Nazareth College in the News

By HELEN MACCHIA

The Department of Physical Education of Nazareth College sponsored a Play Day on Oct. 26, the first in the history of the college. This Play Day was held to acquaint sub-freshmen of the Rochester high schools with the sports side of Nazareth.

There were students from Nazareth Academy, Our Lady of Mercy High School, Sacred Heart Academy and East High School. Among the faculty members present were Sister Hubertine and Sister Irmino of Nazareth Academy and Miss O'Connell of East High School.

In the course of the day, there were many and varied outdoor sports—ping-pong tournaments and dancing. Then an informal picnic supper was held for which each one brought his own supper and the college supplied the coffee and dessert. The program ended with movies shown by Father Kelly taken on last year's May Day and Field Day. Play Day was under the direction of Mrs. Morgan of Physical Education at the college. Play Day will be an annual affair.

The Rev. Leonard Kelly of Nazareth College attended the Liturgical Week Convention held at Chicago, together with several other priests of Rochester. They, together with 1,200 other priests and religious, took part in the first observance of such a week in the United States. The importance of Liturgical Worship in the parish was stressed because this form of worship is deeply rooted in Catholic Action, thereby making the parish a true member of the Body of the Church.

Father Kelley is attempting to instill love of the liturgy in the children whom he teaches at St. Helena Church. By preparing the children for the Missa Recitata.

On the Feast of Christ, the King, Sunday, Oct. 27, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, celebrated a Pontifical High Mass at the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart for the success of the college drive. The members of the faculty and the student body of the college were present in cap and gown. Present also were members of the laity who are active in this campaign.

A pleasant surprise was experienced by the college last Monday when Father Alfred Barrett, S.J., visited the students.

He spent part of the afternoon in informal discussions concerning current day topics and visited some of the classes.

Sparkling senoritas dressed in colorful gowns and Spanish mantillas gaily sung and danced to the accompaniment of tambourines and castanets last Saturday evening when the sophomore group of the resident students of Nazareth College presented a Spanish tableau for the benefit of the students and faculty.

DR. BOLAND SCORES FALSE INDUSTRY, LABOR HEADS

BUFFALO—Disloyal leaders of labor and industrialists who attempt to evade labor legislation were scored by the Rev. Dr. John P. Boland, Chairman of the New York State Labor Relations Board, addressing a session of the Labor College of the Diocese of Buffalo. Dr. Boland is Director of the College.

Choosing as his topic "The Need for Moral Reform," Dr. Boland repeated the warning advice of Pope Leo XIII in 1891 that society must return to Christian life and institutions. "If the rules of common morality had been accepted and obeyed, if greed for power and self had not been the motivation of their various acts," he said, "we would not be the unwilling witnesses of a major break in our program for better economic conditions for both of the partners of industry, employers and employes."

He deplored the "domineering methods" of certain of labor's high-placed officials and of employers who had refused to carry workmen's compensation insurance.

Fr. Le Buffe Marks Double Jubilee

NEW YORK — The Rev. Francis P. Le Buffe, S.J., Eastern Secretary and Promoter the Sodality and one of the country's outstanding priests this year celebrates a double jubilee — the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination and the twenty-fifth series of his popular books, "My Changeless Friend."

One of these books has been written and circulated each year of his priesthood and 800,000 copies have been sold in the past quarter of a century.

Father Le Buffe was formerly Editor-in-Chief of the Jesuit Quarterly, Thought, and Business Manager of the Jesuit weekly review, America.

On Draft Staff

New Orleans.—Dr. James Thomas Connor, Dean of the School of Law of Loyola University of the South, has been ordered to duty as a member of the state staff of the Louisiana National Guard. He will head the Legal Division in the administration of the selective draft system in the State and will serve for one year with the rank of captain.

SODAL TALK

By MARGARET LARKIN

News was received from St. Bridget's Sodality that Rita Mahaffy was re-elected President for the coming year. Assisting her will be Angelina Costello as Secretary and Patricia O'Grady as Treasurer. Another interesting thing we learned from them—the sodalists have formed a Red Cross Chapter and are doing some fine work for this most worthy cause. The Eucharistic Committee announced that the Perpetual Communion for October was so successful that they are carrying the idea over into November, too. The Social Committee, under the direction of Helen Lavin, are planning a Hallowe'en Party in the form of a supper. Assisting her will be Frances Hurry, Mary Orlando and Delores Gerhaer.

