

Catholic Pupils Join In 'Bill Of Rights Week'

Fr. Joseph Gefell Resigns As Pastor Of Holy Family Parish

Appointed Chaplain of Nazareth Motherhouse At Pittsford

The Rev. Joseph H. Gefell, D.D., Pastor of Holy Family Church in Rochester since 1924, has requested His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, to relieve him of his pastoral duties.

REV. JOSEPH H. GEFELL, D.D.

Bishop Lucey Archbishop of San Antonio

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—His Excellency, the Most Rev. John J. Lucey, Bishop of San Antonio, has been named to the office of Archbishop of San Antonio.

Family 'Keys' Defense Plans Home Life Must Be Maintained

MANCHESTER, N. H.—(AP)—The United States pending itself for defense must preserve and strengthen the American home at all costs.

'Bill of Rights Week' throughout the State will get the cooperation of Catholic Schools in this diocese. The Rev. John M. Duffy, superintendent (right) and the Rev. Charles J. Mahoney, assistant superintendent, are shown going over the plans.

Study Plan Designed To Teach Children True Americanism

Program Outlined For All Schools In Diocese, Grades 7 to 12

Special discussion and study of the fundamental rights and duties of the citizen will form part of the program in all Catholic elementary and high schools throughout the Diocese of Rochester during the week of February 17.

Bishop's Letter To Sound 'Catholic Press Month' Call

Says War May Bring Men Closer To God

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Differentiating between just and unjust wars is the theme of a letter from the Bishop of Rochester, N. Y., to the heads of the Catholic Press Month.

Bishop To Officiate At Throat Blessings

On the Feast of St. Blasius, Monday, Feb. 3, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney will officiate at the ceremony of the Blessing of Throats at St. Mary's Hospital, St. Mary's and St. Patrick's Homes and Iola Sanitarium.

Rallies Set On Discussion Club Leaflet

With speakers engaged and demonstrations arranged, rallies to promote Religious Discussion Clubs in the Diocese for the Lenten period will be held in Rochester, Corning and Danville, next week.

Priests' Committee Named To Spur Students Crusade

An intensified observance of Catholic Press Month in the Rochester Diocese will be launched with the reading of Bishop Kearney's Catholic Press Month letter in all churches of the diocese Sunday.

Organization Of Nuns Not Sought

PITTSBURGH.—The labor unions recently re-elected by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court from making demands upon local hospitals in the name of their employees, had no intention of trying to organize nurses and members of religious orders, it was asserted by the Association of Catholic Trade Unionists here.

Mexicans Ask Revision Of Education Standards

MEXICO CITY.—The well-organized parents' association of Mexico, headed by the Rev. Fr. Juan de la Cruz, has filed a memorial with the Senate asking that the Mexican people be given full consideration in any amendments to Article 3 of the Constitution.

216 Natives Mourn

Abolition. Que—Two hundred and sixteen descendants mourn the death of a woman whose death occurred in religious thought so that they may be able to live in peace and harmony.

Daily Worker' Suppressed By Officials In London

LONDON.—The Daily Worker, out by order of Herbert Morrison, Home Secretary, it was stated by a Home Office spokesman that the action does not mean a change in government policy permitting freedom of newspapers to criticize the government, but is intended only to suppress subversive propaganda.

FDR Calls for Observance Of Brotherhood Week

WASHINGTON.—President Roosevelt today issued a call to Americans of all faiths to observe Brotherhood Week during the week of Washington's Birthday.

Michael Doyle Heads Electoral College

WASHINGTON.—Establishing a permanent organization during this year to elect the President of the United States is the goal of the Electoral College headed by Michael Doyle.

Vatican Congregation To Have New Quarters

VATICAN CITY.—The Sacred Congregation for the Oriental Churches will soon move into its new quarters in the reconstructed Palazzo of the Convertendi.

Bishop Wagner To Be Installed March 20

CHICAGO.—Bishop-elect Francis J. Wagner will be installed as ordinary of the Diocese of Chicago on March 20.

Women's League In France Feels Needy

LIMOGES.—At a meeting of the Women's Catholic Action League of the Loire an interesting report was made on the relief of refugees and a resolution was passed proposing the formation of a League of Women's Catholic Action.

Ticket Sale Opens For Dinner At St. Francis Center

Tickets for the dedication dinner of the new St. Francis of Assisi Children's Recreation Center scheduled Sunday, Mar. 3, are now on sale.