AUXILIARY OUTING

By MARGARET MILES

Ladies of the District Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John are making final arrangements for their annual picnic to be held July 24 at Charlotte.

Supper will be served at 6.00 P. M. There will be cards and prizes in the afternoon. Races are scheduled for 2:00 P. M.

St. Boniface Auxiliary will be served in pavilion No. 3. Arrangements to attend the picnic should be made with Mrs. Joseph Tremmel, 750 Clinton Avenue South, Monroe 2483-R.

On Wednesday evening, July 9, members of the parish met in the school hall to greet Father Walz and to bid him good luck in his new home. Father was presented with a parting gift from members of St. Boniface as a token of appreciation of his four faithful years spent in the parish.

We hope Father will come back as often as he can find the time. His friends will always be happy to see him.

The Chestertonians will hold a meeting on Thursday evening, July 17 at 8:30 P. M. Since this is the first meeting in some time, all members are urged to attend.

The Sodality of Mary will hold their annual picnic on Sunday, July 27 at Ruby's cottage in Summerville.

Members of the committee will contact all members or arrangements may be made by calling Miss Helene Ehmann, Monroe 3403-J.

Immaculate Parish

LAWN FETE, AUG. 9

By MARGERY BERNARD

Plans and preparations for the annual Lawn Festival at the Immaculate Conception Church are occupying the time of all the various societies. The date has been set for Saturday, August 9. Members of the Rosary Guild met in the school on Tuesday evening to complete plans for the afternoon card party and the supper early in the evening. Mrs. Robert I Smith is General Chairman of these two events and is assisted by the following committees. Tickets, Mrs. Maurice Doyle; Supper, Mrs T Scottebo Cards, Mrs. Walter Jamieson, Publicity, Mrs. James Martin. The Guild has planned a delicious supper to be served from 5 00 to 7 00 P M. Gailey decorated booths will provide novel games and amusements. William Skelly is chairman of the Entertainment Committee.

Girl Scouts of Troops 143 and 144 are making enthusiastic preparations for their annual summer camping. This year, a new site has been chosen, the 4-H Camp in the Bristol Hills. This popular camp has been leased by the Scouts with the aid of their Chaplain, Fr Murphy, for the latter part of August. Individual cottages are provided for groups of campers and a large outdoor swimming pool furnishes relaxation and fun during the swimming periods. Mrs Roy Curtis and Miss Honorine Pearson are drawing up the list of leaders who will accompany the girls to camp.

During the past week Immaculate Conception Church has been the scene of much activity as the men of the parish spent their evenings installing the new rubber kneelers. As a reward for their generous efforts, they were entertained at a party on Monday evening. Their work merited much praise from the pastor Monsignor Cameron, since voluntarily they took upon themselves the large responsibility of installing these kneelers.

Members of the Immaculate Conception Youth Association held their picnic Tuesday, July 15, at Roseland Park in Canandaigua. Chartered busses provided transportation to and from the Park. An informal dance was held in the school hall upon their return in the evening. Father Murphy and Father Wood accompanied the group. Jay Meehan and Frances Sullivan were co-chairmen of the affair.

CYA Day Camp Now In Full Swing

Large groups of boys and girls are gathering at the C Y A. for the Day Camp Program —

Since the beginning of this year's program the boys have enjoyed days at Seneca Park, Genesee Valley Park and at Ontario Beach and this week will find them at Ellison Park for the day. Last week the girls enjoyed a day at Ellison Park. For each day the Day Camp is conducted a very definite program is given to the group under capable and responsible hands.

On Mondays and Tuesdays the boys under twelve years of age are able to attend and on Wednesdays and Thursdays the boys over twelve years of age are given a day of enjoyable activity with both groups coming to the C. Y. A. on Saturday mornings. Wednesdays find a large group of girls out at one of the parks.

This type of full day program has been very successful as well as educational and enjoyable to the children.

Free Texthooks Lose

Austin, Tex. - A resolution favoring free distribution of textbooks to children in parochial and private schools has been defeated in the Texas House of Representatives. Sponsored by Representative R. B. Spacek, the resolution submitted an amendment to the State Constitution to allow textbooks to be distributed at the State's expense to all children of school age, as they are now provided for public school children only.

