Our Social Swirl K. C. Auxiliary Maps Lazon Fete

By MARY E. GAUFFIELD
Leader Auxiliary, Knights of Columbus, Rochester Council 378, will hold its annual garden party and supper on Wednesday, July 24, at the home of Mrs. Dennis W. Sullivan, 111 Geneva, Park Blvd. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 p. m. There will be a fancy dance, a game, an afternoon tea, and entertainment for both young and old.

Youth and National Defense

Thought for the Month There is a discipline of reading as of every good thing. It involves a certain self-conquest. With this question of reading, the whole of education is bound up. For the greatest thought of mankind is in books, and the greatest living teacher can do no higher thing in the intellectual order than teach his pupil to read.—F. J. Sheed.

Sunday At Camp Villa Maria

By MARY E. FITZGERALD
The morning sun shining in golden radiance over Chemung's beautiful hills, early last Sunday morning, the Holy Communion was celebrated in loving benediction on the ninety girls, who made up the population of the first camp period at Villa Maria.

The Feast of Our Founder

In 1671 in France a saintly man who so clearly imitated His Divine Master in the use of women in his service to souls, organized the first unit of the Ladies of Charity.

Study Nutrition As Defense Aid

Thirty-two women leaders in six Detroit parishes are meeting a week at Marygrove college to study nutrition, budgeting of food costs, meal planning and food preparation as their contribution to the national defense program.

The Success Family

The father of Success is Work. The mother of Success is Direction. The oldest Son is Common Sense. Some of the other boys are Honesty—Thoroughness, Foresight, Enthusiasm, Perseverance and Co-operation.
