Knights of Columbus

The second place Pintas on their most rip-roaring, uproarious surge of recent months cut down the lead of the League leading Santas to three games as they took the measure of Jack Kinney and his hapless band of Klutes in three straight games.

Danny (Champ) McNally, Gregory Street Fire fighter, was the magnificent actor in the onslaught with a three game total of 646 which included individual games of 232 and 221. The Santas however, did manage to defeat Frank Scholand and his veteran Pirates in the odd game, while Butch Predmore and his fast coming Guards took Jack Ward's startling freshman into camp in all three games of their series. Gene Austing and his Indians swept the series with Warren Hill's Puritans. Trailing Dan McNally for high single games were Joe Kennedy 227; Gene Austing 218, Bill Woerner 216, Frank Gunn 204 and 200, Joe McMahon 201 and Jimmy Sullivan 201.

William D. Staub, league secretary, announced that Jerry Weinhart was leading the league with an average of 183 followed by Gene Austing with 182, Paul Predmore 178, Dan McNally 178, Jimmy Sullivan 177, Ray Blum 175, Frank Toomey 173, Jack Kinney 170, Frank Gunn 167, Fitzpatrick 167, 165, Jack Ward 164, Dr. O'Neill Bob Hand 167, Charlie Raymond 163, Joe Steimes 163, Steve Nicosia 163, Bob Ward 163, Cy Statt 162.

The standing of the teams as at Dec. 4 showed the Santas leading with 23 wins and 10 losses, Pintas 20 and 12, Guards 19 and 14, Ninas 17 and 16, Pirates 16 and 17, Indians 15 and 18, Puritans 11 and 22, Klutes 10 and 23.
