CYO High School Loop Opens Court Frays

St. Joseph, Holy Apostles and Holy Cross, the three newly-organized teams of the C. Y. O. High School Basketball League, are anxiously awaiting the opening games which are taking place this week.

New teams, new players, new managers and new spectators are adding to the interest of the league. They are all being received by the veteran teams of last year; namely, Holy Rosary, Holy Family, St. Patrick, Mount Carmel and St. Andrew, with sportsmanlike friendliness.

Holy Rosary, champs of the 1940 C. Y. O. High School Basketball League, can only boast of two veterans of last year. The remaining squad consists of the younger members of the study clubs, mostly sophs in high school. This year the champs are building their team around Bill Mahar and Rene Parthaens, the outstanding players of last year.

Holy Apostles, newcomers in the league, show good promise for a group of boys who have never played together before. The starting five are big, fast and quick in grasping their assignment. No opponent can consider its game with Holy Apostles a breather. With a little practice working together, they should mold into a worthy opponent for any team.

Holy Cross, also newcomers to the league, will be molded around Harry Purchase and Ray Kohler, both veterans of the Columbus Youth Association High School Basketball League. Holy Cross not only has the new team of anxious boys, but they will sport a new basket-ball back board in their new court.

St. Joseph, also a new team this year, are sporting a young team, with little experience. St. Joseph's are doing a splendid work in organizing a club for the high school boys of the Parish and the limited number of boys from St. Joseph's Commercial. Warren Boehmer, Clarence Pecoraro, Joseph Hanna, Joseph Welder, Angelo Constanza, Frederick Barkis, Ray Foos, Ludovico Mevitore, James Flaherty, William McCamman and Arthur Fischer, is the line-up from which the team players will be picked.

The St. Joseph's games will be played on the C. Y. M. A. court on Monday nights.

St. Patrick's, St. Andrew's, Mt. Carmel and Holy Family all have new material to pick from; young, ambitious players, who will be molded into a smooth-working machine for their respective teams.

Two Games Set For Aquinas

Aquinas Institute's promising court five will travel to Sodus, Friday night, to get a real test when they meet the highly-touted Sodus High quint. The Aquinas team will return to its home court on Monday night to meet Irondequoit High, member of the Monroe County League.

The Sodus game will be the second on the Aquinas schedule. The Irish quint was impressive in its defeat of DeSales High of Geneva, but Coach Mort Leary warns his charges that the Sodus hoopmen are all veterans.

Aquinas will start Neil Culhane at center, Jim Kearney at the guard positions and Pete Checcia and Jim Schaefer at forwards.

Sodus will have Dwight Warrent and Bob Vandevelde at forwards, James Garlock at center and George Arney and Phil Vandevelde as guards.

A large delegation of Aquinas students and alumni is expected to accompany the team. A game between reserve teams of the respective schools will begin at 7:30 P. M. Dudley DeGroot will officiate.

Holy Family Five Drops Opener

AUBURN.—A scrappy Holy Family High quint dropped its opening game to the smooth-working and undefeated Assumption Academy courtsters of Syracuse by a score of 40 to 38, Friday night last, on the Syracuse court. It was the fourth consecutive victory for the Syracusians but they were pressed to the limit by the Auburn five to win.

Assumption's DiMartino and Weber sank two clean set shots to take the lead. The Purple Eagles fought back and went into an 11-0 lead at the end of the initial period. Midway in the second stanza, Coach Jack Dempsey's proteges went out in front by a 16-to-9 count.

Letting loose, the Assumption team increased their margin to 10 points soon after the third quarter. Paced by Frank Quinn and Jack Walsh, Holy Family again came back in the running cutting the winners' advantage down to five points as the final period began.

Captain Weber of Assumption sunk a long shot but Joe Curtin tossed in a pair of double-deckers and the Eagles trailed by a single basket. A pair of successful fouls by Hack and a bucket by Di Martino clinched the win for the Syracuse cagers.

Catholic Schools Grow In Holland

LISBON, Portugal.—Figures received here, compiled prior to the occupation of The Netherlands by Nazi Germany, reveal remarkable growth of Catholic schools in the period from 1920 to 1938.

The number of pupils in the free (Catholic) schools increased from 244,594 to 404,433, while those in the official schools decreased from 500,788 to 412,321.

They Talked Baseball

At the 39th annual convention of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, recently held in Atlanta, Rev. Harold J. Martin (right), president of the American-Canadian Baseball League, talks things over with Wally Schang, of the Three-Rivers, Quebec, Club. Father Martin, a former baseball player, is pastor of St. Raphael's Church, Hewelton, N. Y. His club headquarters are in Ogdensburg. (N.C.W.C.)

SOD ALTALK

By MARGARET LARKIN

Father Fox dropped in. Rita Doolin dropped in. The officers of the Union Council each dropped in. all to remind me to be very sure and wish, through the medium of SODALTALK, to all the sodalists in the diocese, the very merriest Christmas. It is their hope that the Infant Babe of Bethlehem will reign in your hearts and shower you with many and rich blessings. We somehow feel that the Child of Bethlehem will bless your hearts with peace and happiness for He knows that you have worked hard and zealously for His Blessed Mother. And may we ask you to pray on Christmas morning that the song which the Angels sang on the first Christmas eve may soon be sung over all the countries of the world, "Peace on earth to men of good will".

