TRIDUUM TO ST. ANN

By MARGERY BERNARD

Cub Scouts of Pack 13 held their annual picnic on Saturday, July 19, at Genesee Valley Park. James Rogers, chairman of the Pack Committee, arranged a series of games and contests and prizes were provided for each of them. The boys were enthusiastic participants in all the competitive games, and the spirit of good-will and fair-play which they displayed, was very encouraging to their leaders. The various Den Chiefs who were present, received special recognition of their work during the past year from their Cub Master Fred Bailey. Each Chief received a handsome billfold. Mothers of the Cub Scouts cooperated in serving a supper to approximately 65 Scouts and Parents.

A triduum in honor of St. Ann is being held in the Immaculate Conception Church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Services are at 7:45 each evening and consist of prayers to this great Saint and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This Novena has always been well attended in the past and it is hoped that this year will prove no exception.

Plans are rapidly being completed for the 2nd annual Lawn Fete at the Immaculate Conception Church. The Rosary Society which has charge of the Card Party and Supper has announced the following committees: Tickets, Mrs. Maurice P. Doyle, chairman, assisted by all Rosary leaders. Cards: Mrs. Walter Jamieson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Connor, Mrs. Wm. Freed, Mrs. Henry Kester, Mrs. Frank Keating, Mrs. R. Howard Seibert, Mrs. Roy Curtis, Mrs. Joseph Resch, Mrs. John Hyde, Miss Eileen Jamieson. Miss Beatrice Otto. Supper: Mrs. Paul Scottebo, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Wilson, Mrs. Donald Bailey, Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. Frank Stockmaster, Mrs. Walter Kelly, Mrs. Vincent Collins, Mrs. Charles Walker, Miss Mary Scanlon, Mrs. Rudolph Steeb, Mrs. Theresa Caffery, Mrs. Frank Grant. Cake Booth: Mrs. Joseph Hebart and Marjory Kraus. Members of the Sodality of Our Lady will also assist on this booth. Grounds: Mrs. Marie Eckert, Mrs. Josephine Smith and Miss Florence Heberger.

Famine Perils Spain Reported

Having no faith in God and consequently no hope, she despaired of finding relief from the contemporary madness, in this world or in the next.

DEFERS ANSWER

In view of these facts in Franco's Spain during the three years of civil war, how explain the actual conditions there now as described by Mr. Johnson in the Post? Not to encroach unduly on the COURIER'S space, I will defer the answer to next week. You will not find the answer in the daily press. The treatment of the civil war by the news-agencies and most of the "special correspondents" made me despair of ever getting correct information from Europe to the general public whenever the Catholic Church is even remotely concerned.

For three years (for it began with the seizure of the government by the Popular Front in February, 1936) every Catholic Church in Red Spain was closed or wrecked or turned over to political or "social" uses, some of them blasphemous and abominable. Thousands of priests and thirteen Bishops were assassinated; there was no Mass or Sacraments except in hidings, as in the days of Nero and the catacombs; converts were given to the flames; the nuns assassinated or fleeing for their lives; by a conservative estimate 400,000 civilians were put to death for no other reason than that they were Christians (the Pope said so). And yet, in face of all these absolutely authenticated facts, so efficient was the lying press and platform propaganda that a majority of the American people believed, and apparently still believe, that the Red Government was "a legitimate and democratic government" (the words are those of a resident of the White House!)—"some say that it is Communist, we believe it is legitimate and democratic" (from the same source!).

PRESS SCORED

And, let it be noted, this was really not the work of Spaniards, Red or White. It was wholly the work of agencies outside Spain or foreigners in Spain. The Spaniard, whatever his "ideology" cares nothing about what the rest of the world thinks of him, and the Red Spaniards showed that abundantly during the first months of the war. It was only when the foreign agencies saw and advised them that their atrocities were injuring their cause abroad that they consented to be represented as "democratic and tolerant."

No, you cannot get an idea from our daily press of the real causes of the actual conditions described by Mr. Johnson in the Saturday Evening Post. The truth, if published, would be an indictment of Spanish "democracy," and a confession that the American public had been misled by the propaganda. A great Saint has said, that the most difficult word for human lips to utter is peccavi—I have erred, I have sinned. The news agencies and propagandists on the Spanish war will not utter it though they know it to be true.

Attractions Set At Enna Jettick Park

Carl Lorch, who with his orchestra is playing for dancing all this week at Enna Jettick Park, comes to the region after a long series of engagements in high spots along the Atlantic coast.

Among special entertainment features are the singing of charming Mary Anne and famous triple tongue specialties.

Charlie Teagarden is bringing his orchestra to Enna Jettick Park for a week's engagement opening Monday, July 28. Here again is a comparatively new orchestra which has speedily risen to a high spot through the ability of Teagarden to choose and lead superb individual musicians. Charlie's complete mastery of the trumpet, and the voices of Billy Usher, handsome young tenor, and of Steve Leonard, rich baritone, will highlight the engagement.

The Great Fusner is giving performances at 4:30 and 8:15 P. M. daily at Enna Jettick Park, all the current week. He does amazing stunts on a large ball atop strange equipment. The Faludy Troupe, consisting of six men and a girl, come to Enna Jettick Park for a week's stay, performing first on July 28. They are unexcelled masters of the acrobatic teeterboard.

Saturday, Aug. 9, is Scottish Games Day at Enna Jettick Park. Official start is 11:30 A. M. The pipe band contest starts about 1:30 P. M., and the massed band parade takes place at 3 P. M.

Many picnics and outings are being held each day at Enna Jettick Park. Among the groups recently entertained were the American Stores, E. W. Edwards Department Store, Herald-Journal Circulation Department, Loblaw Organization, Powder Puff Beauty Shoppe, Rollway Bearing Company, St. Charles' and St. Vincent's Church groups and Transfiguration School, all of Syracuse, also Arco-Marathon Corporation, Cincinnatus Auto Company, Belle Isle Sunday School and Warners Sunday School.

List Attractions At Roseland Park

Coming attractions at Roseland Park, "The Playground of the Finger Lakes," are announced for the next few weeks.

Five Juggling Jewels are on the program until July 27. Performances are given daily at 8 and 10:20 P. M., on Sunday at 4, 8 and 10:30 P. M.

Few troupes of jugglers have attained the tremendous popularity accorded the five young ladies known as Juggling Jewels, the park management states. The illuminated clubs numbers is said to be one of the most attractive juggling routines ever presented on the stage.

Roseland Park will present Les Kimris, one man-one lady, from July 28 to August 3, inclusive. The sensational aeroplane attraction, 90 feet high breathtaking aerial feat on revolving trapeze is listed.

From August 4 to August 10, the Peaches Sky Revue, an outstanding attraction at the 1940 San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition, will be presented.

Reservations for picnic tables at Roseland Park can be made by calling Canandaigua 113, Mr. Weber.

OREGON FREE TEXTBOOK LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE

PORTLAND, Ore. — The Oregon free textbook law, passed by both houses of the Legislature at the last session, has become effective after withstanding the effort of an organization opposed to the principle of free textbooks to bring it to referendum. A decision of I. H. Van Winkle, Attorney General, declared the referendum petition filed by the "Association Against Public Taxes for Private Schools" invalid.

Mr. Van Winkle's stand was based on insufficiency of valid signatures and was contained in a report to the Secretary of State.
