DESSERT BRIDGE

By MARGARET HILES

Plans are under way for a Dessert Bridge to be given by the Little Flower Guild on Friday afternoon, Dec. 6, at 1 o'clock in the school hall on Whalen Street.

Mrs. Frank Vogel, Sr., is general chairman, and Mrs. Benedict Ehmann is serving as co-chairman. They are being assisted by the following women as the reception committee: Mrs. Charles Buonomo, Mrs. Joseph Ribatein, Mrs. Henry Rice, Miss Ada Schreiner, Mrs. Sarto Stallknecht, Mrs. Ben Spegel, Mrs. Joseph Tremmel and Mrs. Martin Wahl. The prize committee consists of Mrs. Frank Derbort and Mrs. Sarto Stallknecht.

Those serving on the reception committee are Mrs. John Schneider, Mrs. John Frankenberger, Mrs. George Ritz, Mrs. John Weiler, Mrs. Mary Schwalbach and Mrs. Leroy Kuhn. Miss Theresa Kreckel is handling the publicity.

Any persons desiring to purchase tickets and play at home may contact any member of the guild. Tickets are 50 cents.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John, which will be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, will be followed by a Christmas Party.

All members are cordially invited and are asked to bring a 25 cent gift for the grab bag.

Members of the refreshment committee are: Mrs. Linda Hecht, Mrs. Alberta Muar, Mrs. Frances Deuenroth, Mrs. Helen Katzenberger, Mrs. Gertrude Bodne and Miss Cecelia Ritz.

The Ladies Auxiliary is just beginning a new year with the new officers. It would be a fine gesture if all members would make an effort to attend this December meeting to greet the officers and to meet old friends.

Austerity Marks Vatican Rites

O God). "Tantum Ergo" and "Laudate Dominum" (Praise Ye the Lord), all in Gregorian chant. The Sistine Chapel Choir, under the direction of Maestro Peroni, sang the motet "Bonum Est" (It Is Good) and the "Sanctus" by Palestrina, and "Lux Aeterna" (Eternal Light), "O Salutaris Hostia" and "Da Pacem" (Give Us Peace in Our Days, O Lord) all by Peroni.

Mass began at 10 o'clock. The Holy Father started his discourse at 10:10 o'clock and spoke for 20 minutes. His Holiness spoke with the utmost eloquence, and was vigorous or moving according to the tenor of the various passages. He frequently raised his hands towards the Crucifix, especially during the final prayers.

Prayer for War Slain

In the Mass the Sovereign Pontiff added to the prayer for peace the prayer "Pro De Profundis" for all those who have died in the war. Then followed the "De Profundis" after which the Blessed Sacrament was exposed and incensed by the Pope. His Holiness then recited the Litany of the Saints, followed by the "Miserere" and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament imparted by His Eminence Federico Cardinal Tedeschini, Archpriest of St. Peter's Basilica.

The services lasted one hour and 50 minutes. As His Holiness walked across the Basilica to return to the Papal apartment he gave his blessing to the silent people kneeling in devout prayer. Twenty Cardinals were present. Others in attendance included two sons of former King Alfonso of Spain and their wives, Prince Chigi, Grand Master of the Order of Malta, the diplomatic corps and members of the Roman nobility. All dressed in black and none wore decorations.

Text of Supreme Pontiff's Eloquent Plea For Peace

but also to accede in His generosity to the pious wishes we express with prayer.

Has not the Incarnate Son of God called us, as His disciples, His friends? (I refer St. John 15:15). And is it not a test of friendship that he who loves wishes to see the desire of the loved one satisfied?

It was for this reason that on the Feast of Christ the King, under the protection of the glorious Queen of the Rosary, We called on all the children of the Church to offer public prayers together with Us today.

We wished that there might be one immense choir of supplicants answering to Our voice—of every clime, of every tongue, dress, manner and rite, fired by one and the same faith, one and the same hope one and the same love—to turn with Us their eyes beyond the stars and send their humble supplication for grace and mercy to the throne of the Most High.

Calls On All Christians

Behold, My Dear Children, this altar this Cross which dominates it, this Bread and this Chalice, this Tomb on which We reverently stand, this cornerstone of the Church known and venerated in the faith of nations! Behold this glorious center of the altars of the world.

This is the unbloody Golgotha of Divine mercy and justice of which the majesty of God is placated and propitiated. Here between the wings of celestial cohorts beneath the gaze of the Prophets, of the Evangelists, of the Apostles and of the Saints is offered a sacrifice of atonement, of the new and eternal law, where Christ offered Himself as the Victim of the Father and renews in this Wonder of Wonders His sacrifice on Calvary of His Body and Blood shed for the remission of sins. "And not for ours only, but for those of the whole world" (First. John 2:2).

Let all those who believe in Him be united then around Us; and united in spirit with Us who beneath this dome that vies with Heaven, offer Divine Sacrifice of appeasement. May His sacred ministers in every part of the world sacrifice and offer to the Eternal Father that same oblation of His Beloved Son, of Christ, Who once only offered Himself in bloody manner on the altar of the Cross, and in the unbloody manner in which His immense and ineffable love offered Himself countless times on our altars.

