Feast of The Sacred Heart

Friday, June 20, is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. In gratitude for all the gifts of God, help our missionaries to bring souls to Christ. Send us an offering of Fifteen Dollars to purchase a Statue of the Sacred Heart for a mission chapel.

SACRED HEART CHAPEL

The following letter arrived at our office a few days ago:

"Dear Father—

"Last year around the Feast of the Sacred Heart you published a letter from one of your members offering to pay half the cost of building a Chapel in honor of the Sacred Heart. I wrote to you and offered to give the other half. You replied and said I was too late as somebody else had written before me.

"Now this year I want to send you that two hundred and fifty dollars. If you can find another person to give the same amount, I will mail my check to you immediately. Then we will have a new chapel in the mission called the Sacred Heart Chapel. This has always been my dream."

We hope somebody will answer. We need mission chapels. Here is an opportunity for a person of ordinary means to do something extraordinary for God. Let us hear from you.

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Next week the great Eucharistic Congress will open in St. Paul. Hundreds of thousands of people will attend to give special honor and reverence to the Blessed Sacrament. If you go to St. Paul, pray for the mission.

As you look at the beautiful Altars, think of the mission chapels where the Altars are only boards covered with cloths. As an Act of Love for Our Divine Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, give an Altar to a Near East Chapel.

The missionary can erect an Altar for Fifty Dollars.

YOUR DECEASED RELATIVES

Don't forget your deceased relatives. Ask the missionary to offer Holy Mass for them.

MASS OF REPARATION

During June ask the missionary to offer a Mass to the Sacred Heart in Reparation for your sins.

MISSION CHAPEL

Five hundred dollars will build a chapel in the Near East. Why not build one and call it the Sacred Heart Chapel?

THE SCHOOL

The missionary must repair his school during the vacation period. Send him five dollars to help pay his bills.

YOUR WILL

When you remember the missions in your Will, you are giving thanks to God for His gifts to you. Your remembrance of the missions will help to carry on the work of His Church. Put into your Will the name of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association.

FIVE DOLLARS

Five dollars will support a missionary for a week.

GREGORIAN MASSES

Read our pamphlet on Gregorian Masses. You will find it interesting and instructive. It explains the old custom of offering a Mass every day for thirty days for one who is deceased. Write for a copy. It is free.

CANDLES

Eight Dollars will buy enough Candles to supply a mission chapel for a year. Burn them for your intentions.

MASSES FOR MEMBERS

Every year our missionaries offer fifteen thousand Masses for our members. These Masses are for the living and the deceased.

HELPING THE NEEDIEST

During the month of May we received very few Stringless Gifts. This is serious because it leaves us helpless to take care of emergencies. The Stringless Gift Fund helps us to come to the aid of the neediest missionaries. Send us your gift and tell us it is stringless.

YOU ARE NEEDED

The missions in the Near East need your help. Why not enroll as a member? All we ever ask is one dollar a year. There are no special appeals.

200 At Laymen Retreat Pray For Peace

The Rev. John Murphy, C.SS.R., Redemptorist missionary from Alabama, will be retreat master at the 27th annual three-day retreat opening at 7 P. M. Friday, June 20, in St. Bernard's Seminary, Lake Avenue. Father Murphy is now stationed at St. Joseph's Church here.

Prayers for peace in a war-torn world will be the principal theme of the retreat, according to the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor of Holy Rosary Church and spiritual director of the Rochester Diocesan Laymen's Retreat League.

More than 200 laymen from all parts of the nine counties in the Rochester Diocese are expected to attend, according to Charles A. Tucker, league president. The Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., bishop of Rochester, will close the retreat early Monday morning with the celebration of Mass in the seminary chapel.

Business Meeting Listed

Annual business meeting of the retreatants will be held Sunday afternoon with President Tucker presiding. Plans for establishment of a diocesan retreat house will be announced at the meeting, Tucker said.

Headed by Tucker, the executive committee in charge of the retreat, only one to be held this year, includes: Frank E. Wolfe, first vice-president, Walter T. Simpson, second vice-president; Charles M. Dispensa, secretary, Charles J Keller, retreat house treasurer, and Angelo DiNieri, membership chairman.

Vice-presidents from the diocesan deaneries are Thomas Kenny Geneva, Frank Leach Auburn, John J Hassett Elmira, Fred Wilcox, Ithaca, and John Mellinger Hornell.

Retreat Schedule

Silence and meditation, except at appointed times for recreation, is observed by all retreatants during the three days. Order for each day is as follows:

A. M.—6:00, rising, 6 30, meditation in private 7:00 Holy Mass, 7:45, breakfast in silence, spiritual reading aloud by a retreatant; 8.15, free time; 9:00, points of meditation in chapel; meditation in private 10.15, free time, spiritual reading; 11:00, points of meditation in chapel; meditation in private.

Field Mass Begins Busy Week For Knights

Three major turnouts are scheduled for Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliary Drill Teams during the last week in June.

