

COLLEGE OF SAINT ELIZABETH

CONVENT STATION
NEW JERSEY

Among the hills of Northern New Jersey, 30 miles from New York, the College of Saint Elizabeth offers a beautiful country environment with ready access to a great metropolitan cultural centre.

The college is the oldest for women in New Jersey. It was founded by the Association of American Sisters in 1863 and chartered in 1917.

College courses are offered in eighteen departments including the degree of Bachelor of Arts, The degree of Bachelor of Science in Education. A special course is designed for students interested in fashion, clothing, interior decorating, and home management. The teacher training course qualifies students for certificates in the State in which they intend to teach. The pre-medical course covers subjects required by the leading medical schools.

A well organized extra-curricular program is carried out through the various college organizations, and there is ample opportunity for indoor and outdoor sports and social activities.
