HOLY NAME MEETING MAY 7

Members of the Holy Name Society will assemble Wednesday evening, May 7, for the regular monthly meeting. It will begin at 8:30 in the school hall.

Guest speaker of the occasion will be the Rev. John S. Randall, Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. He is well known in Rochester and will show films of the missions fields and give a brief description of the work of the missioners laboring for the cause of Christ.

The business meeting will carry out the important work of electing officers for the coming year.

Refreshments and entertainment will bring the meeting to a close.

Boy Scouts of Troop No. 70 are preparing for a Camporee of the Seneca Division to be held at Camp Cutler on May 30-31 and June 1. Mr. William Donadoni, Scoutmaster, Troop 70, has been appointed Camp Chief by the Seneca Division for this year.

Nazareth College in the News

By HELEN MACCHIA

Once again do various activities take the fore on Nazareth College Campus.

The first annual College Sodality Dance will be held on Friday evening, May 2, at the Oak Hill Country Club. Honorary chairman for this occasion is Mary Memish, Prefect of this Sodality. Assisting Alice Conheady, who is the general chairman, are the following committees: Arrangements, Florence Rogan, Ann Latour, Rita Fevore, Catherine Statt.; Orchestra, Virginia Bauman, Eileen Tiernan, Mary Pat Foley, Marie Mueller, Berenice Feery and Rosemary Toomey; Tickets, Mary Congreve, Margaret Cowley, Anna Stahl, Betty Curry, Wilma Langenbacker, Nancy Dineen, Gertrude DiPasquale, Patricia Doyle, Kathrine Luchsinger, Mary Jane Schwartz, Mary Harris and LaNette Mackeben; Publicity, Agnes O'Brien, Helen Macchia, Rita Schneible, Evelyn Contestable and Patricia Hartigan.

The Physical Education Department and the Francis Mission Unit will hold a Field Day on May 8, at 2 P. M. which promises to be a gala affair. There will be a Grand March from the building to the athletic field. Then, the numbers which will be played by the College Band will include Dancing on the Green, The Sicilian Circle, and the Virginia Reel. The races and games which are to follow will be climaxed by a baseball game between the faculty and the students. Father Randall will attempt the very delicate role of umpiring the game. Miss Catherine Statt and Miss Jane Kreckel are the co-chairmen of the affair; assisted by Nancy Nineen, chairman in charge of the tennis tournament scheduled for that afternoon, and Peggy Meere in charge of the Mission concession. The public is invited to the Field Day celebration.

The Nazareth College Sodality officers for the coming school year of '41-'42 have been selected. The office of Prefect will be filled by Rita Fevere. The offices of Vice-prefect, Treasurer and Secretary will be filled by Florence Rogan, Helen Harding and Mary Jane Hendrick, respectively.

At their regular monthly meeting the International Relations Club of the College discussed "Europe Today."

Sister Paulette, head of the Sociology Department, will act as one of the judges at the Oratorical Contest which will be held at Aquinas Institute on Friday afternoon, May 2.

Members of the Fordham University Glee Club, who were visiting Rochester this week, were entertained by the senior students of Nazareth College at a dinner and dance on last Sunday in the College Social Room. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all and the Glee Club is assured of a cordial greeting any time it wishes to make a return visit.

The Senior Sociology students heard an excellent lecture on Wednesday morning, April 30, given by Miss Leaty of the Department of Public Welfare. Miss Leaty illustrated the application of the Public Welfare Law by citing specific cases from the files of the local Department. The students who are studying Child Welfare will visit the Rochester Child Guidance Clinic on Gibbs Street in the very near future.

Rev. Leonard Kelly, M.A., represented the Nazareth College at the meeting of the Medieval Academy of America which was held at Princeton University, N. J., on April 25 and 26. The significance of the meeting was the gathering of some of the most eminent scholars of the country in the fields of history, government, and social science. These men have all done significant research work in the Medieval Period of history and their findings published each year throw much light on the origins of present-day institutional progress and procedure which appear to us to be quite new. At this meeting a program of Medieval Music was presented.

Alumnae of the College are sponsoring a Rummage Sale on Saturday, May 3, at 184 North Street. Zelda Lyons is chairman of this event and Miss Rita Barry, Science teacher at the College, is serving on one of the committees. The proceeds of this sale will be used to help furnish the Alumnae Room in the new College.

