TRIDUUM GREAT SUCCESS

HORNELL. — Devotion to Our Blessed Mother was made manifest in a public way by the large attendance at the triduum which was held in honor of Our Blessed Mother under her title of the Immaculate Conception. The sermons each evening were preached by the Rev. Cornelius Hogan, Chaplain of St. James' Hospital, Hornell. The triduum began on Thursday evening and was solemnly closed on the Feast Day in the evening with solemn Benediction at which the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, Administrator, was celebrant.

Everyone in the parish was urged to receive Holy Communion on the Feast Day, which was carried out by the large numbers at the communion rail on Sunday morning at the five Masses. The services consisted of Rosary, prayers in honor of the Immaculate Conception, sermon and closed with Benediction. Confessions were heard after the services. The general intention of the Triduum was that world peace would be restored to a war sickened world.

Men of the parish under the auspices of the Holy Name Society received Holy Communion on last Sunday in a large body at the 7:00 o'clock Mass. A letter of invitation to join the society was sent out to every man in the parish during the past week. The already large membership is expected to be increased by it.

The beautiful new crucifix over the main altar is attracting a lot of attention, and has even caught the attention of those who are not Catholics in the community. The people have already become very devoted to it.

The Holy Name Society is planning a smoker and entertainment to be held immediately after the holidays.

The Mothers' Club held a meeting in Federation Hall on Wednesday evening, last week, at which the Seventh Grade of St. Ann's School presented a Christmas entertainment. Partaking in the play were: Joseph Barnett, Frank Wratny, Carmen Di Nardo, Patricia Mahoney, David Mattle, James Dewey, Kathleen Curran, Mary Catherine Harvat, Cecilia Kelleher, Richard Morrisey, John Dugo.

Armeta Mattle, Flora Argentieri, Betty Kelly, Jean Yonick, Catherine Fenten, Lucy Ellen Dagon, John Fiore, Robert Kubiak, Michael Di Nardo, Robert Freeland, John O'Connor, Paul Leahy.

The Sodality is planning a holiday party at which a very large attendance is expected. The Sodality in a special way strove to have every member receive Holy Communion last Sunday in honor of the Immaculate Conception, their patroness.

The Rosary and Altar Society has donated a new set of white vestments which were worn for the first time on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The flowers on the altar for the feast were also their gift.

ST. JOSEPH'S PUPILS WILL ENTERTAIN WAYLAND P.T.A.

Court Geneva Plans Meeting On Jan. 8

GENEVA. — At their regular meeting in the Woman's Building, Court Geneva, Catholic Daughters of America, made plans for the annual Christmas party held Wednesday.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. Francis Marion, Mrs. Albert Klopfer and Miss Catherine Murphy.

The next business meeting of the court will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 8.

During the meeting, Miss Anna Jordan, Grand Regent of the court, reported on the district conference of the organization which was held in Rochester recently.

For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Ithaca Sodality Holds Communion Breakfast

By MARY A. YENGO

ITHACA — The Young Ladies Sodality prepared for the feast of the Immaculate Conception by making a tridium in honor of the Blessed Mother. Sodalists attended Mass and received Holy Communion at the 7:00 o'clock Friday and Saturday mornings and the 9:00 o'clock Mass on Sunday. After Mass, the Sodalists had their annual Communion breakfast in Parish Hall. Guests and speakers included the Rev. Robert Kress, Sodality Director; Rev. William Byrne, Pastor and the Rev. Walter B. Sullivan of the Dominican Order who conducted the Novena services in the Church in preparation for the Feast.

The breakfast was excellently planned and prepared by the Eucharistic Committee under the chairmanship of Miss Jean Eastman. The tables were arranged banquet style headed by the speakers' table, and were attractively arranged.

"The Immaculata", Sodality newspaper, was presented each Sodalist after the breakfast. A madonna print of the Immaculate Conception with an explanation of the great Feast was included in the paper. This paper is issued monthly by the Publicity Committee. Mary A. Yengo, chairman of the Committee and Editor-in-Chief of the Immaculata, boasts an editorial staff of one managing editor, her sister, Lucy Ann Yengo, and eighteen reporters, feature writers, cartoonists and typists.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, the Apostolic Committee, with Miss Jane Gaherty, Chairman, sponsored a Penny Bazaar. It offered a variety of interesting booths and games and numerous prizes were awarded.