* * *

Friday the Thirteenth held no fears for St. Charles Borromeo sodalists. They held a very successful dance, according to Rosemary Moriarty, general chairman. The melodius strains of Johnny Schwab's orchestra provided merriment for the young Terpsichores. Marion Kraft, Mary Gilligan and Joanne Sweeney assisted Rosemary with the many responsibilities.

* * *

The recently organized Sodality of St. Salome's parish held a most successful combination social and mission party. Last week in addition to the exchange of gifts, they also brought articles of food and clothing for the poor. Shouldering the responsibilities of the Sodality for the coming year are the following new officers: Mary Foos, President; Helen Keeners, Secretary; Doris Roth, Treasurer; Josephine Davenport, Mission Committee; Cecilia Jaspert, Our Lady and Eucharistic Committee; and Catherine McGrath, Social and Publicity Committee. The Union extends heartiest congratulations to these new officers. Long may you reign! (or is that against the "no more than two year policy" recommended by Sodality officials)

* * *

That ever-delightful mail from Coldwater is in again! How I love to open Angelique Statt's letters for they are always chuck full of the most interesting things that the sodalists from Holy Ghost Church are doing.

Evelyn Jacobs told us that she has lined up her co-workers on the Visitation Committee: Isabelle and Lorraine Brennan, Rita Schug, Kathryn and Helen Stein. It seems that they're going into Santa's kitchen to concoct some "specially lovely Christmas cake, cookies and candy and to combine with these goodies fruit and gifts, to be presented in a basket to each parishioner ill at Christmas and from Evelyn's description, the sodalists almost wanted to qualify as "house bound" for at least that one day that they have selected to distribute those messages of Sodalistic Christmas cheer.

December 19th is the night when the sodalists will a-caroling go. About thirty strong will pile into a truck and over the miles of countryside ride to the houses of the ill of the parish and to the older folk who can't get to church as often as they'd like. It's a gay group, to be sure. And then at the finale they wind up at a surprise party at somebody's house where the Social Life Committee's Santa somehow find them to give gifts and to have lunch with them. Rita Statt, hostess, wouldn't give much information about the party except to say that it will be a grand finish to a grand work. Believe you me, that's what I call the real Christmas spirit—doing something for others.

If anybody is looking for the perfect way to run a Sodality, I'd suggest that you borrow Holy Ghost Sodality's Minute book. Probably from one month's report, you'd find enough suggested activities to work on for a year.

P. S. Newark: Don't give up in despair. But rather than have the Editor take his big long scissors and snips off the end of this Column I'm forced to withhold your report until next week. Read all about yourselves in the next issue!

Nazareth Hall Boys Score In Christmas Play

Excellence of dramatic technique marked the presentation at Nazareth Hall on Monday evening of the play "The Boy Who Found the King." Each member of the cast was entirely in character throughout the run of the play and captivated the audience with the pure diction with which the youthful players voiced the sentiment of the play.

Lawrence Nacey welcomed the guest with grace and culture.

The Nazareth Choristers sang unusually well.

Knights of Columbus

The Santas increased their lead in the K of C loop last Wednesday (Dec 11) on Joe Quinn's Columbus Alleys to 5 full games over the runner-up Guards and Pintas by virtue of a clean sweep of their series with Warren Hill and his Puritans.

The Puritans were, incidentally, sparked by Grand Knight Joe Flynn who made his appearance in league competition for the first time in over a year. In the meantime the Guards captured a 2-to-1 decision over the Kutes. Dan Fitzgerald, former Klute, appeared in the Kinney lineup for the first time this year. Tom McCarthy and his Pintas suffered a severe setback at the hands of Jack Ward and his surprising Ninas while the Pirates sparked by Doc O'Neill overwhelmed Gene Austing and his Indians, 3 to 0.

Jimmy Sullivan had had three game total with 639, followed by Gene Austing with 603, Ray Blum 599, Dan Fitzgerald 557, Frank Toomey 544, Frank Scholand 539, Frank Gunn 529, Billy Woerner 522, Paul Predmore 522, Jerry Weinhart 511, Cal Lofink 509, Joe Flynn 508, Tom Ward 502, Charlie Geyer 502, Don Lappan 500. High individual honors were garnered by Jimmy Sullivan with 225-222, Gene Austing 213-209, Ray Blum 231-211, Jack Kinney 208, Dan Fitzgerald 203, Jerry Weinhart 203 and Cal Lofink 200.

The standing of the Clubs as of Wednesday, Dec 11, was as follows: Santas 28-10, Guards 21-15, Pintas 21-15, Pirates 19-17, Ninas 19-17, Indians 15-21, Puritans 11-25, Klutes 11-25.

TWO RULES—ONE GOLDEN THE OTHER SILVER

You know the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would that others should do unto you." Here is a rule which is part of the Golden Rule, but which we will put by itself, because it is of value, and call it the Silver Rule: "Think and say all you can of the good qualities of others; forget and be silent about their bad qualities."
