NBC Aims Army-Navy Grid Till To World

Army vs. Navy the football game that gives joy and action wherever there are men in uniform will now reach the world from Municipal Stadium, Philadelphia tomorrow over the vast combined networks of the National Broadcasting Corporation and seven powerful international shortwave stations.

Bill Stern, NBC's football announcer, will go on the air over WHAM at 1:45 P. M. fifteen minutes before the opening kick-off.

For the men of Uncle Sam's defense of the earth, NBC has arranged to broadcast over five shortwave stations in addition to its own powerful international outlets WHCA and WNH.

Radio beams will carry Bill Stern's description to Europe, Central and South America to Mexico and the West Coast of South America. Other stations will search out men at sea on patrol duty at newly established outposts in Alaska and the South Pacific.

First Regional Meet Advances Work

More than 200 members of the Catholic Central Union of America and the National Catholic Women's Union from Utah, Syracuse and Rochester gathered at the Union Hall in Syracuse last Sunday afternoon for the first regional conference of the two organizations.

A considerable amount of business was transacted, including a discussion of the Corporation Society, the Central Bureau Expansion Fund, Parish Councils, the National Guild Movement and plans for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's Encyclical on the Workings of the Social Order.

Richard F. Henner, President of the New York State Branch, Catholic Central Union of America, presided at the conference and expressed hope that the conference would be held in different parts of the state in the near future.

Chairman of the special committee is Treasurer Leo F. Hornbaker. The campaign will continue until Dec. 15. The goal is 200 members.