The Young Ladies Sodality held their monthly meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 10 in Parish Hall at 8:00 o'clock p. m. Plans were made for a Christmas Party and filling Christmas stockings for needy children.

DeSales Sodality Receives

GENEVA—Eleventh annual reception of members into the Senior Sodality of De Sales High School took place in St. Stephen's Church, Dec. 8, with Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, director, presiding.

With William Campbell, Harold VanOpdorp and Eugene Donahue as crossbearers and acolytes respectively, the procession moved to reserved seats to enter immediately upon the ceremony.

The impressive ceremonial of the Sodality composed by Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., National Sodality director, was carried out in minute detail by the presiding officers.

Led by Francis Lahr, Senior prefect, and Stephen Buckley, vice-prefect, the candidates stood at the altar rail to answer the questions put by the Prefect to make the solemn act of consecration of their lives to Mary, Queen of the Sodality. One by one, the Sodalists knelt before the altar of the Blessed Virgin to receive from Father Nolan the distinctive mark of a Sodalist, namely, the Sodality medal.

Enrollment in the Five Scapulars immediately preceded the sermon.

Rev. Elmer McNamara, D.D., of St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, delivered an inspiring address and urged each new Sodalist to "keep close to Christ with Mary." Tracing in detail the life of Mary, he showed an influence she is upon youth.

Following is the list of candidates received into the Sodality: Robert Connell, Michael O'Malley, Jean Walsh, Josephine Venuti, James McHale, Florence Stramandinoli, Mary Snowerwy, Joan Roberts, Frank McGuire, Eileen O'Malley, John McDonough, Arlene O'Malley, Francis McCarthy, Beryl Murray, Francis Foley, Marie McDermott, Jean Lorge, Caroline Licht, John Dundon, Marina LaNana, Robert Donahue, Margaret Handlon, Catherine Anne Gringeri, Kathleen Gillespie, Anthony Cocola, Helen Ferris, Mary De Meo, Bernice Blanch and Donald Castor.

The ceremony closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Minstrel Show Set By Geneva Club

By KATHRYN MORAN

GENEVA — Intensive rehearsals are now being held for the fifth annual St. Stephen's Club minstrel show to be held at Geneva High School Auditorium on Thursday, Dec. 12.

Football Squad Is Praised At Communion Breakfast

AUBURN—High praise was given to members of the football squad of Holy Family High School at a testimonial Communion Breakfast held Sunday following the 8 o'clock Mass in Holy Family parish.

The affair was sponsored by the Holy Name Society of the parish.

The principal speaker was Joseph Boch, head coach at Niagara University. Mr. Boch congratulated the boys for their fine showing on the football field this year, having won five games, lost one and tied one. Mr. Boch former football player under Knute Rockne, member of the famous "four-horse men" team, told many interesting experiences he had while a member of the team. He called to the attention of his audience the fact that two of this years outstanding football teams were coached by Notre Dame men, Crowley at Fordham, Leahy at Boston College.

Rev. John I. Healy, director of athletics at Holy Family High, also spoke. He commended the boys for their fine co-operation on the gridiron. He expressed his thanks on behalf of the faculty and student body of the school to Ray Flynn for the splendid coaching job he has performed this year. On behalf of the members of the team he presented to Mr. Flynn a gift token of the esteem in which they held him.

Raymond S. Cuddy, local attorney was toastmaster for the occasion. John F. Brennan was general chairman of the affair. Andrew F. McLane, president of the Holy Name Society, called the attention of the members to the meeting to be held in the Holy Name Rooms Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Members of the Junior League under the direction of Charley Haweika and Edward Coonan served the breakfast and satisfaction was expressed by all at the fine meal they put on. During the breakfast Mrs. George Frank was at the piano and played appropriate music.

But our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Pupils of Clyde School Honored For Outstanding Mission Work

Each year on the Feast of St. Francis Xavier, His Excellency Bishop Kearney has made the practice of saying the Mass for the Feast for children of whatever school in proportion to its size in the diocese has manifested the most notable interest in the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the Holy Child Association.

The Mass this year was offered on the Feast Day at St. John's Church, Clyde.

