cluded, but they are to be the type of system and the kind of science that has Christ in them. Modern methods must serve the purpose of enabling men to do better the work of Christ.

The Abomination Of Desolation These words of Sunday's Gospel will mean more to the people of those unhappy sections of Europe where the devastation of war has been so much in evidence.

In One Man's Lifetime By REV. JAMES M. GILLIS, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World They are demolishing the Ninth Avenue "L" in New York.

The Day Of The Lord By REV. BENEDICT EHMANN In the mind of the Church, November is the month of the Kingdom and of the Apocalypse.

LET US GIVE THANKS FOR HOMES UNDAUNTED BY BOMBS - FOR FOOD ENOUGH - FOR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY - FOR OPPORTUNITIES TO RELIEVE SUFFERING - FOR GREAT TASKS AHEAD - FOR THESE O LORD, WE THANK THEE.

WILD WISDOM Try the Right Rev. Msgr. Peter M. H. Maguire's "God Bless America" Shortly after our election to the presidency of the Catholic Press Association we visited some of the bishops for the purpose of discussing the future of the organization.

Thanksgiving The American tradition of a national holiday to give thanks to God for all His bountiful blessings is a good one. It is a tradition that speaks volumes for the religious sentiments that moved the Pilgrims and their successors as they set about the building of a new homeland for themselves in America.

Why? Why Vainness? Why is it necessary for the Pope to have temporal power? The temporal possessions of the Papacy have their roots far back in history.

For Peace The Holy Father on the coming Sunday leads his children throughout the world in prayer for peace. His message was read last Sunday to all the people of each diocese.

A Ministry Of Mercy Well did Archbishop Stritch characterize the work of the organizations represented in the 26th National Conference of Catholic Charities meeting in Chicago, as a ministry of mercy.
