Adoration Men Lauded For 'Unselfish Prayer'

To restore peace and unity to this troubled world there is need today for the "unselfish prayer" of men faithful to their Nocturnal Adoration Society, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, told a capacity attendance of members at the yearly Holy Hour conducted by him in Blessed Sacrament Church, Sunday night.

Center tables of the church, on Oxford Street were filled with men from various sections of the city who were kneeling in prayer a month throughout the night to assemble in prayer before the blessed sacrament at St. Patrick's Church.

Dedication recoupled the services with His Excellency officiating, assisted by the Rev. Leo C. Murphy, rector of the church, and other Nocturnal Adoration Society, the Rev. Francis M. Feeley and the Rev. Lawrence B. Casey. In the sanctuary were the Rev. Thomas F. Connors, the Rev. John S. Malone, the Rev. John W. Brill and the Rev. John A. Morgan.
