PARISH NEWS

St. Monica's Parish SODALITY BAZAAR

By MARY CAMPBELL
Plans are well underway for the Sodalities Bazaar, sponsored jointly by the Senior and Junior groups of the Young Ladies Sodality and which is scheduled for Monday evening, Jan. 27.

LEIGNON OF MARY
With the beginning of the mid-winter semester the Legion of Mary of St. Monica's Parish has undertaken the task of making a survey of the families of children attending high school in an endeavor to receive their views on the present instruction class consisting each Wednesday evening at 7:30 P. M. in the Hall.

St. Joseph's Parish NEW NOVENA, JAN. 29

A public novena in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help will begin at St. Joseph's Church, Franklin St. on Wednesday, Jan. 29. This devotion is in preparation for the Feast of the Annunciation on March 25 and will be conducted by the Eucharistic Fathers in charge of St. Joseph's Church.

LADIES AUXILIARY ELECTS

At the December meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Church the following officers and Board of Directors were unanimously nominated and elected for the year 1941.

Cinema Comments

"Mothers" The story covers all the same familiar ground—and it's getting pretty tiresome by now. You can expect, however, to see them all again, excepting for the page who has served notice that she's through with the movie.

Other Pictures
The title, "Dreaming Out Loud" (A-1) is a natural for a dirty crack about the picture so named, but it's sparsely you that it's the movie about of Lum and Abner and, by cracky, Lum and Abner hog every minute of it, even though people like Frances Langford, Frank Craven and Rochester's Robert Wilcox are also cast.

Aler-Comment
Intentionally, just for the records, I'd like to announce that I have finally seen "Night Train" (A-2), the picture that has received such unanimous praise from all the New York critics and from the CATHOLIC COURIER'S Mary Cahfield. I saw it at a neighborhood theater Saturday matinee—which is not the ideal place to see any picture. If you've never been to a neighborhood Saturday matinee, you have an experience coming that you will never forget.

Society for Propagation of the Faith

True Democracy

In a recent issue of Fortune Magazine we came upon the rather surprising statement: "Democracy is a spirit, not a form of government." The basic teachings of Christianity are in its bloodstream. The central doctrine of its political system—the INVOLUNTARILY OF THE INDIVIDUAL—is a direct outgrowth of the Christian insistence upon the immortality of the soul.

Propagation of the Faith Calendars Available
A surplus supply of Propagation of the Faith Calendars are available for distribution, according to the Rev. John S. Randall, Director.

Missioners of Orient Safe and Sound
Despite war, and rumors of more war, on the other side of the Pacific, we are happy to say that all missioners are not only safe and sound but many of them are accomplishing far more good than ever in the past, even though working under unusually difficult circumstances.

mas seals which amounted to $250,000 and they want to ransom the Indian babies. One baby is for the South and in to be named Mary Agnes Walsh, the second baby is from the little town of the First Grade and they want the name Margaret Frances for their little girl.

foreign mission society established by the bishops of America and popularly known as Maryknoll in the territory entrusted to their care. These are the human beings. At present they have only one priest for every 500 towns and villages.

Still Going Strong!

"After thirty-seven consecutive years passed around this part of it" writes the Rev. Bellarmine Lafontaine, S. J. "I still find Alaska an interesting country. No one who has passed a few years in Alaska wants to stay or to come back to it. The reason, perhaps, is the perfect freedom that everybody enjoys here.

when we build chapels in prisons, when men have already been crucified by the law of that which in the beginning would have saved them? Shall we rightly spend millions in defense against enemies landing on our shores and ignore the break-up of the family through divorce and the wreckage of industrial peace through immoral selfishness and avarice? Shall we write on our coins, "In God we trust, and spend them without ever thinking of God, or become so useful for coins that we trust more in them than in God? Shall we rightly open our law-making congresses by invoking the blessing of God and then be indifferent to the useful for coins that we trust more in them than in God? Shall we pull out our educational hair because a child is never taught the sex life of a frog, but is completely ignorant of the child's never taught that sex is in the domain of ethics?

Immaculate Parish YOUTH PARTIES

By MARY WYNN
The series of Friday evening dances sponsored by the Immaculate Conception Youth Association have been most successful. Among the orchestra to play in the near future will be the Genesee All Stars, Johnny Albert and the Rhythm Rammers. The orchestra named will play for a group of dances after Lent as well as the two weeks immediately preceding Lent.

Women interested in Red Cross work have completed a number of articles to be used for winter wear for soldiers and others who are needy. The group plans a Friday afternoon in the basement of the school, Mrs. Alice Redmond as instructor and leader. Women interested in aiding are invited to attend any Friday afternoon.

In his personal representative, it was thought that there was a chance that the "Vatikan" and the Pope might be able to bring about an end to the continuing armaments race in motion. The machinery necessary for peace is not only announced, it has been shown by its actions that it has intention to observe international moral or ethical standards. It has stated that it intends to abide by the rule of force, and it seeks world domination.

Priest Resigns From Interfaith Group

HARTFORD Conn.—The Rev. Andrew J. Kelly, pastor of St. Anthony's Church here, has resigned from the local Interfaith League, a group of religious leaders who are working for the birth control issue.
