THE GOSPEL—In The New Bible Text

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN Chapter 14, Verses 22-31.

"If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our abode with him. He who does not love me, does not keep my word, and the word that he has heard is not mine, but the Father's who sent me."

By Rev. Dr. Edward H. Donsee, S.M.
General Secretary, Catholic Biblical Association of America.
The Gospel for Pentecost Sunday is taken from the Gospel according to St. John, Chapter 14, verses 22-31. The text is given here according to the revision which has recently been published.

HEADQUARTERS for your

MEANS TO HOLIDAY FUN!

Tomorrow! You're off to the lake, your cottage! You're enjoying your leisure in your own back yard. Picnicking at the park. Getting in that grand game of golf! Forethought today means your fun for tomorrow. The right outdoor and sports clothes for the entire family. New golf clubs, a tennis racket. Picnic paraphernalia and the good "eats" that go along! Bright new furnishings for the cottage. Perhaps cans of paint to make things gleam like new! Stibley's, of course, is your holiday headquarters! Come in! Phone! Then go off and have fun!
