Firm Religion Will Protect Democracy Avers Fr. Cleary

ELMIRA — Strong religion, sound education, and true patriotism are bulwarks which will protect true democracy in the present world crisis. This was the message given by Rev. Donald M. Cleary (Catholic) Chaplain at Cornell University to members of the Sodality of Our Lady of the Patriotic Church at their eighth annual banquet, Jan. 26, at the Mark Twain Hotel.

Getting On In The World

One objection to prayer made very often by thoroughly honest men is this: They say "I cannot pray on account of distractions, and therefore I do not see the good of going on my knees and muttering over a set of form words."

His Cause Advanced Ladies Of Charity Aid In Defense Program

ELMIRA — How well the Ladies of Charity of Elmira are assisting in the defense program was brought to the Rev. William Carrier Auxiliary Pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church in an address to the Central Executive Council comprising the Chairman and Assistant Chairman of each group.

Cinema Comments

"Parrot" — A mystery, as called in which the killer turns out to be the play actor who thought it was William Loughgan and Maria Vrison team in the leads and it good to see suave handsome Paul Cavanaugh again.

The Magnificent Flora

The thrills of Ladies in Retirement are no more exciting than the thrill of meeting the very great actress who does so much toward making Ladies in Retirement what it is. If you have been Flora Robson as the sinister, unsmiling Ellen Creed, or in any of her screen roles — the lonely proud Queen Elizabeth the dramatic and heroic Mrs. Arden, Alone the narrator of "Wuthering Heights" or any number of others you expect to see a tall, slim, somewhat frightening woman.

Open Kindergarten

New Orleans — A nursery school and kindergarten will be opened by the Ursuline Nuns next month on the grounds of Ursuline College and Ursuline Academy. It will be a project of the college's Department of Education.

Mercy Brother Marks Golden Jubilee

Friends and relatives of Rochester were present at the golden jubilee celebration in Buffalo of Rev. Brother Eusebius of Mercy in January. He was the first superior of the Brothers of Mercy in Buffalo.