Legion Sets Stadium 'Night'

American Legion Night, Tuesday, July 29, at Red Wing Stadium, will provide the most spectacular offering of the baseball season. Besides the International League game between the Wings and the onrushing Jersey City Giants there will be an exhibition by two searchlight units from the 249th Coast Artillery (AA) stationed at Fort Ontario, Oswego; concerts and drills by a half dozen crack musical organizations, fireworks and a personal appearance by Bill Stern, native Rochesterian, who is one of the best-known sports commentators in American radio.

Legion posts of the Seventh District Monroe, Cayuga, Livingston, Steuben, Seneca, Wayne and Yates counties are going all out to make their "Night" a thorough success and they expect the largest crowd of the season. Profits of the affair will be used to help defray expenses of the state Legion convention, scheduled August 14-16 at Rochester. Through the co-operation of Oliver French, President of the Red Wings, the Legion will receive all the "take" above a fixed sum. Some 10,000 tickets have been distributed and the final count seems likely to show the largest turnout of the season.

Tickets are available through Legionnaires, or at Red Wing Stadium.

George M Clancy, past state commander, is general chairman. Edwin I Cooper is co-chairman, and Ralph Good, treasurer of the General Committee. They will be aided by the following: Program, advertising, Roy Rumpff; tickets, promotion, Karl Goeckel, Joe Connor, Miles Dorsey, Albert Seibold; special attractions, Ed I. Cristy, Ann Miller, William German; citizens' booster committee, Dewey Crittenden, Carl S. Hallauer, Fred J Blum, Thomas C. Wood, Al Skinner, Ray Whitley, Neal Murphy, Matt Jackson; boxes, special guests, Abe Lapine, Dr Gerald Burns, Sol Heumann; music, Francis Pethick; drum corps, Michael Kelly.

PRIEST PHOTOS TRIPLE SHAFT OF LIGHTNING

BATHURST, N. B.—The Rev. H. Boudreau of the faculty of Sacred Heart University has taken a picture of a triple shaft of lightning. Long a student of photography, he has been endeavoring for several years to get a good shot of lightning.

He had obtained views of single shafts, but was desirous of "shooting" a double or treble shaft. Recently, in an unusually severe electrical disturbance, he placed one of his cameras on the windowsill of his room at the university and awaited his opportunity. His vigilance was rewarded after several hours.

Cinema Comments

ly with illicit love, with divorce, with general immorality, and the percentage of vulgarity and semi-nudity was also high. Since Breen's taking over, there have been very, very few pictures—with the exceptions of some independently produced and never played by reputable theaters—that have been given a "C" or condemned rating by the Legion of Decency. The only such pictures, within the memory of this department, were "Strange Cargo" and "This Thing Called Love," both of which were promptly yanked back to the studio and clipped until they were fit to be shown.

Yes, the producers complained about Breen's verdicts frequently but now they're frightened. Where to find a successor as wise, as capable, as understanding as was Joe Breen? Eight years of intense work, of constant bickering, made Joe Breen quit the Hays Office. His new job as Production Head of RKO-Radio studios ought to be a comparative cinch. Joseph I. Breen has interpreted the Production Code with wisdom. He has shown Hollywood how to turn out decent entertainment. Let's hope his successor—when such a successor is found—will be as able.

Priests on the Screen—Goodbye

A few weeks ago, the studios issued a ruling. There are to be no more movies in which Catholic priests figure as principal characters. This is the result of many brickbats—and not very many bouquets. Pictures like "The Fighting 69th," in which Father Duffy was a principal character, and the Father Flanagan-Boys Town pictures were box-office successes — but every time one of them was released, it was the signal for protests from bigots all over the country. And surprisingly few Catholics took the trouble to express appreciation for such portrayal.

The Boys Town pictures and "The Fighting 69th" were successful at the box-office. But other fine films, such as "Murder in the Big House" and "Full Confession," which had no such big box-office names, were poorly supported—even by Catholics—although they dealt with heroic Catholic priests. So, according to the producers, you won't be seeing Catholic priests in the movies any more!

(John Springer reminiscences about a popular picture of the past on "Your Movie Memory" over WHAM, every Monday morning at 11. This week's Movie Memory will be the Leslie Howard-Bette Davis-Humphrey Bogart movie, "The Petrified Forest.")
