Entered The Greatest Mission Day

How deeply surprised we were to hear that the boys and girls of Corpus Christi School...

Perhaps the greatest happening that ever will occur at the Holy Wing Stadium will be June 22, 1941, when all of the Catholic students of Rochester...

All during the summer there will be singing and hollering at the ball games...

When you ever heard the birds in the spring singing in the trees? Well, if you want to hear voices sing like birds...

My, oh boy! You should see what we have here this morning! It's true that we haven't very many letters on our desk...

When the first letter came to our desk we could scarcely believe our eyes. It isn't every day that we receive the names of thirty-one (31) pagan babies...

CHILD CRUSADERS SUNDAY OF SICK

MISSION SUNDAY OF THE SICK, observed on the Feast of Pentecost, June 1, affords all those who are ill an opportunity to become active participants in the Mission Apostolate of the Church by the union of their prayers and sufferings to those of the agonizing Redeemer.

Honor Founder In '41 Laurel

Archbishop Robinson, O.F.M.

ST. BONAVENTURE.—Few collegiate publications have had so distinguished a founder as the St. Bonaventure College Laurel, begun in 1895 by the present Most Rev. Fauchal Robinson, O.F.M., Papal Nunzio to Dublin, Ireland...

K. C. Opens Army Hostel In Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S. In development of their war activities, the Knights of Columbus have formally opened a new hostel in Halifax for the men of the army, navy and air force.

It isn't so hard to see into the future, if you are traveling the road taken by others, just observe what destination they reached.

Mission Sunday of the Sick

Pentecost Sunday, the Mission Day of the Sick, is not far away. On Sunday, June 1, our Holy Father asks every sick and suffering Catholic person at home and in hospital to raise their common prayer in union with him...

How the Title Was Won

Despite the fact that for the 24 years of her life, St. Teresa of the Child Jesus, 'the Little Flower,' never ventured upon a mission journey she has merited for herself the title of 'Little Sister of the Missionaries.' How was this possible? One incident mentioned by Bishop Cushing will reveal her secret.

Fastest of Women

It is most interesting to read what St. Epiphanius, who lived in the fourth century, writes about the appearance of the Blessed Virgin.

Graduation Rite Set At St. Patrick's

MT. MORRIS.—The date set for the annual graduation and entertainment of St. Patrick's School is Thursday evening, June 19. The school auditorium will again be the scene of fine entertainment as the Sisters and students of the school are combining their efforts to make this year's commencement equal to those of past years.
