Holy Trinity (Webster)
ST. MONICA'S SOCIETY
St. Monica's Christian Mothers' Society will hold a celebration on Sunday and Monday May 4 and 5 It will combine both the spiritual and the material with a General Communion scheduled on Sunday at the 8:15 o'clock Mass and a banquet scheduled Monday at 7 P. M.
The meal will consist of a Virginia "baked ham" supper Guest speakers at the banquet will be the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Managing Editor of the CATHOLIC COURIER, and well known radio speaker on the Catholic Radio which he has conducted on Station WHAM for a number of years.
St. Monica's Society was founded sixty-five years ago on Nov. 7, 1876, by the first bishop of Rochester, the Most Rev. Bernard J. McQuaid.
Since then it has grown steadily and now there are about 190 active members. The Society is open to all Catholic mothers and its purpose is to teach mothers how to train and educate children according to the teachings of the Catholic Church.
Prospective new members are extended a cordial invitation to join the organization now. The Society is affiliated with the Archconfrat-erity of Christian Mothers, Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris
