Prelates To Take Part In Summer School Rite

CLIFF HAVEN — On August 15, the Feast of the Assumption, the Catholic Summer School of America at Cliff Haven on Lake Champlain will be honored by the presence of the Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman D. D., LL.D., Archbishop of New York who will preside at the Pontifical High Mass, and by the Most Rev. Stephen J. Donahue, D.D., Auxiliary Bishop of New York who will be the celebrant at the Pontifical Benediction. The preachers for the day will be the Rev. John S. Middleton, S.T.D., Pr. D., of St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Splaine, D.D., of Brookline, Mass., President of the Summer School.

The great Feast of the Assumption, coming at the height of the season has been specially observed for many years at the Catholic Summer School, growing in beauty of ceremony each year until it has become a famed feature of Cliff Haven.

This year, in anticipation of the great honor to be conferred upon the Golden Jubilee Session of Cliff Haven by the presence of His Excellency, the Archbishop of New York and by His Excellency, Bishop Donahue, Auxiliary Bishop of New York, the officers and trustees of the Summer School, under the leadership of its President, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Splaine, are striving to perfect the ceremonies of the day in all details, so that, when at four o'clock in the afternoon, the procession of hundreds of men and women from Cliff Haven and from the neighboring parts of the North Country, starts, every possible provision will have been made to enhance the beauty and the inspiration of the occasion.

PICNIC, TRIP PLANNED

Young people of St. Andrew's have completed their plans for a successful picnic at Money Brook Glen State Park next Sunday. The bus will leave St. Andrew's at 11 A. M. for the park. After an afternoon of swimming, hiking and games, the picnickers will leave at 6 o'clock for Canesis Lake where they can dance and enjoy themselves.

Approximately 25 Boy Scouts and Leaders of Troop 70 will leave on Sunday, August 10 for a week's camping trip to Canadice Lake. All arrangements have been completed after weeks of planning. The camping trip is under the general chairmanship of Scoutmaster, William Donadoni, assisted by Assistant scoutmasters: John Predmore, John Goddard and William Bartle. Robert Glasgow and Joseph Cosenes will see active service on this camp trip.

SOUTH AFRICA FACES SHORTAGE OF MISSIONERS

DURBAN, Natal, S. A.—The 13 Oblates of Mary Immaculate of the Province of Northern United States who work in the Vicariate Apostolic of Natal have had to redouble their efforts, as nine of their brethren have been called to service with the armed forces. Two of the Fathers each celebrate three Masses on Sunday to satisfy the religious needs of the faithful. Another priest has care of more than 1,100 native Catholics.

In the valley of the Thousand Hills, where there are still 30,000 Zulus who have never seen a missionary, the work becomes more pressing each day as conversion progresses in spite of the shortage of priests. Father O'Sullivan is chaplain of the South African forces, and Father Coppens, whose mission was devastated by a typhoon a year ago, is tending to the rebuilding of the various structures.

Mission Reopened After 30 Years

LISBON — A group of three Jesuit priests and three Brothers will sail during July for Portuguese East Africa to take up the mission in Zambesia province which the Jesuits were forced by the Portuguese Government to abandon 30 years ago. The Rev. J. E. Gonçalves, S. J., will be the superior of the newly reopened mission.

K. of C.-Shriners To Honor Most Popular Ball Player

The most popular player with the Rochester Red Wings will be presented with a "Lou Gehrig Trophy" on Thursday evening, August 14 after all votes of those attending the "Knights of Columbus-Shrine Ball Games" are tabulated and the winner is determined. Voting will take place at the Stadium that night.

Committees representing the two organizations are lining up members to play on the "old-timers" ball teams that night. This will be one of the many featured attractions planned for the program.

The regularly scheduled International League ball game between the Rochester Red Wings and Montreal Royals will highlight the program.

In a colorful and striking military pageant and review, the Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John and Ladies' Auxiliary drill companies, under the command of Col. Frederick J. Wegman, will have a prominent place with marching units of several of Rochester's fraternal units.

Tickets for the game are on sale at the Knights of Columbus office, Columbus Civic Centre, 80 Chestnut Street, with Paul A. Predmore in charge. They are also on sale at Masonic Temple and Bond's Clothing Store.

