Foundress' Namesake Of Villa Maria Wins

By MARY E. FITZGERALD
Twenty-eight miles from Philadelphia in West Chester, Pa. Villa Maria, the Academy of the Immaculate Heart, stands as a monument to Mother Mary Camilla...

On Feb. 26, 1913, a Philadelphia paper, describing Mother Mary Camilla's funeral, said that it was the largest ever held in Villa Maria...

Another paper said "In her death the state of Pennsylvania has lost one of its most efficient and devoted leaders in the field of religious education."

During Mother Camilla's administration the Order of the Immaculate Heart of Mary increased in numbers and in recognition...

Two hundred miles from Philadelphia in the summer of 1941, twenty-eight years after the great Mother Superior died to leave a new monument in her memory...

Camilla is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maloney, Pennsylvania Ave., Philadelphia.