Paying tribute to the memory of their departed members and praying for the repose of their souls, the knights, the ladies, their families and friends will assist at the Annual Memorial Field Mass at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Sunday, June 22 at 10 a. m.

At the beautifully decorated temporary altar at the foot of a knoll on the cemetery's east side, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J F Goggin, Ph.D., rector of St. Bernard's Seminary will celebrate the Mass.

The message for the occasion will be given by the Rev Frederick J. Zwierlein, S.T.L. The Rev Colonel Joseph H. Gefell, Chaplain of the Rochester Regiment will read aloud the roll of knights and ladies who died during the past year.

Professor Frederick C. Pohl will direct the choir during the Mass. The entire regiment and Ladies Auxiliary Drill Teams will report at the cemetery entrance at 9.15 a. m. The parade will move at 9:30 a. m.

Second regimental turnout of the week will be on Wednesday evening June 25 when the Regiment and Auxiliary drill teams participate in the "America United" Pageant at Red Wing Stadium.

The week's activity will close with participation in the Pontifical Outdoor Mass at the Catholic Students Mission Crusade Convention to be celebrated at Red Wing Stadium on Saturday morning, June 28.

Ukranian Catholics Here To Join In Camp Blessing At Stratford

On the Fourth of July Ukrainian Catholics of the United States will formally establish and bless the new Ukrainian Catholic Vacation Camp at Stratford, N Y

In this ceremony both the Bishop and Auxiliary Bishop of the Ukrainian Catholics, the Most Rev Constantine Bohachevsky and the Most Rev John Buchko, will take part with several of the priests assisting. Also many Ukrainian Societies, Brotherhoods, Sisterhoods and many of the Ukrainian Catholic Youth Clubs have announced their intention to participate. Church choirs and their Directors from Auburn, Syracuse, Cohoes, Yonkers, Hudson and Pittsfield, Massachusetts will also be present.

Many of the parishioners of the St. Josaphat's Ukrainian Catholic Church of this city will make the trip.

The Festival will start at 10.00 A M (Eastern Standard Time) with a High Mass. Various programs and activities have been arranged for the remainder of the day.

St. Andrew's Parish

GRADUATION JUNE 22

Graduation exercises for St. Andrew's School children will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 22 at 4 p. m. The seventy-six graduates will assemble in the church to receive their diplomas from Father Eckl. Special prizes will be awarded to those students with the best records.

Rev William Doran, pastor of St Ann's Church Palmyra, will address the graduates. Parents and friends of the children and members of the parish are invited to attend these exercises.

Approximately fifty boys of St. Andrew's Scout Troop No. 70 will leave Friday afternoon, June 20, for Camp Warren Cutler to take part in the annual Camporee for the Scouts of Rochester. They will remain at the Camp until Sunday afte noon.

Mr John Predmore, assistant Scoitmaster has been appointed camp director for Troop 70.

Third Order Of St. Francis

June meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis will be held at St. Patrick's Church at 3 30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 22. There will be no meetings in July or August.

Although no meeting is held in August, two great Franciscan Feasts occur in that month. The second of August is the Feast of the Portiuncula, so-called from the name of the little chapel, dedicated by St. Francis to the Queen of Angels, which was the cradle of the Order.

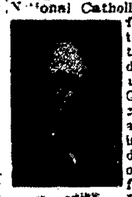
Tertiaries who are not within convenient reach of their own fraternity church or any Franciscan church may gain the plenary indulgence of the Portiuncula as many times as they make a visit to any church they can reach, each time reciting six Paters, Aves, Glorias for the intention of the Holy Father. These rich indulgences hold good only for the second of August.

August 12 is the Feast of St Clare who exchanged her beautiful garments for sackcloth and for whom St. Francis founded the Second Order. Today, after seven hundred years, the First Order, the Order of Friars, including Friars Minor, Conventuals, and Capuchins numbers about 30,000 members: the Second Order, the Order of Poor Clares, has between seven and eight thousand nuns: the Third Order Regular, comprising priests and religious living in community, counts about 50,000 members and the Third Order Secular now numbers nearly 3,000,000. "It is good to be a Franciscan."

Risley Resumes Outdoor Lectures With Dr. Goldstein

Special to THE CATHOLIC COURIER.

Marius Risley, St. Bonaventure College senior vice-president of the National Catholic Evidence Conference, will lecture throughout the summer in the diocese of Buffalo, assisting Dr. David Goldstein, noted convert, author and lecturer, who is currently conducting a tour of open-air religious forums under Bishop Duffy's patronage. Mr. Risley assisted Dr. Goldstein before, resuming studies at St. Bonaventure College.



The speakers will be heard in a series of six lectures in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Lockport and Ottawa, Canada.

New Memorial Bells To Ring Out On Feast

Ringing out for the first time on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, Friday, June 20 will be the two bronze Memorial Bells placed in their belfry steep St. Patrick's Church, 434 Plymouth Avenue North, Tuesday.

From Friday forward the bells will sound for "The Angelus" and at 7 o'clock each evening the "De Profundis" bell will toll for 5 minutes. The title "De Profundis," first two words of the 129th Psalm of the Old Testament was given to the bell as it will call attention to an opportunity to pray for the dead each time it rings.

