St. Ann's (Hornell) DEDICATE GOLDEN HEART

Heart, Containing Names of Donors is Shrine, Bakes Place Before Large Crowd. HORNELL ... With the Rev

Francis Growney, as Guest Preacher, the beautiful and impressive seremony of the soleman dedication of the golden heart, which contains the names of all those who donated towards the erection of of Perpetual Help. The shrine is in memory of all the mothers of the parish both liv-ing and dead. The ceremony opened with a solemn procession with Miss Judy Iscobe carrying on a silver platter the names of those which was later to be placed in the heart, and ther the heart was placed on the Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help to remain there permanently throughout the years to come. The large growd; especially thos whose names were pist there, were very impressed by the whole cere mony and especially by the elo-quent sermon of the Rev. Francis Growney. After the procession the hildren who marched occupied the ront pews, and after the novens prayers were said all together by the people present, and the hymn "Mother Dearest, Mother Fairest" was sung by the entere congrega tion, Father Growney then spoke on the beautiful powers of the Blessed Mother

He told in detail the great power she showed by her intercession n keeping a small country parish from going out of existence, due to the fact that the parish had a shrine of the Blessed Mother. erected. Later comments were heard of how all enjoyed the seron which Father Growney deliv-