Prayer for War Victims

Yes O Father Who art in Heaven O God our strength, turn Thy gaze toward Christ Thy son. Behold the crimson marks of His Wounds to which He was brought by His love for us and His obedience to Thee, through which He ever wished to be our Advocate and Peacemaker.

O Jesus our Saviour, speak to Thy Father for us intercede with Him for us for Thy Church for all men who have been won by Thy blood. O Peace-bringing King O Prince of Peace! Thou Who hast the keys of life and death grant the peace of eternal rest to the souls of all faithful who have been swept to their death in this whirlwind of war and have been known and unknown, wept and unwept, and buried beneath the ruins of cities and villages destroyed, or have met their deaths on gory plains, on war-torn hillsides, in gorges and valleys or in the depths of the sea.

May Thy purifying Blood descend on them in their pains, to wash their mantles and render them worthy and bright in Thy blessed sight. Do Thou, O loving Comforter of the afflicted, Who didst weep at the tears of Martha and Mary desolate for their brothers, grant peace and consolation, resignation and health to those poor people who are overcome by the sorrows and tribulations of war's calamities, to exiles, to refugees, to unknown wanderers, to prisoners and to the wounded, who trust in Thee. Console the Afflicted.

Dry abundant tears of wives, mothers, orphans, of whole families, of so many left destitute; heavy tears falling on the bread of sorrow, eaten after long fast in cold hovels; bread divided between children who often have been brought to Thy altars in a little church to pray for father or elder brother, dead perhaps or wounded, or missing.

Console them all with Divine gifts and with those helps and that effective charitable relief which Thou canst suggest to kindly souls who recognize in the afflicted and unfortunate their brothers and love them as Thy image. Give to the combatants, together with heroism in fulfillment of their duty, even to the supreme sacrifice in defense of their native land, that noble sense of humanity by which they will not, no matter in what circumstances, do to others that which they would not have done to themselves or their country (Matthew 7:12).

O Lord, may the charity of Thy Divine Spirit reign and triumph over the world. May the peace of concord and justice among nations be restored. May our prayers be acceptable and welcome to Thy meek and humble in heart. May the numbers and devotion of Holy Sacrifices in which Thy Church, Thy Spouse on bended knee, offers Thee, Priest and Victim eternally, to Thy Divine Father, render Thee propitious toward us. Thou hast words which penetrate and overcome hearts, which enlighten intellects, which assuage anger and extinguish hates and revenge. Speak that word which will still the storm, which will heal the sick, which is light to the blind and hearing to the deaf and life to the dead.

Plea for Peace of Justice

Peace among men, which Thou desirest, is dead. Bring it back to life, O Divine Conqueror of death. Through Thee, at last may the land and sea be calmed. May whirlwinds that in the light of day or in the dark of night scatter terror, fire, destruction and slaughter on humble folk, cease. May justice and charity on one side and on the other be in perfect balance, so that all injustice be repaired, and the reign of right restored, all discord and rancor be banished from men's minds. And may there arise, and gather strength in contemplation of a new and harmonious prosperity true and well-ordered peace that will permanently unite as brothers, through the ages, in harmonious search of high good, all peoples of the human race in Thy sight. Amen.

Music In Worship Discussed

an Chant. All other editions are now outlawed and out of print. However, there are some of these old editions still in circulation but they should not be used.

Sixth, we find the regulation forbidding the use of certain musical instruments in the church. The organ alone is allowed although certain other musical instruments may be played with the consent of the Ordinary.

Seventh, the personnel of the choir is made clear. In the eyes of the Church there is no other choir but the one of male singers. This is a choir in the strict liturgical sense.

Certainly choirmasters and organists are not really competent in their respective fields if these important decrees of two great Popes have not been studied or at least carefully read. These instructions are so clear that it makes it unnecessary to look for an interpretation from individuals on a subject that the Church has made so understandable. How often do we resort to custom as a legitimate excuse for not following out the mind of the Church and observing her authoritative decisions? If we are observing some custom even of long-standing, we should always investigate to see if such a custom conflicts with Church law and order. If it does, eliminate the custom in the spirit of loyalty and obedience to Holy Mother Church. If this is our course of action, God's message will not be impeded, the atmosphere of our churches will be holy, God will be better honored and the faithful will be edified.

Squires At Rites For Fred W. Hamilton

AUBURN—The funeral Mass for Fred W. Hamilton, popular Auburn youth, who was killed in an auto accident on Nov. 16, was held Nov. 19 at St. Alphonsus Church. Rev. Frederick G. Straub conducted the prayers at the home. The Rev. Walter A. Fischer, assisted by Father Straub as deacon and the Rev. Gerard Amann, subdeacon, said the Mass of Requiem.

A large delegation of the Columbian Squires, formed a guard of honor at the home and at the Church.

Active bearers were: Robert Thompson, Paul Graney, Arthur Stowell, Philip Graney, Jerry McCarthy and Robert Graney. The honorary bearers were: William Hutchings, Fred Salzer, Thomas Clifford, Leo Pinckney, Robert Hoerger, Robert Hahn, Thomas Kunkel and Robert Gil.