The bells which were in the former Cathedral were blessed by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney and dedicated last Dec. 8.

Donated, the bells are in memory of the priests, nuns and laity of St. Patrick's "whose faith, courage and vision laid the foundation" for the parish. The bell in memory of the priests and nuns was sponsored by the Rev. Gerald T. Brennan, the one in memory of the laity by James P. B. Duffy, a trustee of the parish.

Supervising the placing of the bells was the Rev. Lee C. Mooney, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and managing editor of the CATHOLIC COURIER.

NEWLY-ORDAINED

Rev. Owen J. Quigley

Former Rochester Boy To Offer First Mass

The Rev Owen J. Quigley, C.M. (Congregation of the Mission), son of Mr and Mrs. Owen Quigley, former residents of Blessed Sacrament and St. Mary's Parishes in this city, is to celebrate his first Solemn Mass on Sunday, June 22, at 11, in St. Vincent's Church, Los Angeles, Calif.

Father Quigley was born in Rochester, October 5, 1914, and was baptized by the Rev. Thomas F. Connors, Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church. He began his primary education at St. Mary's School in Rochester, and completed it at St. Vincent's School in Los Angeles, under the direction of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondolet.

In September, 1927, Father Quigley entered the high school department of Los Angeles College, the preparatory seminary of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, and re-junior college course in 1934. September of that year witnessed his entry into the Novitiate of the Congregation of the Mission at St. Mary's Seminary, Perryville, Missouri the mother-house of the Western Province of the Vincentian Fathers. Two years later he pronounced his perpetual vows. The prescribed courses in the philosophical and theological sciences were completed at the Missouri institution.

Father Quigley, one of a class of twenty-one, was ordained on Sunday June 15 at St. Mary's Seminary Perryville by the Most Rev. Christian Winkelmann, D.D., Bishop of Wichita.

Assisting in the celebration of the first Solemn Mass will be: the Rev Joseph C Johnson, C.M., of St Vincent's Church, Los Angeles, as Assistant Priest, the Very Rev. Donald F McNeil, C.M., President of Los Angeles College, as Deacon, and the Rev. Frank Roughan, of the Los Angeles Archdiocesan Clergy, as Subdeacon. The Rev. James W Richardson, C.M., J.C.D. of the faculty of St. John's Seminary, Camarillo Calif., the major seminary of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, is to preach the sermon.

During the summer Father Quigley will be at St. Vincent's Church, 621 West Adams Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif. He has been appointed professor of Sacred Scripture at the St. Louis Preparatory Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri, the junior and philosophical seminary of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

WHAM To Carry Ninth National Eucharistic Congress Program

Archbishop Mooney

On Tuesday, June 24, WHAM will carry the official opening of the Congress with part of the Pontifical Mass by the Papal Legate and Music by the combined choirs of the diocese. The broadcast of this beautiful service will be heard at 1:15 P. M. Wednesday, June 25, at 1:15 P. M., WHAM will bring you a program during which you will hear a Pontifical Mass celebrated by Archbishop Edward Mooney (pictured above) of Detroit. A sermon to 10,000 school children, who will form the choir, will be delivered by Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York.

Little Light Reading Indicated for Joslyn

Jay Joslyn, who plays "Mr. District Attorney" in the WHAM series, heard every Wednesday evening at 9:30 P. M., has never considered the law as a career.

But seekers after legal advice have been plaguing him overtime. He stepped into the role of the crusading racket buster. And it may still drive him to Sir Edward Coke's "Institutes."

Listeners, to the number of at least 50 a week, write in to ask Joslyn to settle legal disputes. Some detail disputes they are having with neighbors over encroaching fences and dogs, nocturnal musicians and the like. Out in the Jackson Heights district of New York, where Joslyn lives, his friends have taken to calling him "D. A."

Since he used to get tangled up in the scenery his father built at a Milwaukee shop for local dramatic groups, Joslyn has thought of no career other than the stage. He left Marquette University to join a repertory company, finally quit that to go trouping.

But now, the way things are, Joslyn is beginning to take an active interest in the law. Reports have him visiting a criminal trial now and then. And it is being said that in his spare time he has begun to read Blackstone. That is not particularly easy reading, but the legal authority contains things that every D. A.—even a radio D. A.—should know.

New Hobby Grips "Dear John" Star

The fact that she has a hobby so fascinating that she devotes practically every hour away from the studios to it, Irene Rich, star of the WHAM "Dear John" series, attributes to her daughter, Frances.

It was at Frances' suggestion—when she achieved considerable reputation as a sculptress—that Miss Rich likewise interested herself in the graphic arts. She first tried sketching in charcoal and pen-and-ink. Encouraged by her daughter, she progressed to pastels and more recently to oil paintings.

"I know I'll never be a Cezanne or a Marie Laurencin," the NBC star laughingly admits, "but I've never done anything as a hobby which has so gripped me. So I'll keep right on with it."