* * *

Here comes Holy Rosary Sodality with news galore! They had a successful Communion breakfast with Mrs. Benjamin DuPrez as guest speaker. The Senior Sodality is conducting a Study Club on "Catholic Life and Worship" under the guidance of their Spiritual Director, Father Richard Burns.

Officers for the Senior Sodality for the current year are: Rita Schaeffer, Prefect; Ruth Mary Davis, Vice Prefect; Betty Jot, Secretary, Betsy Emmerich, Treasurer; Ann Phillips, Eucharistic; Mary Agnes Attanasi, Our Lady's; Roberta Miller, Apostolic; Mary Quirin, Catholic Truth, and Peggy McStravick, Social Life. Congratulations, girls, and the very best of good luck with your undertakings.

* * *

It was good to receive Hazel Firkland's newsy letter the other day, giving me an account of things at St. Philip Neri Sodality. It seems that the sodalists with the aid of their director, Father J. Murphy, have been busy conducting a Membership Drive. They set Sunday, Oct. 27, as Registration Day and we're awfully anxious to hear the results.

And here's something novel. The Social Life Committee is planning a trip to Niagara Falls by train for the whole sodality. They have set the date for Nov. 10 and already they're keyed up over the prospects of one grand time.

Over at St. Andrew's where new things are always in the air, the lads and lassies are busy planning a Football Hop for Friday evening, Nov. 1. The dance floor will be marked off like a football field and gay collegiate colors will adorn the hall. Catherine Bauerschmidt and Ray Kolb will act as "officials." Jeanne Thibault and Herb Platter are on the arrangements committee; Rose Donaruma and Bob Flynn are taking care of music; Ruth Platter and Bob Glasgow will see that you get something worthwhile for "the pause that refreshes"; Irene Ehrstein, Joe Gagner, Helen Schifferli, Don Gagner, Angie Luciano, Walter Strutz, Irene Maratta, Kay Mattle, Bud Cliuffo, Betty Baehmer and Irving Oliver complete the committee. The "kick-off" will be at 9 o'clock.

* * *

Marie Di Gloriomo was recently re-elected president of St. Francis Xavier Sodality. Assisting her in the various offices for the year will be: Florence Gaglio, vice-president; Evelyn Docle, Treasurer; Carmel Presutti, Corr Secretary; Carm Costanza, Recording Secretary; Betty Jane Wedow, Sergeant-at-arms. The following sodalists were elected to the committees: Sara Pecora, Eucharistic and Our Lady's; Rose Niccolelli, Social; Florence Gaglio, Catholic Truth; Rose Spinosa, Apostolic, and Betty Jane Wedow, Publicity.

Knights of Columbus

Charlie Geyer and his Santas took indisputed possession of first place in the K. of C Loop on Joe Garin's Columbus Alleys as Warren Hill's Puritans were overcome by the Geyermen by the score of 3 to 0. In the meantime McCarthy and his Pintas were being overshadowed by Jack Ward and his freshman Ninas, the latter taking the odd game to eke out a 2 to 1 decision.

The erstwhile champion Pirates took the odd game from Gene Austing's Indians while Paul Predmore's Guards defeated Jack Kinney and his hapless band of Klutes 2 to 1.

Jerry Wetnhardt rolled high three game total with 802, which included the high single game of the season, 245. In runner-up position was Fitzpatrick with 564 and Bob Ward 564 followed by Frank Toomey, the old-sergeant, with 538; Steve Nicosia, Pinta anchor man, 546; Jack Ward, 536; Dr. O'Neill, 536; Gene Austing, 525; George Ward 520, Bill Woerner, 530; Jimmy Sullivan, 528, and Cal Loflink, 520. Jack Ward hit a single game score of 214, Bill Woerner 207, Fitzpatrick 205, Gene Austing 201, Charlie Raymond 201 and George Ward 201.

Bill Staub, secretary, announced the Santas in the lead with 12 victories, 3 defeats, followed by the Pintas with 10 and 5, Pirates 9 and 6, Ninas 9 and 6, Indians 8 and 8, Klutes 5 and 10, Guards 5 and 10, and the Puritans were in the cellar with 4 victories against 11 defeats.

Bishop Hurley Leaves Vatican City for U. S.

By Msgr. Enrico Pucci

VATICAN CITY—The Most Rev. Joseph P. Hurley, newly-consecrated Bishop of St. Augustine, Florida, left Rome Wednesday evening for Lisbon, Portugal whence he is embarking as soon as possible for the United States.

Osservatore Romano, printing the news of Bishop Hurley's departure, again greets the American prelate, and wishes the most abundant fruits for his apostolic ministry.