Degree is Conferred By Squires Staff

The Columbian Squires Degree was conferred on a large class of candidates by the degree team of Bishop O'Hern Memorial Circle in Columbus Civic Centre, Sunday.

Chief Squire Donald Elkins announces that another Squire Degree will be conferred later in December. The degree team is planning to confer degrees in Albion and Corning soon.

A group of Squires prepared and distributed several baskets of food on Thanksgiving Day to needy families.

Chief Counsellor Walter H. Wentworth is adding several Knights of Columbus to the staff of counselors.

Named Auxiliary

Monsignor J. Francis A. McIntyre, chancellor of the Archdiocese of New York, who has been named by Pope Pius XII, Titular Bishop of Cyrene and Auxiliary Bishop of New York. (N.C.W.C.)

Sacred Heart Parish

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION

The season of Advent brings on Forty Hours Devotion. The Cathedral will hold its observance beginning with High Mass on Sunday morning. The Rev. Thomas K. Rogers, O.S.A., will deliver the sermon.

This service will also be the beginning of the retreat. First four days will be for the men; second four days for the women.

Retreat service will consist of Mass each morning and service each evening with Father Rogers as retreat master.

Sacred Heart Parent-Teacher Association will hold their monthly meeting in the school hall on Mon., Dec. 2, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. David Deegan, program chairman, has arranged for a showing of the movie called "The Middleton Family" which pertains to the world's fair. It promises to be very interesting, and all parents and friends are invited to attend.

Following this, refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Albert Ford, chairman of ways and means, has appointed the following committee to assist:

Chairman, Mrs. F. Corcoran, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Dodge, Mrs. Lawrence Driscoll, Mrs. Nora Dorsey, Mrs. R. Empey, Mrs. G. Embury, Mrs. L. Finewood, Mrs. A. Treatman, Mrs. B. Fink, Mrs. Connor, Mrs. E. Coon, Mrs. L. Cullen, Mrs. J. Clarnan, Mrs. A. Curner, Mrs. Jane Davis, Mrs. W. Dietrich, Mrs. H. Decker.

Sacred Heart P.-T. A. are conducting a series of contract-bridge lessons every Monday afternoon in the school hall. Mrs. Bradford Noyes is giving instructions. The charge is 25 cents. The public is invited to attend.

Auxiliary Party

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. John, will hold its annual Christmas party on Saturday evening, Dec. 14, in the school hall.

Dorothy Carcelli is chairlady of this affair, assisted by Mary Margaret Wall and Mary Catherine Shay, co-chairladies. Aiding in the arrangements of this party are the officers and members of the organization. This group, composed chiefly of girls in high school, has been very active and will undoubtedly have a large representation at the party.

The committee is asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Margaret Burns on Primrose St., Friday, Nov. 29, at 6:30 P. M.

Holy Family Parish

BOYS COUT NEWS

A complimentary report from Doctor Kennedy and Mr. Herbert Criddle marked the Inventory and Roll Call of Troop 212 held on Friday evening, November the eighth. The purpose of the roll call was an inventory of the Troop's resources both material and physical as an asset to the government in the National Emergency. This event and its outcome is in keeping with the Scout Motto—"Be Prepared."

Scout Louis Pickens who had been ill for one year returned to the Troop and was heartily received. Committeemen Herbert Erb, Joseph St. John, and Elmer Walters attended an overnight hike on Saturday and Sunday, November ninth and tenth as part of a requirement to pass a course at the Scouter's Institute. They are taking this training course as part of a five year program to better equip themselves to act as Scouters on the Troop Committee. Together with the commissioned personel of the troop, these men make a total of five Scouters actively serving the Troop, assuring the Holy Family Troop of adequate and trained leadership.

Reports from the recent board of Review held on November fifteenth indicate that the Troop is continuing its progress in developing the individual Scout into an active and health American youth. The grades attained by the average Scout show his interest in Boy Scout Life and the attention given in attaining the various awards.

The Girl Scouts of the parish received Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass on Thanksgiving day. Dressed in their green uniforms and contrasting yellow "kerchiefs," the scouts made an impressive sight as they approached the Communion rail. Prayers of thanksgiving were offered after the Mass.

Attending also at the Thanksgiving Mass were the Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliary in uniform.

Holy Family gridders chalked up their seventh victory in eight starts last Thanksgiving day with a 40-7 over the 12th Warders. Deisinger scored three times to pace the Dutchtowners.

They added their eighth victory on Sunday by taking the strong Packards into camp by a 24-0 score. Deisinger again led the scoring with two touchdowns and passing to Keenan for a third score.

This is the first season for the Dutchtown aggregation and it has been a successful one. Thanks is extended to all who contributed in any way towards helping the team.

AUXILIARY MEETS DEC. 3

Ladies Auxiliary, No. 48 Knights of St. John of Holy Family parish will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3 in the parish hall. It will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

A Christmas party will be held immediately after the meeting. Mrs. Charlotte Hencher is honorary chairman with Mrs. Matilda Schlaffer, general chairman. The Drill team will assist in carrying out the program for the evening.

A twenty-five cent gift will be exchanged among members.
