

YOUTH-FEATURES

Boys Get Ad Altare Dei Award Scout Sunday

Special Rite Listed At Pro-Cathedral

At a special Mass at St. Mary's at 10 A.M. in the Pro-Cathedral Saturday, Lenten Masses, 10 to 12, Scouts of Rochester will present Nazareth Boy Scouts Troop 8 Services will include a prayer for the Ad Altare Dei Award presentation, Benediction and Blessing of Flags. Rev. Albert Sammarita, Troop Chairman of St. Francis Xavier Boy Scout Troop 1, Rochester, flag unit captain will conduct the service.

It would be the first time for the Ad Altare Dei Award to be presented in the Rochester Diocese. A group of boys from the Troop St. Francis Xavier at 11 A.M. Friday, March 1, have qualified for the Award and will receive the award.

A special St. Scouting Committee has been formed to coordinate arrangements for the service. Listed in the group are Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, Diocesan Chaplain; George McAvoi, Diocesan Chaplain; Secretary of Diocesan representative of various Societies of Rochester; Rev. Alphonse J. Myers, Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus; Fred Headford, Mayor's Secretary of the Boy Scouts; Troop Chairman W. William McNally, Troop Committee Chairman of Sacred Heart Troop; William Doolan, Scoutmaster of St. Andrews Boy Scouts; and George Manning, Scoutmaster of St. Francis Xavier Church. This group will meet in the Columbus Civic Centre Sunday, Feb. 28, at 6 o'clock to discuss the final plans.

Pastors, Chaplains, Scout leaders and civic officials have been invited to attend the service.

Students of Marquette University's Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps who have donned their uniforms for the first time. Of the 10 Naval ROTC units in the United States, Marquette is the only one at a Catholic college. Captain Frank H. Kelly (left) the commanding officer is pictured with his officers of the unit (left to right), Sydney Brook, Leo Massajou, Daniel Manning and Joseph Jauzit. (NCW C)

SCOUTING FOR CATHOLICS

Contributed by
BERNARD MEYER
and
FRED HEFFER

Troops 10 and 60 of Goshen, New York, have recently organized for the first time since 1936. Members of both troops are being given the responsibilities of running their respective units. The two groups are to be known as the St. Thomas Tamarack.

Under Supervisor Thomas, plans are underway for a Father and Son Banquet to be held during Saint Week. Scout Councilman Scrappy for Feb. 1, 1941, and funds for the Red Cross. At the present time the scouts are holding cancelled stamps for their foreign mission.

Parents, friends and Scouts of Troop 59 witnessed the presentation of the charter to the newly formed Cub Pack 59 of St. Alrews on the occasion of its First Pack Meeting, held last Monday evening. Cubmaster Arthur Bonfield and Assistant Cubmasters Robert Cameron and Charles Rod were in charge of the program.

Charles Kavvounis, Scoutmaster of Troop 180 of Holy Redeemer Parish was the guest of Troop 52 of Our Lady of Perpetual Help recently at which time he spoke to the group on faith problems. According to Troop leaders, Kavvounis will conduct a special craft meeting in the near future. The Scout O'Rourke Myles were shown at the meeting last Thursday evening.

One of the G. S. Scouts of Blessed Sacrament is in search of a leader to succeed Miss Mary Lavelle. Any young woman interested in taking over the unit is asked to call Mrs. M. L. Lavelle at Marion 510.

Cub Scouts and Sea Scouts are required to attend the 10th Annual School Days during Scout Week, which observed its year from Feb. 1 to 7.

Catholic School Boy Sets Skating Record

CHI ANDY, representing the GAO of St. John Bosco, finished ninth in second year student at St. George High School, Rochester, took the records for Scouting in the 10th Annual Silver Skates Derby sponsored here last Sunday under the wings of the Catholic Daily Tribune.

Jerry Fautenbach, a first-year student at St. George's and son of Donald, captured the championship.

Donald skated for half an hour and one minute, 44 seconds, beating the previous record by 15 seconds set at Lake Placid, N. Y., in 1939.

St. George's High School is conducted by the Christian Brothers.

Scouts Ask Public To Mass On Feast

Troop 90 of Old St. Mary's will invite the general public to celebrate youth in unity with them Saturday, March 1, at 10 A.M. in the church of St. John Bosco. This observance will take place on Saturday, March 1, at 10 A.M. with a High Mass in Old St. Mary's Church, conducted by the Troop.

Catholic Youth should be on guard and do their duty to God in the sight of Almighty God," says James J. Elmhurst, scout master, and St. John Bosco should be petitioned to alleviate those conditions which cause so much dissatisfaction by Miss St. Mary's church organist.

SCOUTS AT ALTAR HOLY CHILDHOOD

Nazareth College in the News

By JOSEPH HACCIETTA

Examinations have concentrated the attention of all the students upon their books. School activity has been reduced to a minimum and only the Mission Aid group had a meeting. This was called last Thursday by Miss Rita Conley.

The meeting was opened with the Crusade hymn sung by the student body. Later in the program Helen Collins and Mary Frances Mundock sang "The Old Mission Bucket" to the tune of "The Old Oak Bucket" and "Good Bless Our Missionaries". Student Soldiers Keep It Up Village. Miss Lombard was a guest in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the paper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student, was read. In Spring Term to train young men and women for business careers begins in February. Miss Lombard accepted the tune of "Yankee Doodle" as a position in the office of a local laundry owner, and is one of the

newspaper describing the founders of the crusade idea by the Rev. Clifford King in 1916, who was a student,