Agnes O'Brien, editor of the Sunday issue of the Gleaner, the school newspaper has chosen the following staff to assist her: Associate editor, Elizabeth Green; Circulation Manager, Mary Lawrence; Business Manager, Kaye Schleicher; Headlines, Betty Mary Humphrey; Society, Mary Heaton; Art Editor, Patricia Mae Hayes; Proofreader, Mary Falen.

Party To Aid Catholic Deaf

Many years ago Our Holy Father Pope Pius X, of pious and happy memory, prayed "the Lord to bestow upon all who in any way lent their services to this work of eminent charity every prosperous and salutary gift."

Those words of the Holy Pontiff are encouraging to priests who labor for the Deaf-Mute flock.

They should be equally inspiring to all Catholics. Some few of Rochester's Catholic have seen the affliction, the same that Christ saw and in His love for humanity, cured; and these few Catholics have given from their charity during many years to help keep the work among the Deaf alive. "We, the Chaplains of the Deaf of Rochester call upon all the parishes in the City to help this year with the expenses connected with this Diocesan work. We ask all to try to attend the semi-annual card party given for the benefit of this work on Thursday night, May 8, in the Ball Room of Columbus Civic Centre."

The arrangements will be under the care of Mrs. Arline Schwalb and her committee.

Speakers Scheduled For Industry Forum

Final arrangements for the four forums to be conducted by the New York State Committee on Industrial and Labor Relations in Catharine Strong Hall, University of Rochester, May 6, 9, 16 and 23, have been made, the Rev. William J. Kelly, O.M.I., of Buffalo, the committee's education director, announces.

Rochesterians will present the speakers. On May 6, Chairman Irving M. Ives of the state committee who will speak on "The State and Labor" will be presented by A. C. Crockett, Manager of the Rochester Industrial Management Council of the Chamber of Commerce.

Prof. Paul Hays, who will speak on "Mediation" on May 9 will be presented by Henry D. O'Connell, President of the Rochester Central Trades and Labor Council, A. F. of L.

When the Rev. John P. Boland leads the forum on May 16, he will be presented by James Cooper, Rochester C. I. O. leader. Miss Frieda S. Miller state industrial commissioner to speak on May 23 will be presented by Mark Ellingson, President of Mechanics Institute and Rochester Rotary.

"The Ives Committee is working to arrive at equitable and just working conditions and harmonious labor relations," Father Kelley said today. He invites the clergy and Catholic industrialists, employers and workers to attend the sessions, especially as the month of May is being given over to observance of the anniversaries of Pope Leo XII's and Pope Pius XI's Encyclicals on the social question.

Sessions of the forum will begin at 8:30 P. M., concluding at 9:45 P. M.

Cinema Comments

be one of the more likable young actors. The picture has its exciting sequences but gets fairly melodramatic in spots. Nevertheless, it's moderately entertaining and it's good to see Sidney again.

"The Penalty"—A-2

"The Penalty" is straight from the days of the old melodramas. It's a regeneration piece about a big-time gangster (lovely fellow), who is teaching his young son all the fine tricks of the trade including the most effective methods of killing. Sonny is seperated from his loving father for awhile and sent out on the farm where he is regenerated by the kindly country folk. Gene Reymolds manages to win some slight sympathy for the son but Edward Arnold, Marsha Hunt, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Sterling and Veda Ann Borg are all pretty unhappy with their assignments. For that they can't be blamed.

Other Pictures

Still another of the week's remake crop is "Here Comes Happiness "(A-1). It was originally a Dick Powell-Josephine Hutchinson picture called "Happiness Ahead" —and if we remember correctly—wasn't much of a picture even then. "Strange Alibi" is one of those things about the unjustly-condemned prisoner who breaks out and brings the real murderers to justice. I'd swear this is a remake, too, but I can't quite place the original. The most pleasant movie experiences of the week are short subjects—the new edition of "Information Please!" with Wendell Willkie as guest expert and a brand new Disney Donald Duck—one of the better ones, too.

Beginning this Saturday, John Harringer moves to a new time for his broadcast over WHAM. The program will be heard at 7:05 P. M. from now on. This Saturday's Movie Memory will be the personally popular "It Happened One Night.")

It is not so much your position as your disposition that makes you happy or unhappy.
