NEWS and FEATURES

Blessed Sacrament SOLDIERS' MASS FEB. 16

Blessed Sacrament Church will witness a rather unusual night next Sunday morning when several hundred Catholic members of the 20th Anti-Aircraft Coast Artillery will assist at the 8 o'clock Mass. They will march in order from the Army on Outer Road to church and then return to the Army for breakfast following the Mass at which a number of them will also receive Holy Communion. Before breakfast Father Connors will read a short message from His Excellency Bishop Kearney to the soldiers about to leave for camp. Copies of the Guide to Catholic Recruits will be distributed. These are obtainable at the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind.

The Junior Sodality will hold its February meeting in the church hall next Monday evening, February 17 at 8 o'clock. The Apoptosis committee will sponsor a "White Elephant" sale to help raise funds for missionary work. Plans will also be made for a supper meeting on St. Patrick's Day.

The Senior Sodality's monthly meeting will take place next week also with a supper meeting on Wednesday evening at 8:30. The second in the series of three lectures before Lent will be held in the School Auditorium Friday evening, Feb. 14, from 9 to 12. Music by the Genevans will provide entertainment for those who attend. The Sodality hope to see many of their friends in the Auditorium Friday evening.

The annual Rosary Society Supper in the Church hall last Tuesday, February 4 was very successful. A large crowd enjoyed a fine meal and many stayed for the movies which followed in the Auditorium. The Committee wishes to thank all who helped make this affair a success.

Text of Father Golding's Eulogy

It is difficult to offer consolation to those who are left behind. There is a lamp in the throat of a widow, the light of a home before the eyes of friends, but how faint! Who else but God can help. There are certain things in this life that are beyond the power of man. If ever we need God it is now. That which came to us when the Saviour arrived at the gate of Nain, has come to pass at this hour. We carry out a dead man. What the Saviour did on that occasion that we cannot do. We cannot raise this dead body. May the earth rest light on him. Happy the deal upon whose grave can be written "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Their spirits shall follow them. His request, the common one of mankind, Ye who are my friends please do not pass me by for the hand of the Lord has touched me. The charity of your prayers.

Final Tribute Paid Fr. Philip Golding

and brother of the late Father Golding. (Text on Page 1.) Honors were the Rev. Father Charles Reynolds, Leonard Kelly, Joseph McManis, Francis Waterstreet, Francis Marks and Michael Tydings. Representatives of Sisterhoods and delegations of the various church societies occupied reserved sections in the church. Burial was in the priests' lot at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

The Bill Of Rights A Discussion and Study Outline

The remaining provisions of the Bill of Rights were discussed and studied by the members of the Soldiers' Mass at the Blessed Sacrament Church. The provisions discussed were: The right of property, the right of life and liberty, the right of a fair trial, the right of a speedy trial, the right of a public trial, the right of a trial by jury, the right of a trial by a jury of one's peers, the right of a trial by a jury of one's peers, the right of a trial by a jury of one's peers.

The right of property was discussed first. It was pointed out that the right of property is one of the most important rights of a citizen. It is the right to own and dispose of one's property as one sees fit. This right is protected by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.
