LAWN FETE SUCCESSFUL

By KATHRYN MORAN Held under perfect weather conditions, the annual mid-sum-mer lawn festival of St. Francis imer lawn testival of St. Francis de Sales partsh, attracted about 5,000 patrons Tuesday evening July 22.

The event was held on the spaclous parish lawn from 4 o'clock until midnight. The largest at-tendance was recorded in the evening from the time of the opening at 7 o'clock, the crowd in reasing as the hours advanced.

All of the committees functioned efficiently and the event was con-sidered one of the largest and most popular social events held in the parish during the year

The director the Rev William J O'Brien and the Rev. Emmett Murphy: treasurer, together with the general chairman, Irenea J Mulvey and Miss Mary Hastings, hairman of the Women's Division were high in their praise of the committees work and extended heir thanks to all who had participated in any way in making the festival a success The ice cream booths were popular because of the warm weather Soft drink stands also recorded a splendid patronage and all of the other booths on the grounds proved equally attractive.

proved equally attractive.
Several prizes were awarded at midnight by the Rt. Rev. Magr. Walter J. Lee, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church.
Among the visiting clargymen present at the festival were: the Rev. William H. McPadden, pastor of St. Stenhank Church the Bay of St. Stephen's Church, the Rev or St. Stephens Church, the Rev. Bernard C. Hanns of Etmits, the Rev. John Healy of Auburn, the Rev. Ralph Neagle of Elmira and the Rev. Theodore Winterroth of
