WASHINGTON - Daily life in Vatican City, together with historic scenes depicting His Holiness Pope Pius XII as head of the vast spiritual realm of the Catholic Church, is presented in the first childrength motion metures ever full-length motion picture ever made within the precincts of the Holy City. In the course of this film than, voice of the Ri Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen of the Catholic University of America is heard, explaining the various acenes in "The Story of the Vat-

Produced by The March of Time, under the direction of Richard de Rochemont, the picture will have its world premiere at the Geary Theater in San Francisco this Friday and will shown for the first time in the East at the Rivoli Theater in Scranton, Pa., August 23.

Versions in Other Languages In addition to the American ver-sion of the film, with narration by Monsignor Sheen, there will be Spanish, French and Portuguese versions for showing in Europe and in Latin America. The directors of the March of Time, it is announced were encouraged to un-dertake this full-length motion-picture of the Vatican following reception accorded the recent shorter March of Time film on the Vatican, of which this is an entirely new and enlarged version

What the editors have sought in this film, it is said is an objective portrayal of the Vatican as it is today, with explanatory remarks by Monsignor Sheen throwing light on the foundation of the Church and its history, and with scenes in the life of Pope Pius XII, partic-ularly with reference to the Church's mission in the world to-
