The CATHOLIC COURIER has the most enthusiastic approval. A diocesan newspaper has become an essential part of the program of Catholic action in every diocese.

The Union Of Hearts

From all the nations of Europe, Africa, and Asia, have come the men and women who made America. There was a pronounced variety among them in religion, in racial tendencies, in inherited and acquired traits.

How surprising a contrast between those early Americans and the modern apostles of hate, who have dared to turn their baleful influence even on the descendants of those whose gospel was love!

The interfaith Goodwill Committee, representing all lovers of America, all adherents of the American doctrine of liberty and justice for all, all believers in the principle of equality among men, is sponsoring this great gathering.

Its purpose is to furnish a ready antidote for the poisonous infiltration of un-American propaganda, to fortify our youth and our groupings against the virus of race prejudice, religious bigotry, hatred of those about us.

Only through a union of hearts was the founding of our country accomplished, only through a union of hearts shall it be perpetuated.

On With The Crusade! All through the past week our Crusaders have with holy zeal been pressing on toward the goal.

By a sensible, well-balanced Christian, cares and riches and pleasures need not be thrust away. They can be made occasions of merit.

Cares and Riches and Pleasures There is a wealth of meaning tied up in the three words given here.

On With The Crusade! All through the past week our Crusaders have with holy zeal been pressing on toward the goal.

done, accomplishment still far short of ambition! The successful Crusader fights on to the very end.

The COURIER offers its splendid equipment, departments, news services, special columns, news-pictures, for all buries in the diocese.

Rev. Philip Golding

Anew the Angel of Death has visited the diocese to call home one of its worthy priests. This time the call has come to a veteran in the Lord's service, one who has spent more than forty years in ministering to the children of the Church.

His ministry began in the episcopal city and soon extended itself into the southern parishes of the diocese, where he was Assistant Pastor of St. Ann's Church in Hornell, and later Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Bath.

Spirit Of St. Cloud

By REV. DANIEL A. LORD, S. J.

St. Cloud, Minn. is a city of 100,000 people, and is one of the most rapidly growing cities in the United States. It is a city of industry, of commerce, and of culture.

'Lose Your Faith': But Can You?

By REV. JAMES M. GILLIS, C.S.P., Editor, The Catholic World

I have often wondered what goes on in the mind of a man like Will Durant. Can any one who has been a Catholic entirely rid himself of Catholicism?

Not So Funny

By REV. BENEDICT EHMANN

Nothing will be done about it, I suppose, but it ought to be said just the same. The 'funnies' are not minding their own business.
