Defense Program Spurs U. S. Church In 1940

The National Council of Catholic Bishops has issued a statement on "The Church and the Defense Program" which stresses the need of education of the economic life into a life of prayer and public individual and social. This statement is the result of a commendation of the National Council of Catholic Bishops which received the widest possible dissemination. It also received the acclaim of Cardinal Piazzi, of high Government officials, and numerous individuals in many fields of activity. The statement is a secular labor and non-Catholic religious publication. It was quoted on the floor of Congress and was ordered printed as a Senate document on the resolution of Senator Robert M. La Follette Jr. of Wisconsin.

According To The Doctor

Very active exercise tends to hinder the work of the stomach but facilitates that of the intestines. For a half hour after a full meal and before going to bed, the patient should take a walk in the open air. This will aid digestion. The arrangement of the meals must take into account the other habits of the individual. For example, if three meals are eaten in twenty-four hours, the last ought to be the lightest, but as a rule, some can hardly find time in the middle of the day for a hearty meal.

BISHOPS MARKED

Transfers among the hierarchy included the naming of Archbishop Samuel A. Strick of Milwaukee to Chicago. Archbishop Michael J. Curley of Baltimore became Archbishop of Washington. Bishop Moses E. Riley of Trenton, named Archbishop of Milwaukee. Archbishop Arthur J. Drosowsky of San Antonio was Bishop of St. Augustine. Bishop of St. Louis was named Bishop of St. Louis. Bishop of St. Louis was named Bishop of St. Louis. Bishop of St. Louis was named Bishop of St. Louis.

Nazi Bombs Bring Death To Catholic Institutions

The bishop of Liverpool the Most Rev. Richard Downey spoke to a group of men and women in the debut of a Liverpool church he was visiting. "It is all right, your Excellency. We'll build it again." Archbishop Downey told them. In view of the ferocity of the attack you have been in a very special way under the protection of God and the Blessed Virgin. After having been missed for two days the Rev. John (Cyril) Gorman pastor of the church at Lowestoft, Suffolk, was found dead at the foot of the steps leading to the house. He is thought to have stumbled over a wall during the attack. During the attack which is used only at week-ends has been overlooked. Father Gorman was 71.