Special sections have been reserved for the Knights of Columbus officers, the heads of the Fourth Degree Assembly and of Musa Caravan, Order of the Alhambra.

Do not forget that the greatest service you can render to your brethren is the example of a regular life.

Woman, Head Of British Prison, Gets Valor Medal

LONDON.—(NC)—The Chief Officer of Holloway Prison, Miss L. S. Manley, a Catholic, has been awarded the Medal of the Order of the British Empire for meritorious service. In her present position she succeeds Miss Mary Size, also a Catholic, who is now Governor of Aylesbury Prison and who also received recently the Medal of the O. B. E.

Holloway is a women's prison and women of many nationalities have been in custody there since the war started. Miss Manley had many problems to deal with when London was bombarded from the air night after night. The award of the O.B.E. medal is a tribute to her calmness.

Blessed Sacrament

HOLYDAY, AUGUST 15

Members of the Choir enjoyed their second picnic of the year at Webster-on-the-Lake Park last Sunday afternoon. Swimming and baseball added to the fun of those present. Director Anthony DeSurra was pleasantly surprised to receive a birthday cake made especially for the occasion.

About 400 copies of the newly revised New Testament have been received. Of those who ordered them, many have already called for and obtained their copies. The remaining will be distributed and delivered by the members of the Holy Name Society as soon as it is conveniently possible.

The past week saw two funerals in the parish. Final services were held for Lina Bushay on Tuesday morning, and the Funeral Mass for Mrs. Sophia Seibold was celebrated on Wednesday morning, both at 9 o'clock.

Next Friday, August 15, is the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven, and a holyday of obligation. Masses will be at 5:45, 7, 8, 9, and 10 o'clock. Holy Hour in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be held on the eve of the feast, Thursday, beginning at 7:45.

WORK ON CONVENT BEGINS

Another step towards the establishment of the new convent for the nuns teaching in the parish was taken last Sunday as the cornerstone was laid. The residence will be completed in the fall.

Tribute to the Sisters of St. Joseph was made by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John P. Schellhorn, former pastor who recalled the hardships and sacrifices necessary to carry on their great work. He also congratulated the Rev. Francis J. Hoefen, pastor, his assistants and the parishioners for their work in the building campaign.

Services opened with a procession from the rectory to the new building with the Knights of St. John in full dress uniform, the Auxiliary and the Boy Scouts.

Rev. Jacob R. Rauber, assistant, celebrated the Solemn High Mass, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John P. Schellhorn and Rev. William D. Tobin, assisting.

Alfred Melich and Julia Bossert are co-chairmen.

FRANCE CONTINUES AID TO MISSIONS DESPITE WAR

VICHY. — Notwithstanding difficult times at home, Catholic France has remained steadfast in generosity to the missions.

No figures are available for occupied France, but in unoccupied France, according to the report of Msgr. Lavarenne, the director of the Lyon Central Committee, the 1940 donations to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the Work of St. Peter the Apostle surpassed the 1939 offerings by 850,000 francs—about $5,418.

Contributions from the whole of France amounted to 11,700,000 francs in 1938 and 10,500,000 francs in 1939. It is believed that when the total contribution for 1940 becomes known, it will surpass the 1938 returns.

Episcopalian Paper Laud's Pope's Talk

MILWAUKEE.—"Amid the strident voices proclaiming war and yet more war, the quiet voice of Pope Pius XII brought a welcome note of calm serenity and prophetic faith as he addressed the world by radio on St. Peter's Day," says the Living Church, Episcopalian publication published here, in its current issue.

"The message was one greatly needed at this critical time," the editorial says, "and many parts of it bring new courage and confidence, not only to those within the fold of Roman Catholicism but to all Christian people.

"For all of us need the renewed call to trust in God that was the burden of the Pope's message Comparing the sufferings of today with those of the early Roman persecutions, the Holy Father set both of these times of trial against God's vision of 'the all embracing panorama of the ages.'"

Co-operative Students Visit Granger Project

Gorman, of Assumption Church. The Granger Homestead is a subsistence project sponsored by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Luigi Ligutti, Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference.

The 100 students of the Recreation School has come from 18 States, the District of Columbia and Canada, for two weeks of intensive training in group recreation eadership.
