls.
Each edifice was wrought immortally
And founded firmly on a solid Rock
Quarried with rugged vigor from the years
Of fortitude majestically her own.
That Rock was Faith . . . Faith in God's true Church
And Faith in the inherent godliness
Her charity discerned in other men.
How dearly Memory recalls her now
Throughout the ordered day from dawn to dark:
In Chapel for her morning tryst with God,
Drawing strength to meet the waiting hours
In breaking of the Sacred Bread of Life,
In the deep calm and hush of Holy Mass;
The long day's patient ministry of mind,
Happy in her consecrate design
To help Youth build a pure and better world,
Prayer's mystic beauty in the twilight-hour,
The kindly leisure after evening meal
In blest observance of her Holy Rule:
Then, rendezvous with books at eventide
Till night-prayer in the Presence of her Lord
Would bring the convent-day to journey's end.

L'ENVOI

Ah, Valiant Gentlewoman, Spouse of Christ,
His peace enfolds you now in deep embrace!
Like to that other Maid of Nazareth,
Who mothered God and souls His Love redeemed,
You, too, in Him, may wield Omnipotence;
Him you have loved for four-score sacred years
With all your heart and all your ardent soul,
And served with all your strength and all your mind:
And He will heed you now, at home with Him,
Moving eternal mercy with your prayer
In mightier concord with the heavenly choirs.
And send, perchance, His peace to earth again
As we keep tryst with Hope beside Life's Gate
In lonely vigil through the lingering years,
United with us in the Infinite,
One in the Body Mystical of Christ.
Pray that, at last, each child of Nazareth
And all who hold you sacred as a Friend
May worthy homage lay upon your bier—
The reverence of our lives lived nobly . . . our Fidelity to duty unto God!

—SISTER MARY CLAIRE, O.S.F.

St. Margaret Mary's Parish

PASTOR'S 50TH BIRTHDAY

More than 400 of his parishioners extended felicitations to the Rev. Charles J. Bruton, pastor of St. Margaret Mary's Church in a strictly spiritual manner on last Sunday.

Members of the Men's Club, the Altar Society and the Young People's Club assembled in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass to receive Holy Communion for the pastor's intention. The women were seated on one side of the church on Rogers Parkway and the men on the other.

Father Bruton was deeply touched by this manifestation of regard for the pastor, he told those present. Following the Mass, officers of the club presented him with 50 silver dollars as a birthday gift. At the other Masses parishioners gathered to offer their Communions for his intention.

After the morning services, Father Bruton went to Churchville to observe his birthday quietly with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Michael and Ellen Bruton of that village.

St. Margaret Mary's Altar Society will hold its annual chicken supper in the School Auditorium in Rogers Parkway, Oct. 26, from 5:30 P. M. to 8:00 P. M.