The entire school and many of the parents of the children assembled in St. John's Church and the Bishop assisted by the Rev. John S. Randall, Diocesan director of Society for the Propagation of the Faith, offered the Mass at 9 o'clock.

Following the Mass the Bishop complimented the pastor the Rev. Joseph V. Curtin and the Sisters of Mercy because of the outstanding record of their little school during the year.

His Excellency points out that he felt St. Francis Xavier who did so much for the spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ would be pleased to feel that his Feast was celebrated each year in this special way.

The Bishop mentioned the fact that his thanks was due to the children not only on his own behalf but on behalf of mission priests and sisters whose work was made so much lighter because of the faith and charity of St. John's school.

The children were urged by the Bishop to keep up their work for the missions especially at the present time when the war situation in Europe has placed the entire burden of mission support on the Church in the United States.

Concluding, the Bishop said that he felt that St. Francis Xavier who spent so much of his own time in making children happy would be especially happy if he felt that his Feast Day was given as a holiday for work so dear to his heart. Hence, the Bishop in concluding declared the Feast a school holiday and thus devotion to St. Francis Xavier received a worthy impetus in the parish of St. John.

Immaculate Parish Plans Activities

ITHACA—A garden party under the co-chairmanship of the Misses Alice Ferrell and Gladys Driscoll will take place in Parish Hall Friday evening, Dec. 13, to help raise the necessary funds needed for improvements in the Immaculate Conception Church and in Parish Hall.

Sunday Dec. 15 is communion Sunday for all men in the parish.

Novena devotions in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal will be held Tuesday evening in the Immaculate Conception Church at 7:30.

Life of Blessed Mary Held Up As Example

ITHACA—In observance of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception a solemn high mass was celebrated at 11 a. m. Sunday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

The Rev. Walter Sullivan of New York City a member of the Dominican Order of Preachers, who had been conducting novena services in the Ithaca Church, preached the sermon.

Father Sullivan said in part:

"During our novena in honor of the Immaculate Conception we have been making meditations on the life of our Blessed Mother. We have considered her words as they are recorded in Sacred Scripture with the idea in mind that we should take the lessons contained therein and make a personal application of them. Through such meditations we can not help but become faithful imitators and true children of the Blessed Virgin. We will sanctify ourselves and self-sanctification is the principle reason for this novena. By sanctifying ourselves and making ourselves members of the aristocracy of the spiritual life we fulfill another serious obligation placed upon all Catholics, namely, to edify our fellowmen.

"Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, knowing that we are influenced more by example than by precept—that we usually live as we see others around us live—spent 33 years amongst us for the express purpose of setting us an example, and He sends a goodly number of saints in every age to tread faithfully in His footsteps, to be our guides and models. Foremost among all these models and examples stands the mother of Christ and our mother. So, if we imitate her life and acquire her virtues we will like Mary, go about influencing the world for good and leading mankind to Christ.

"Maybe our lives measured by the standards of sheer achievement will show that we accomplish practically nothing, but such also was the life of Mary. Yet we know that her life's work was primarily the work of inspiration and influence and even though now Mary has joined her son and Saviour in Heaven she still continues to carry on her mission.

"Next to Christ's own, her's is the greatest moral pressure ever brought to bear on men and women. Her faith was the noblest standard of human acceptance. Her prayer 'Be it done to me according to thy word' is a model for all prayer."

CDA Court Seeks Gifts For Poor

ITHACA—An appeal for clothing, food toys and money for the needy families of the city and vicinity was made by Court Santa Maria 340 Catholic Daughters of America.

An effort in the organization stated there is a long list of deserving needy whom it wishes to bring joy and happiness to on Christmas morning.

Those having contributions are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Maurice Lantzy, 624 S. Albany St., telephone 6393.

Hold Card Party For Christmas Fund

ITHACA — Court Santa Maria 340, Catholic Daughters of America, sponsored a card party at 8 P. M. Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Knights of Columbus Home, for the benefit of the Christmas Welfare Fund.

Pinochle, bridge and euchre were played and refreshments were served. Mrs. Maurice Lantzy was chairman of the committee.

Flee from sins as from the face of a serpent; for if thou comest near them they will take hold of thee.
