Vacation School Institute Set In 3 Cities

Teachers To Be Told Of New Projects

Looking forward to the opening of religious vacation schools in this diocese, the annual Teachers' Institute will be held in Rochester, on Saturday, June 7, at 3 P. M. and at Elimira and Auburn on Saturday.

At the Rochester Institute, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney will address the Sixters, encouraging them in their missionary work in the religious vacation schools. A special feature of this year's institute will be the appearance of priests as guest speakers to ex-plain the dogmatic content of the subjects to be covered in the Schools, this summer. In addition to Bishop Kearney,

In addition to Bishop Kearney, speakers and subjects at the Rock-ester Institute" will be: the Rev. Elmer Heindl, "The Commandment Project": the Rev. Joseph A. Cirrincaione, "The Mass Project": the Rev. George Vogt, "The Life of Christ Project".

At the Elmira Institute, June 14, at St. Patrick's School, 10:15 A. M., speakers will be: the Rev. Francis Turner. "The Cummandment Project"; the Rev. Benedict Elmann.

"Religious Vacation Schools are designed primarily for the children of the public schools. A regular course of studies is followed and most of the Schools in the Rochiester diocese are taught by the nuns. There were 57 such schools in the Rochiester diocese last year with a registration of 5,600 children.

The G. & E. Twins Are Ready, Uncle Sam!

Gas and Electricity (the G. & E. Twins) are vital factors in national defense. Gas provides a cheap and dependable fuel for industry while electricity powers the machinery of the great in dustrial plants engaged in supplying equipment for Army and Navy. Together they constitute one of the mightiest weapons in Uncle Sam's arsenal.

Because of long range planning the gas and electric industries were ready when the nation called for full speed shead. They are providing increased service as fast as it is required and this is being done without government aid or subsidy. The United States now has more installed electric power capacity than Germany, Englands and France combined.

During this year the R. G. & E. will spend approximately hive and one-half million dollars for replacements and new equipment, much of it designed to meet the expanding demands of the determination
